The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

For the past few weeks we have been complimenting Rolling Meadows upon its friendly political campaign.

Why did we ever think that "elections could be made in Heaven?" Citizens of Rolling Meadows are fine people. They go to church on Sunday and are civic minded.

But they are no different from the rest of us when an election campaign warms up. All that Heaven can now do is to wish that the best men for the job win.

We do not know how many persons took advantage of the invitation to inspect the Black funeral home Saturday and Sunday, but we do know that there were a lot of oh's and ah's expressed by the visitors. Arlington Heights today has one of the finest funeral homes in northwest Cook county.

We have been waiting for some time to publish further details regarding just who will occupy "The Elms," the modern shopping center which the Trude organization is completing on the highway in Arlington.

We are also interested in whether the 72 apartments also nearing completion will be occupied by present residents of Arlington Heights or newcomers.

If "old timers" are to move into the new building, there should be many flats and homes hereabout available for home hunters.

We suggest that housewives clip out of this issue the detailed instructions given local publications by Arlington Heights Civil Defense organization regarding home preparedness against fatalities in case of a bomb raid.

It will be too late to start preparations after the arrival of the bomb.

Regardless of what a certain Chicago newspaper my publish, we think Sheriff Lohman is trying to do a good job in cleaning up syndicated gambling. In a statement made to the press Monday, he named villages whose officials have not shown evidence of their willingness to cooperate with his office.

We were glad to learn none of the northwest communities are included in the list. They have all agreed to cooperate with the sheriff.

Here is a hint to local taverns. They should walk the straight and narrow path if they desire to keep their licenses.

City of Rolling Meadows and Arlington Jockey Club would do well to engage in some sanitary engineering work on the creek that passes through that area.

Midwest Enterprises will open and straighten out the portion of the ditch that passes through the 800 acres of farmland that will soon become city lots.

The creek straightening will increase the flood load that will be passed on to Rolling Meadows.

We will no longer apologize to a public official when we seek information regarding events in his office. We obtained new insight last Friday at Springfield of our responsibility to the reading public.

Basil L. Walters, head of the Freedom of Information committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, at the second annual Illinois Freedom of Information Clinic said in part:

"People have a right to know how well their public officials are doing the job. Public officials are servants of the people, the people are not servants of the officials. People have a right to see public records and sit in on debates in the legislature, school boards, city councils, etc. These debates are essential to develop an intelligent public opinion.

"There is great danger in a secret police force. But the FBI holds rigidly to its tradition and the purpose for which it was organized. It keeps its nose clean.

"No public document belongs to any public official to be disposed of as he wishes. It is public information and belongs to the general public.

"Newspapers are providing the greatest value the American people have ever had. For a nickel they get the greatest bargain they could. The press keeps the eternal spotlight on public records, public officials. For a nickel, the public is buying collectively the services of skilled observers."

A few years ago we were worried about the possible depletion of the coal supply of this world. It was a useless worry. A report made to the U. S. senate reveals that railroads use of coal is down 84 million tons and its use for space heating and cooking is down 65 million tons.

Natural gas as well as diesel and distillate fuel oil have jumped the equivalent of 240 million tons of coal.

The United States has about one-fifth of the world's supply of oil reserves, but our consumption is more than half of the free world's consumption.

We are not going to worry about the day when our oil stocks will be exhausted. Isn't atomic power on the way?

Looking over the route they will take on a 4-day primitive camping trip to Starved Rock are members of Senior Scout Troop 95, Arlington Heights, as they prepared to leave by bus Monday morning. Eighteen girls and 2 leaders made the excursion. —Staff Photo

Village Plans to Control Collection of Garbage

Grade School To Elect 3 Board Members

Election for 3 board members of Arlington Heights school district 25 is April 9 from noon to 7 p.m.

Polling places are North school and the Junior high school.

Retiring from the board this year are Robert Lockwood, president, and Melvin Kurtz who assisted in selection of a nominating committee which was made up of representatives of 17 local service groups, 5 units of the PTA, and all property owners associations.

Here are the candidates:

INCUMBENT Richard L. Johnston, 47, of 532 Banbury rd., Arlington Heights, has served on the school board 3 years. He has three children of school age and has been a resident here for 16 years. Johnston has been active in PTA and cub scouts since moving to Arlington from Chicago.

He has a degree in chemical engineering from John Hopkins University and a law degree from George Washington university. He is now a patent attorney in a Chicago law firm.

LAMBERT W. BREDEHOFT, 42, of 201 Wilshire dr., has been a resident of Arlington Heights for 4 years. He moved here from Evanston.

Member of Phi Beta Kappa, Bredehoft received a B.S. degree from Northwestern university and has been active in cub scouts and boy scouts as well as serving as president of Stonegate association. Two of his 3 children are school age.

He is vice-president of Harris Trust and Savings bank.

WILLIAM F. HANNUM, 38, of 1020 N. Fernandez ave., has two children at Ridge school. He moved here 6 years ago from Broadview, Ill., and is a graduate electrical engineer from Iowa State university.

His father was superintendent of schools in Ottumwa, Ia., for 20 years. Hannum is associated with Public Service co.

League Of Women Voters To Hear Village, Chamber Heads

F. R. Buechner, village manager, and Nelson Hauff, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will discuss the framework of the village manager form of government and the background of the growth of Arlington Heights with members of the League of Women Voters and their guests at an open meeting at 8 p.m. April 14, in the junior high school cafeteria, 301 W. South st.

This meeting will launch the members on their "Know Your Town Government" survey which will be continued through unit meetings and workshops during the spring and summer, under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Stephen Jurco, chairman, and Mrs. S. Frederic Marks, president.

Buechner, who came to Arlington Heights as its first village manager with broad experience in the field, will be introduced by Mrs. Gerald M. Chapman of the committee studying the political framework of the town for the survey. Mrs. Chester Moore, chairman of the committee on social composition of the village, will present Nelson Hauff, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, whose years of service have made him familiar with the pattern of growth of the village. Both men have a great deal to contribute to an understanding of the history of the development of the village and the framework of its present form of government.

The League of Women Voters is a national organization whose purpose is to encourage informed and active participation of citizens in government. The League does not support nor oppose political parties nor candidates, but endeavors to promote good government by bringing information to its members, through meetings such as the one planned for April 14. All interested persons in the community are invited to attend.

Seek $300 from Builders To Aid School Problem

Village Attorney Hugo J. Thal was authorized at the Arlington Heights board meeting Tuesday night to draft an ordinance requiring builders to pay a $300 fee for each home building permit they obtain. Money would be turned over to the elementary school district in the village to aid it in educating children from these homes until said homes are on the tax rolls.

A SIMILAR policy has been adopted in Palatine, and Mount Prospect has the matter under consideration. Indirectly, it is a result of a plea made by Cook county superintendent of schools, Noble J. Puffer, who said it was the only solution for suburban schools being overloaded due to the rapid increase in population. He claimed it's impossible to build schools fast enough to accommodate the move-ins, namely because funds were not available

There is usually a delay of a year or two in getting new homes on the tax rolls, said Puffer. In the meantime the schools have to educate the children. He believes that, if a fee were assessed at the time a building permit is taken out specifically for the purpose to tide the schools over this period, it would help solve the problem.

FREE PARKING will be permitted after 12 o'clock noon on Wednesdays throughout the business district in the 1 and 2 hour meter zones. Since most businesses are closed Wednesday afternoons the board felt it was not necessary to enforce the meter collections during that period. This will also relieve the police officer, who checks for parking violations, and he will be available for other duties at that time.

Clergymen in Arlington Heights will be given special cards to permit them to park free in metered zones. The board felt they should not be made to pay a parking fee while on church work. The same privilege is given physicians and surgeons, dentists and community nurses, who have all been supplied with proper markers to identify their cars.

A REQUEST for a permit to build an animal hospital on Northwest hwy., just east of Stonegate subdivision, was denied by the village board. The refusal was based on the fact that animal hospitals are prohibited in commercial zones in the new building code now under consideration and in view of this proposed ruling the board felt it was not advisable to grant the permit.

An ordinance setting the new fees for liquor licenses was read and passed by the board. The fees vary from $700 for taverns to $150 for private clubs .

William F. Knight was denied a permit to build a home on a lot with less than 50 foot frontage. Main objection was that the setback would not be more than 12 feet from the sidewalk and homes on either side of the proposed building are set back between 20 and 30 feet, and their view would be blocked.

Attorney Thal was instructed to prepare an ordinance providing for a civil defense program in Arlington Heights. A special meeting is contemplated in order to pass the ordinance before April 20.

THE BOARD concurred on the recommendation of the zoning board of appeals and denied the permit for the proposed medical center in the 400 block on S. State rd.

Permission was granted to the Public Service co. for a zoning variation on the northeast corner of State rd. and Oakton st. to permit the installation and operation of an electrical distribution center. The variation was recommended by the zoning board.

To Deny Renewal Of 2 Liquor Licenses Here

As a result of a recent ruling that no tavern or business selling intoxicating liquors can be within 100 feet of school property, Arlington Heights Liquor Commissioner Albert W. Goedke will be forced to deny the renewal of 2 liquor licenses this year.

The village board decided at its meeting Tuesday night that the commissioner had no other alternative than to inform the owners that they could not renew their licenses.

THE TAVERNS in question are Glueckert's Lounge, 656 W. Northwest hwy., operated by R. Fred Glueckert, and Benny's Tavern, 640 W. Northwest hwy., operated by Ben Micklevitz. The taverns are within 100 feet of the Arlington Heights high school.

Both men were informed several months ago that their properties were within the restricted area after a letter had been received by the board from the State Superintendent of schools telling of the ruling and the subsequent failure of their property to meet with the requirements. Businesses operating at the time of the ruling are allowed to finish out the current year, but no license renewal would be permitted.

Their present licenses expire April 30.

New Pickup Times For Heights Air Mail

Closing time for Arlington Heights air mail is now 7:20 a.m., 11:45 a.m., 4:25 p.m., 5 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Arnold Freise New C C President

Arnold Freise of Mayfair Rug was elected president of Arlington

Heights Chamber of Commerce last week. Other officers named by the board of directors are Everett E. Lindgren, vice president; Raymond Landmeier, treasurer, and Nelson F. Hauff, secretary.

New directors recently elected are: Arnold E. Freise, Roland A. Franzen, Harold A. Massmann and Stuart R. Paddock.

A ladies night with Joseph Meek as the speaker is booked for May 5. Mr. Meek, who was the Republican candidate for U. S. senator is taking an active part in state and governmental legislation.

He is opposing an increase in the state sales tax because in his belief the extra cent is booked to go for a lot of other agencies than schools. On the national level he is opposing a hike in the minimum wage. To secure the appearance of Meek, the CC is guaranteeing a full house at the dinner, which will be served by the ladies of Faith Lutheran church. Tickets are $2.

Helene Busse Now At Augustana Hospital

Mrs. Helene Busse, an employee in the clerk's office of the village of Arlington Heights, has left the Sherman hospital, Elgin, and is now recuperating at the Augustana hospital, 411 Dickens st., Chicago. The phone number is Division 8-1000, room 720.

Friends should hereafter address cards to the new address. Helene in a personal phone call to Paddock Publications asks the Herald to express her thanks to everybody.

Prepare Ordinance Spelling Out Details of Service

Municipal control of garbage collection is expected to become a reality in Arlington Heights in the near future. The village board voted Tuesday night to have the attorney prepare an ordinance spelling out the details of such a service.

An extensive study has been made by Village Manager F. Robert Buechner to determine the best type of garbage service for Arlington Heights. A survey was launched in October to find out how other cities and towns in the area were handling their garbage problem. Information was compiled from 39 Illinois cities and as a result of this study the manager recommended to the village board at its February 15 meeting that it consider a private contract method of collection for this village. The matter was then further studied by Buechner and Trustee Edwin Johnson.

UNDER THIS system the village would advertise for bids to grant a franchise by contract to an "independent contractor" to operate, with penalties for failures in regular service; said independent contractor to own and maintain the equipment, hire and control employees, insure, and handling billing and collections at rates agreed upon in the contract. No tax levy would be required.

Manager Buechner said the village would take bids on complete service, which would include commercial areas as well as residential. No curb service would be permitted and 2 collections a week would be made. The contractor will be required to use only enclosed, water tight vehicles for this collection. The board will reserve the right to reject any and all bids if the prices are not satisfactory.

"The board also contemplates passing an ordinance requiring every householder, business and industry to take this service, with penalties for failure to do so," said Buechner. "This requirement is to protect public health and sanitation in the village."

Arlington Civil Defense Organized

A civil defense program for Arlington Heights is being set up and officially incorporated into a village ordinance.

Announcement of the plan was made Tuesday by Mrs. Lillian Peters, director, and Mrs. Jack Keller, co-director.

In the near future all workers for civilian defense will have an opportunity to receive smallpox, typhoid, and tetanus immunization.

The telephone company, and fire and police departments have requested permission to participate in the program.

Guiding the program in Arlington are Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Dueball, chief warden; Mrs. George W. Sullivan, education of school children; Mrs. Charles Bloecker, medical director; Mrs. George Rienhardt, supervision of aid stations and nursing personnel; Mrs. D. Manthos, education of the homemakers; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Opela, volunteer ground observer corps; and Mrs. Harold Weiss, publicity.

Elsewhere in this issue is a feature article explaining what to do in case of attack.

To Elect 3 High School Board Members

Three candidates for members of the Arlington Heights high school board were announced this week.

Residents of the high school district will go to the polls April 9 from noon to 7 p.m.

Candidates are:

JOHN KAPPA, 32, of Route 1, Roselle, has lived in Elk Grove township for 6 years. Formerly a resident of Chicago, he has 4 children, 3 of them in school. Member of VFW, he is employed by a florist.

William J. Hartman, 39, of 403 S. Wille, Mount Prospect, was graduated from the University of Illinois. Two of his 3 children are school age. A resident of Mount Prospect for 6 years, he has been active in Little League and PTA. Formerly of Des Plaines, Hartman is associated with H. S. Dooley real estate firm.

Joseph H. Brant, 46, of 615 Mayfair rd., Arlington Heights, came here 4½ years ago from Maine. He has three children in local schools, 1 in college. He was graduated and Cornell university, where he earned a Ph.D. in chemistry. At present he is director of research for the Toni company. Brant is a member of the plan commission. Scarsdale improvement association, an officer in PTA, and was active in boy scouts.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS polling places are the high school, junior high, North school, and Dryden school.

Public schools in Elk Grove, Wheeling, and Mount Prospect will serve as polling places there.

The above candidates are running to fill the vacancies on the board created by the retirement of present incumbants Elmer F. Laurin, Arthur Skelton and Arnold Garlisch.

Wheeling Township Has Big Bankroll

The public gets all excited when a taxing body is reported hard pressed for funds, but when there are thousands on hand or invested in government bonds the electors are not interested. So Wheeling township officials learned Tuesday when only two non-officers appeared at the annual town meeting. One of them, Nelson F. Hauff was pressed into service as moderator.

Reports of Supervisor Klehm showed a large cash balance and $20,000 in government bonds. The excess commission earnings of the tax collector swells the township fund year after year, although the county now requires it to pay the full salary of the assessor.

There will be no township or relief fund tax levied this year. The demands for relief are small.

Westgate Developer Offers To Improve Portion Of Campbell St.

An oral agreement has been received by the Arlington Heights village board from Reuter Home builders, developers of Westgate subdivision, stating they plan to improve Campbell ave. for 1,316 feet east from the intersection of Wilke rd.

The street has been badly damaged during the building program and Reuter told Village Manager F. Robert Buechner that his organization plans to widen the street 8 feet on each side and put in curb and gutter. The improved street would be 36 feet wide.

He told Buechner, however, that this did not include the south half of Campbell in front of the proposed shopping center, the cost of which he felt should be borne by the lessee. The board will contact this party to see if he will go along with the improvement.

The board authorized the drafting of a contract between the village and Arlington Park Jockey club to provide the club with sewer service for the next 3 years at $2,700 per year.

A resolution will be adopted by the board in concurrence with Cook county highway department agreeing to the erection of 24 inch stop signs to stop traffic entering Wilke rd. at Thomas and Olive sts., and the erection of 35 mile per hour speed zone signs on both sides of Wilke rd., between the north village limits of Thomas st. and Northwest hwy.

William Me[illegible], village treasurer, has been appointed to spread the special assessment roll for the improvement of S. Beverley lane, between Rockwell and Central rd.

An ordinance setting Winkelman's Tire and Battery shop as the polling place for District 3 was passed by the board.

Jewel, Woolworth To Locate In Rolling Meadows

With the expected completion of rental contracts with 3 national chains, Kimball Hill announced this week that construction will start this summer on the Rolling Meadows shopping center.

The Jewel food store organization has approved the site. The contract for a Woolworth store has been sent to New York for final signature and contract for 7500 feet of space for a self service drug store, known as Home Town Drugs, is being negotiated.

Mrs. William Wysocki, 722 S. Chestnut, is leaving today for Long Island, N. Y. for a 10 day visit with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rieger. Three-year-old Stephen Wysocki will accompany his mother on the trip.

Birthday Celebrations

Frank P. Sesterhenn, 316 W. Hawthorne, was a surprised man last Saturday evening when he answered the doorbell and there stood about 25 relatives, all prepared for a surprise birthday celebration in honor of his April 2 birthday. The group consisting of sisters, brothers, nieces and nephews planned an evening of fun with everyone bringing a game for all to enjoy.

Mrs. Don Gieseke entertained at a birthday party for Mrs. Esther Wayman. Also honored at the party was Mrs. Foote, mother of Mrs. Wayman.

Vacations

Mrs. Peter Stainbrook of S. Highland ave. has just returned from a 3-week Florida trip. Accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Stainbrook of Palatine, she visited many of the scenic spots in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Bolte enjoyed a 15-day Florida vacation. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bascom, former Arlington Heights residents, now of Lakeland, Fla. On their return trip they visited the Civil War memorial at Vicksburg, and Lincoln's home in Springfield.

Home after a 6½-week stay at Sarasota, Fla., are Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wallace and Dianne and Kathleen. Among the many interesting places they visited were Cypress Gardens, Bock Tower, and Ringling Bros. circus, whose winter headquarters are at Sarasota.

Arlington's assistant postmaster, Louis Zinkel, and his family are enjoying a California vacation. Sunshine and ideal 80 degree temperatures are reported by Mr. Zinkel.

Scholastic Honoree

Sana Franke, freshman at Indiana university, Bloomington, has made the dean's list for scholastic honors. Her average is 2.6 out of a possible 3. She has been initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary sorority for grades of 2.5 or better. She is also a member of Enoemne, an activity and grade honorary society. Her activities at school include being social chairman of her dormitory, members of the YWCA, publicity chairman for her dormitory and a member of the committee for Freshman Tyronian.

Miss Franke, also pledged to Pi Beta Phi, will be home for the Easter vacation this week.

Don Bedingfield, student at Northern Illinois state college, DeKalb, returned home Wednesday to spend his Easter vacation.

After waiting several years for a home in Arlington Heights, J. B. Roberts, manager of Emerol plant on E. Davis st., is moving here Thursday. He and Mrs. Roberts will be residing at 133 S. Mitchell.

Eastwood Events

Association to Meet

Tuesday evening, April 12, Eastwood association will hold its monthly meeting at the field house. The nominating committee will announce candidates who have accepted nominations for the coming election of officers in May. Also on the program will be the introduction of candidates representing the Arlington Progress party. Following the meeting refreshments will be served.

Eastwood residents extend a hurry and get well wish to Peggy Lambert, 207 N. Brighton, who has been in St. Francis hospital with pneumonia the past week. It's bad enough to have one sick in the family, but Peggy's two younger sons, Paul and Joey, also are confined with illness, theirs being the chicken pox.

Farewell Party

Mrs. Lillian Bryan entertained nine at a farewell dinner party Sunday honoring Mrs. Irene Joyner, who is leaving Arlington in a few weeks to make her home in Tucson, Ariz. Mrs. Bryan is accompanying Mrs. Joyner on the trip out West and will vacation several weeks in Arizona before returning home.

Sharon and Marilyn Smith entertained several school friends Monday at a pre-Easter luncheon. Their guests were Caroline Neas, Susan Edmonds, Lenore Radosti and Sue Holderman of Mount Prospect. After lunch the girls busied themselves with a treasure hunt and charades.

Birthdays

The King Klopfensteins returned Monday from a weekend visit in Graybill, Ind., where they enjoyed a family birthday celebration in honor of Mr. K's April Fool's day birthday.

Judy Fitz-Patrick also has a birthday April 1. Her celebration was held Sunday at which time relatives sang "Happy Birthday" to 15-year-old Judy and to a cousin of hers. Judy left Monday on a primitive camping trip to Starved Rock with girl scout troop 95 and expects to return home Thursday.

This coming Saturday, Jimmy Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Barnes of 419 N. Lincoln lane is celebrating his sixth birthday at a luncheon party for his friends featuring Easter decorations and Easter baskets for favors. Those attending will be Sue and Jo Rogers, Lynn Larson, Pam Fruehling, Mary Lee Barton, Sandra Petrie, Carol Cockrell, Dean Paajanen and Jimmy's twin sisters, Kandi and Sherri.

Also on Saturday, Suzanne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, 614 N. Beverley, is celebrating her ninth birthday, with a luncheon party for friends. The Easter theme will be carried out in decorations and favors, with all the girls receiving Easter baskets. On the guest list are Mary Lou Niksich of Chicago, Karen Ballou, Barbara Buschart, Diane Fill, Jo Ann Nuernberger, Yvonne Hartwig, Jill Anderson, Karla Stelling, Sue Bliss, and Suzanne's cousins Debbie and Donna Wadsworth of South Fort Mitchell, Ky.

The Eastwood bridge tournament is going into the final stretch with only 2 more months left to boost scores. Sorry for the error on the date for the bridge party at the Legion hall, the date is Saturday night, June 11. All those who have been in the tournament are invited to attend. More details will be announced later. Groups are meeting this month at the homes of the Hal Barnes, Bob Burrows, Dick Evans, Sig Hollingers, Glenn Johnsons, Frank Pattons and Don Shaws. All scores have not been turned in from the March parties so at this time high scores cannot be listed.

Easetwood's spring dance is to be held June 18 at Itasca country club.

PRUDENTIAL'S EVANSTON DISTRICT RECEIVES TOP AGENCY AWARD

Manager
Henry C. Bauer, C. L. U.

Evanston, Ill., (Special)—The Prudential Insurance Company has announced the award of one of the company's highest agency honors, a President's Citation—to the Evanston District, 845 Chicago Ave. The citation commends the local agency members for their outstanding performance in all phases of the sale and service of Life and Sickness and Accident insurance during the year 1954.

In accepting the honor, Henry C. Bauer, manager of the Evanston District, said the citation came about as a result of the local representatives' "real and personal interest in the security of families in this area."

Bauer explained that every member of the Evanston District is a trained insurance specialist, skilled in helping families plan their futures with sound insurance protection to fit their incomes. Bauer characterized his staff's achievement as a "tribute to the admirable thrift and foresight of the people in Evanston and the surrounding communities which are served by this agency."

In the Prudential's year-end standings, the Evanston District ranked 37th among 470 established Prudential district offices throughout the United States and Canada.

Prudential's new Mid-America Home Office, now under construction in Chicago, will be headquarters of Prudential service for you and your neighbors in Illinois and Indiana.

Form Teacher-Parent Group At Arlington High School

Preliminary steps for the formation of a teacher and parent organization for Arlington Heights high school were taken Tuesday when a group of mothers met with Superintendent H. L. Slichenmyer.

As revealed in the minutes of this meeting, the organization should have as its purposes assistance in school activities, such as open house, homecoming and dances, and the creation of a closer understanding and cooperation between parents, teachers and students of the school.

EVERY PARENT or guardian of a high school student would automatically be a member, and no dues would be assessed. It was suggested that the membership be organized into groups representing the freshmen, sophomores, and the combined junior and senior classes.

The business of the organization would be taken care of by an executive board and would not take up time during group meetings.

The organizing group felt that every meeting should include both social activities and discussion of the high school curriculum, probably with the entire organization meeting for social activities and discussions taking place separately for each of the 3 sub-groups. The group favored having 3 or 4 meetings during each school year.

An announcement is being composed by Mrs. C. H. Rosene to inform parents about the organization and its purposes. This letter is to be mailed in conjunction with the administration's regular letter to parents, which will be sent out April 11.

FORMATION of a nominating committee, a program committee, and a by-laws committee was decided upon. The nominating committee will consist of a faculty member from the high school, a representative from Prospect Heights, 2 from Mt. Prospect, and 3 from Arlington Heights. The program committee will consist of 7 from Arlington Heights, 5 from Mt. Prospect, 3 from Prospect Heights, 3 from the high school, 1 from Elk Grove, and 1 from Wheeling. The by-laws committee will consist of 3 parents and Superintendent Slichenmyer.

Members of the organizing group are to call various people for membership on the committees.

Members of the organizing group present at the meeting were Mrs. Lee Watson, Arlington Hights; Mrs. H. B. Blocksom, Mt. Prospect; Mrs. Charles H. Baker, Arlington Heights; Mrs. William B. Powell, Mt. Prospect; Mrs. C. H. Rosene, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Carl Lushow, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Agatha T. Reinsma, Prospect Heights.

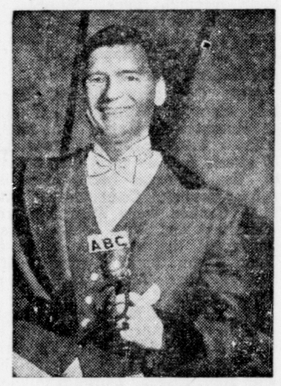
AAEC To Have TV Star As Guest At Dinner Meet



CLAUDE KIRCHNER

Claude Kirchner, famed ringmaster of TV's Super Circus, will be the featured speaker at the Arlington Area Educators' council spring dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. April 14 at St. Peter school, Arlington Heights. Kirchner will be introduced by Dick Bronwell, Arlington Heights village trustee, who played the other tackle position with Kirchner on a Riverside-Brookfield high school football team.

Dr. Norbert Hruby, Arlington Heights, another classmate at RB HS and valedictorian of his class, will give a report of preparations and plans for educational TV channel 11, which soon will be operating in Chicago. Hruby is director of television and radio at Loyola university and chairman of the educational TV channel 11 speakers bureau.

Kirchner will describe some of the "inside" of TV show business as well as comment on how schools have affected his career. Kirchner had a good start learning to speak and read German while in school in Germany; then his family moved to Riverside, and he had to start all over on a new language. However, this handicap didn't last long because it wasn't long before he was a promising radio announcer and today he is tops in his field according to Dennis Malcolmson, president of AAEC and another RBHS alumnus.

At this final meeting of the year, officers for next year will be elected and installed. Current officers, in addition to Malcolmson, are Marian Elliott, vice president; Gladys Ackley, secretary; and Ed Spacapan, treasurer.

This local educational council is composed of 310 teachers and administrators of all the public and Lutheran schools in Elk Grove and Wheeling townships, which includes the area served by Arlington Heights high school. Nine meetings were held this year for exchange of ideas, fellowship, education, and entertainment. In addition, social and recreational functions, summer job placement service, credit union membership, and other services are offered to provide for the welfare and morale of teachers.

"Homemaker of 1955" Mrs. Luther Stephan, will be asked to take a bow at this meeting as one of our members who recently hit the newspaper headlines. Her honor was received because in addition to being a full time kindergarten teacher, she keeps busy raising her 9 children in her large home and assisting her husband, the Rev. Luther Stephan of St. Peter church. (ACM

Tickets For New Concert Season On Sale April 18-23

The annual membership drive of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association will be held the week of April 18 through April 23. It is during this one week only that the opportunity to join is open to everyone.

This year a special invitation is being given to new members who join before April 17. By doing so, each new member will be privileged to attend the last concert of the current season, which will feature the Rochester Symphony orchestra.

This is the first time a full symphony orchestra will be in Arlington Heights, and its appearance is the most ambitious undertaking of the concert association since its organization 7 years ago. The concert is scheduled for April 17 and will be held in the new gym at Arlington Heights high school.

THIS BONUS will give new members an opportunity to find out this year just what the concert series has to offer. Memberships are $6 for adults and $3.50 for students, which entitles members to attend all concerts given by the association next fall and winter.

Concert attractions the past season included Nan Merriman, The Carolers, De La Fuente and Stassen, Samuel Sorin, plus the Rochester Symphony orchestra. Concerts of the same caliber will be selected for next year. In fact, at this time, it is understood that the Vienna Academy chorus and Whittemore and Lowe piano team have been tentatively engaged for next season, with 3 more to be selected by the artist's committee following the membership drive.

Arlington Heights Community Concert association is non-profit. All money collected from the sale of memberships is used to engage the best talent and to defray expenses.

MEMBERSHIPS may be obtained from workers who will be calling at homes throughout the village, or from area captains listed in the Community Concert advertisement elsewhere in this issue. Headquarters will be established at Hill-Behan Lumber company; 5 S. State rd., from April 18 through 23.

These concerts are a form of entertainment for the entire community and the program is planned to satisfy the tastes of everyone. It is only through the support of residents of this community and the surrounding area that these concerts can continue.

Arlington Church Inaugurates Daytime Program For Girls

Beginning the week of April 11, the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church will inaugurate a daytime program for girls 8 through 13, in connection with the nationwide Awana Girls program.

The Chums, for girls ages 8 through 10, will meet each Monday at 4 p.m., beginning April 11, at the Methodist church, Dunton and St. James, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Lorraine Rabe, Mrs. Irene Wertheimer and Mrs. Alice Swetman are in charge of this group.

The Guards, for girls ages 11 through 13, will meet each Wednesday at 4 p.m., beginning April 13, at the same location. Misses Margit Ohrnell and Edith Mitchell will be in charge of this older group.

The program for each group will last 1½ hours and will include handicraft, games, stories, Bible memorization and group singing. Awards for attendance and performance will be given to the girls as the program continues.

Girls ages 8 through 13 are cordially invited to take part in this new program. Further information regarding the program may be obtained by calling the parsonage of the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church, 202 N. State rd., CLearbrook 3-1976.

Palatine Graduate Chosen Queen Of Air Force Mardi Gras

MRS. JAMES C. SCHMIDT

"Queen Barbara" was the title given to Mrs. James C. Schmidt, the former Barbara Henker, by Kelly air force base for the Mardi Gras held each April in San Antonio, Texas.

The queen and her husband, Sgt. James Schmidt are Palatine township high school graduates of 1951. Sgt. Schmidt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Schmidt Sr., 158 S. Benton st. The Henker family is now residing in Mountain View, Mo.

Eli Skinner DAR To Hear Speaker From Morton Arboretum

Eli Skinner chapter, NSDAR, will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Mr. George F. Schneberger, 615 N. Haddow, Arlington Heights, will be hostess for the guest meeting. Assisting her will be Mrs. Harry Balch, Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. Lincoln Bathrick.

The program has conservation as its subject and Walter E. Eickhorst has been obtained as speaker. Mr. Eickhorst began his work at the Morton Arboretum 24 years ago in the capacity of keeping its records on the many collections and relegated plantings. Now assistant curator of collections, he is concerned with the care of the plants presently established and the obtaining and establishing of new materials. Colored slides will be used to illustrate phases of the program.

Mrs. M. W. Grigsby, regent, will report on the state conference held in Chicago recently. (AMP

Womans Club Study Groups Plan Tours

Two study groups of Arlington Heights Woman's club have meetings scheduled for April.

The art study group will tour the Art Institute in Chicago April 13. Members of the club who want to go are to meet at the home of the art group chairman, Mrs. Lyle Ewing, 716 N. Ridge ave., at 10 a.m. and will drive to Chicago and have lunch at Marshall Field's. At 1:30 p.m. they will have a guided tour of the Art Institute, which will include the Japanese exhibit.

Members who cannot meet for luunch, may meet the group at 1:30 at the Art Institute. Reservations are limited and must be made by April 11. Transportation can be arranged by calling Mrs. Alva Roeske, Clearbrook 3-5595 or Mrs. Ewing, Clearbrook 3-7572.

Conservation and garden study group will have a tour of Flowerwood, Inc., florists and nurserymen, at the intersection of highways 14 and 176, Crystal Lake, April 19. The group will meet for lunch at 12:30 p.m. at Martinetti's Hotel Fiesta, on highway 14, near Crystal Lake.

This personally conducted tour will give members an opportunity to visit one of the Midwest's most modern flower ranges. Flowerwood officials state that the camellia, gardenia, and orchid plants are now in profuse bloom. They are the largest producers of gardenias and camellias in the Midwest, and ship these blooms by air over the entire United States. The evergreen propagation houses will also be a point of interest, as well as their floral shop, conservatory and garden shop.

Reservations are limited and must be made by April 15 by calling Mrs. Hershey, chairman, Clearbrook 3-0137, Mrs. Schwertfeger, co-chairman, Clearbrook 3-0744, Mrs. Brumlik, Clearbrook 3-6777, or Mrs. Horath, Clearbrook 3-9175. Transportation will be arranged for those who do not have a ride.

April meeting of the international relations study group has been cancelled.

Unveil Bronze Panel Of 'Last Supper' At Memory Gardens

The unveiling of the impressive bronze panel of Our Lord's Last Supper at Memory Gardens, Rand rd. at Euclid ave., Arlington Hts., is the culmination of many years of planning and creating on the part of artists in America and Italy.

When the plan was first conceived by William J. Pailey, president of Memory Gardens, a thorough study was made to select a subject that would meet the requirements of both the art critics and the general public. It is for this reason that the decision was made to immortalize the world famous painting of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper. Thus, we are now able to witness the scene as depicted by da Vinci at the Refectory of the Dominican Friars in the church of Santa Maria in Delle Grazie in Milan, cast in enduring bronze.

LEONARDO DA VINCI created this painting in 3 years, and it was first displayed to the public in 1498. He chose to reproduce the Last Supper at its most dramatic moment.

Jesus Christ had told the Apostles: "Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me." The words of the Master and their intonation are shown by the wonder and astonishment of the Apostles who, interrupting their meal, are looking astonished at one another or are turning to Him wondering at what they have heard. The reaction of the Apostles is clearly evident by the expression in the hands and faces of all.

Professor Aldo Buttini, who is one of Italy's foremost contemporary creative artists created the final model for this panel.

When the model was finally approved, the necessary mold was made to cast the panel in bronze. Ferdinando Marinelli personally produced the mold in collaboration with Prof. Buttini. The actual casting was executed at the world renowned Fonderia Artistria at Firzene, Italy.

It is considered to be the world's largest bronze casting of Our Lord's Last Supper. The figures, 13 in all, are almost life-size. It is approximately 15 feet in length and almost 7 feet in height. For enduring purposes, it was thickly cast, having an overall weight of over 2 tons.

Pailey is about to present this original creation and takes pleasure in inviting everyone to view its display at Memory Gardens in Arlington Heights.

Evangelical Free Church To Hold Annual Conference

DR. TITUS JOHNSON

Second annual missionary conference of Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church will be held April 14-17, and will feature messages from 5 foreign missionaries plus a motion picture story of the missionary work of the Evangelical Free church of America.

April 14, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, who has served 2 terms as a missionary nurse to the Belgium Congo, will tell of the large medical clinic she is in charge of at Tandala. This meeting will be held at the Methodist church, Dunton and St. James st.

April 15, also at the Methodist church, Dr. Titus M. Johnson will be speaker of the evening. Dr. Johnson is a medical missionary who has interspersed a medical practice in Chicago with 2 terms of pioneering work in the Belgium Congo. In his most recent missionary activity, from which he returned last November, Dr. Johnson established a large modern hospital at Tandala.

The regular Sunday morning worship service of the church, held at the North school, 410 N. State rd., will also be devoted to the missionary conference. At this service, Rev. Calvin Hanson, missionary to Japan, will be speaker. Rev. Hanson has had an active part in starting the denomination's Bible institute in Japan and has also carried on an extensive radio ministry there.

Climax of the conference will be Sunday at 7 p.m., when Rev. H. G. Rodine, secretary of foreign missions of the Evangelical Free Church of America, will speak and present a motion picture story of the missionary work carried on by this group in the Belgium Congo, one of 5 major areas of foreign missions activity of this demomination. Rev. Rodine, who has pastored several churches in this country, is a former missionary to South China. At this service, which will be held in the sanctuary of the Methodist church, Dunton and St. James, a brief message will also be heard from Paul Hanselman, who has been accepted as a missionary candidate and who, with his wife, will be leaving for the Congo field later this year.

The public is invited to attend this conference.

St. John Church Lists Holy Week Schedule

Observance of Holy week at St. John Evangelical and Reformed church, N. Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, continues with the observance of the Lenten Quiet Hour by Martha circle of the Women's guild today at its meeting at 12:30 p.m.

Today, Maundy Thursday, there will be a service of holy communion at 7:45 p.m. This will be the first communion for the confirmation class of 1955. The sermon of pastor J. G. Meiners will be entitled "Appointment With God."

Good Friday at 7:45 p.m. "A Service of Song" will be presented by the Chancel choir under the direction of August Stelling. Composers included in the service are Stainer and Gounod. Soloist will be Miss Delilah Kost. Other special parts will be sung by Mrs. Fred Blohm, Mrs. Ralph Potts, Weddy Kraenzel and Charles Duwe. Mr. Duwe also serves as assistant organist at the church.

The Resurrection will be heralded at St. John church, with a sunrise service at 6:30 a.m. The liturgy of holy communion will be celebrated for the early worshippers. There will also be a sermon and special music.

An Easter breakfast will be served by the Youth Fellowship of the church at 7:30 a.m.

The public is invited to the service and breakfast. Proceeds of the breakfast will be used by the young people for their program and projects.

At 9:15 a.m. Easter Sunday the primary through youth departments of the church school will dedicate as part of their Sunday school program, the Lenten mite boxes which they received 6 weeks ago. All gifts will be distributed through the church's world service program. Other departments of the church school will dedicate their gifts at 10:30 a.m. at which time there will also be supervised care for smaller children.

The Easter day festival service of St. John church will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. It will be the church's part in the climax of the Interdenominational Illinois church attendance crusade. An "Easter Garden" will be formed by the numerous lilies presented as memorials. The order of service will also include reception of new members.

Special festival music has been arranged by Mr. Stelling. The combined vested choirs will sing and soloist, Miss Roberta Landmeier, will sing "I Know That I Shall Live Again." The sermon of pastor J. G. Meiners will answer the question "Why Can't We Celebrate Easter Every Sunday." Another highlight will be the bringing and dedicating by members of a special offering for the congregation's building fund.

Girl Scout Council To Meet April 21

Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County will hold its April 21 meeting at Washington school, Park Ridge, and will start at 8 p.m. The school is located at Stewart and Western in Park Ridge.

Presiding will be Mrs. H. G. Mackintosh of Skokie. Mrs. W. O. Leitherer, first vice president is also from Skokie; Mrs. H. E. Johnson, Mount Prospect, is second vice president and Mrs. Bruce Corbett, Prospect Heights, is third vice president.

Mrs. W. W. Osburn, executive director of the council, will be guest speaker. Senior girls will participate in the program and since the emphasis at this season of the year is on camping, there will be a camp exhibit. (B-5

Scout Paper Pick-up On North Side Saturday

Boy Scouts of Arlington Heights will hold their bi-monthly paper pick-up this Saturday, covering all homes north of Northwest hwy.

The scouts hope that spring house cleaning will bring out the winter's accumulation of old magazines and newspapers and that every home owner will have a bundle placed on the curb for them to pick up. All papers should be tied and on the curb no later than 9:30 a.m.

Southsiders wishing to dispose of their old newspapers at this time may bring them to the North school grounds before noon Saturday.

Special northside handling can be arranged by calling CL 3-4224 before 9 a.m. Saturday.

Girl Scouts Offer Adult Training During April

For women desirous of helping as leaders in girl scouts or those planning to help in some other adult capacity and who have had no adult training in the girl scout organization, an initial group leadership course will start April 13 at the Morton Grove Legion hall, 6140 Dempster. Running each session from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30, it will continue April 15, 20, 22 and 27.

Nearer at hand for adult Scouts in Mount Prospect, Arlington Hts., Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Prospect Heights and Wheeling will be the same type of course offered at the Girl Scout house (located between Rtes. 14 and 58 on East River rd.) and starting April 19. Other dates are April 21, 26, 28 and May 3.

Also on the heavy schedule for April girl scout training is a troop camp licensing course at Girl Scout house April 12, 19 and 26 between 9:30 and 2:30 and a basic outdoor course April 13, 20 and 27 at the same location.

These courses are all planned and offered by the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county. (B-5

Stork Feather

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. V. Hannaford, 410 N. Yale, on the birth of their second daughter at Resurrection hospital March 29. The baby, who will be named Cheryl Gwen, weighed 7 pounds 15 ounces at birth. She has a sister, Sandy, 4. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hannaford of Tacoma, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ross of Russelville, Ark.

Out-of-Town

Mr. and Mrs. James Scott and sons, 511 Yale, spent the weekend in Port Huron, Mich. visiting the boys' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, 505 Yale, attended a wedding of college friends in Alton, Ill. this past weekend. The Millers also stayed and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Miller's parents.

Catherine, Lucille and Mrs. G. Wrobel, 1404 Fremont, are spending this week of their spring vacation in Mt. Morris, Ill. with Mr. and Mrs. Bemis, the girls' grandparents.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scherrer, 222 N. Yale, have moved into Westgate from Chicago. They have 2 children, Earl Jr., 7, and Karen 5. Mr. Scherrer is employed by Collins-Miller Hutchings of Chicago. The family attends Our Lady of the Wayside church.

At 228 N. Yale live Mr. and Mrs. William Henn and their 2 daughters, Susan, who will be 5 years old May 11 and her sister, Sandra, who was 3 September 10. The Henns moved here from Chicago. They attended Our Lady of the Wayside church. Mr. Henn is a graduate of De Paul university and is employed by Brunswick-Balke-Collender company, Chicago. He enjoys playing golf.

Birthdays

Deborah Hoppe of N. Wilke, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday by having a few neighborhood girl friends in for ice cream, cake and games.

Jimmy Kuharich, 1701 Fremont is now 8 years old. His cousin from Melrose Park and 10 children from the neighborhood enjoyed his birthday party from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday.

Freddie Grannis of W. Fremont celebrated his 11th birthday March 29 with his family. Then Saturday afternoon, he took a few neighborhood friends to the Arlington movie. He advanced from cub scouts to boy scouts.

Issues Reply To Board Resolution

"The report of Village finances released by the board last week was distorted by the absence of the most important figures," according to Forrest F. Davis, long time Village Clerk, who says "the general fund is depleted. It is as simple as this:

"Suppose you have a thousand dollars in the bank. Is that proof of your sound financial position? Or did you just borrow the $1,000? Or did you, perhaps, empty the piggy bank? In other words, what did you have when you started, and how much do you have in cash and liabilities at the present time? Those are the important figures.

"Let's look at the Village financial report, which purports to show an excellent financial position. There is one point of agreement: We do not challenge the fugures, except to say we are talking about the general fund. All the other funds listed are ear-marked for specific purposes, trust funds, etc., which cannot be used legally for general corporate needs.

"The Village Board has projected that we will probably end the year with about $13,000. But the general fund owes $30,000 which was borrowed in January. That is a liability, because the $30,000 has to be repaid from the first tax money collected this year. The sum of $12,734.31 was shifted from the water fund just recently to supplement this fading surplus in the general fund. This is the first time this has had to be done in Arlington Heights, and it sets a dangerous precedent.

"Surely, there should be enough tax revenue for village operations when we consider Arlington Heights has authority to levy taxes for corporate purposes (that is, general fund) over 30% higher than neighboring villages. And the Village Board, during the last two years, has levied the absolute maximum which was higher than 99% of the villages in the State of Illinois. Why take water funds? Could there be any other purpose than to make the general fund balance more attractive than the facts indicate?

"It should be mentioned that the balance in the general fund two years ago was $25,000 with no indebtedness whatever. Now, the village manager has reported we will end the year with $13,000. The general fund has a liability of $30,000 which was borrowed in January. Adding the $12,734 recently shifted from the water fund, this all adds up to our cash position being over $50,000 less today than two years ago.

"The resolution charging reckless and unwarranted statements in reference to the finances of the village ignores the facts. It is important that the taxpayer and people of Arlington Heights know these facts being revealed by the Civic Service Party."

Here is an analysis of cash position of general fund:

Cash on hand May 1, 1953 —with no liabilities	$25,000
Liabilities May 1, 1955: (Money borrowed from working cash fund)	$30,000
Money shifted from Water Fund to General Fund (a shifting of funds to meet current operating expenses. Never before in the history of Arlington Heights has it been necessary)	12,734
Total Liabilities May 1, 1955	$42,734
Cash on hand as estimated by village board at the March 8, 1955 meeting, projected to May 1, 1955	13,000
Deficit, May 1, 1955	$29,734
This shows that the village of Arlington Heighs on May 1, 1955 will be $54,734 worse-off than they were at May 1, 1953
Deficit May 1, 1955	$29,734
Add—Cash not on hand in excess of liability	25,000
Net change in Financial Condition	$54,734

New Awning, Window Showroom Is Opened In Arlington Heights

A Chicago window and awning firm with an Oak Park branch this week announced a new showroom for Arlington Heights.

Kenneth Carter, president, said the new Arlington Window and Awning Co., 1510 W. Northwest hwy., is a unique showroom more elaborate and different from any other in this area.

The firm, specializing in modern home improvements, will feature a fiberglass awning that is "so modern it makes all others obsolete."

Hours for the store, located 2 blocks east of Arlington Park, are 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sunday when they close at 6 p.m.

WILLIAM F. NEUMANN
Candidate For POLICE MAGISTRATE

How Do We Judge A Judge?

At the level of Police Magistrate, is legal training synonymous with judicial training? Not under our Anglo-Saxon philosophy of jurisprudence which established the police magistracy as a court of summary jurisdiction,—an informal court. The magistrate is both judge and jury.

At the core of our legal system lie two basic concepts: Faith in the judgment of the people, and protection of the individual. Custom, followed by practice, therefore, restricted the province of the magistrate to relatively minor infractions of the law, and made the prime requisite that he be a man of the people, one close to the community, one who knew and understood his neighbors.

Our ancestors recognized that this judicial office required one capable of making judicious—that is, wise,—decisions; and that therein lay their protection from a tyrranical king or state. The legally trained they suspected of being a king's man, one apt to be more zealous in serving the crown's interests than the people's. And historically, that is why, whenever the Anglo-Saxon Code prevails, magistrates are almost always laymen. It is hard to argue against the wisdom of a custom that has successfully stood the test of centuries.

So how else shall we judge a judge? Eighteen years of successful practice on the bench would certainly indicate a competent Police Magistrate in William F. Neumann.

In a court of summary justice a magistrate may err. The citizen can appeal and get a reversal, if upheld. Therefore, the number of appeals and reversals would be a good test of how well a magistrate has performed his job.

Judge Neumann has the remarkable record of only one reversal in 18 years. Could a legally-trained man do better? Could he do as well?

Let us follow sound tradition.

Let us endorse excellent performance.

any constructive suggestion!

The Local Political Campaign has Developed One Great Vacuum! There are two political parties — but only one constructive set of ideas.

The Civic Service group has established itself as a fault-finding, finger-pointing, irresponsible, suggest-nothing party.

They jeopardized the financial reputation of the Village by making claims proved false at a Village Board Meeting March 28, and refuted by Village Attorney, Village Manager, Village Treasurer, and Village Board.

They question progressive action to provide public parking areas. They criticize scientific steps taken to permit sound solution of sewer problems.

They question the appointment of a Village Manager for this tremendously expanded community.

But let us, of the Progress Party, ask you, the voter, this one question: What single, substantial, constructive suggestion has the opposition brought forward? Study their letters, their published platform, their statements in meetings. You'll find the same vacuum we have found. Their program seems to be:

Over 185 Deaths Caused By Aspirin

"Greater caution should be used when giving even the most simple medicines to infants and children," warned George Harris of Arlington Pharmacy. "Any household remedy can be harmful if improperly taken. Last year there were over 185 deaths from overdoses of aspirin given to infants and children.

"Since the dose for a one-month infant is approximately only one-twentieth that of an adult, giving a five grain aspirin tablet a few times a day can be a poisonous dose. The taking of laxatives can also cause harmful consequences if parents do not exercise more care. Flavored candylike laxatives tempt children, and large doses are poisonous.

"All medicines should be stored safely out of the reach of children, and never repeatedly given if the condition persists. It is much wiser and safer to consult a physician. More people should ask questions about the proper way to take medicines, and when your physician is not available, your pharmacist is qualified to inform you about the safe dosage of medicines. All pharmacists are required by law to study at a college of pharmacy and to have a complete knowledge of the dosage of every drug and medicine. Before they receive their license to practice pharmacy they must pass an examination to prove that knowledge.

"All pharmacists," said Mr. Harris, "will welcome your asking questions. Before you give or take any medicine, be positive it is a safe dose." (A

Rural Park Districts Hold Quiet Elections

Quiet elections were held Tuesday by the rural park districts of Palatine and Wheeling townships.

Only 24 persons voted at the Wheeling election. Elected were Martin C. Meyer and Albert J. Nickol.

Those elected as park commissioners of Palatine Rural Park District are Henry L. Moehling and Luther Kopack.

Rumors of a write-in campaign drew out a few extra votes in the Arlington Heights park district election Tuesday. There were 109 votes cast, 4 of which were spoiled. The 2 commissioners who were re-elected are George Schaefer and J. Warren White.

Less than 30 votes were cast at the Palatine Park election. Re-elected are William Mair and Rose Mosser.

Big news about

Buick's 4-Door Riviera

THIS brand-new kind of automobile—the sensation of all the Auto Shows this year—is now rolling off the Buick assembly lines in volume numbers. That's the first news.

And the second is just as wonderful—this dramatic new model is very definitely everything that eager buyers hoped it would be.

For the 4-Door Riviera is the first "hardtop" ever available with separate doors for rear-seat passengers—plus rear-compartment room big as a Buick-size family sedan.

It comes breezing in with all the low-lined sweep and wide open visibility of Buick's original 2-Door Riviera—and with luxurious new spaciousness in its sizeable and full-length 4-door body.

With windows down, no posts appear for the rear doors, and you get a completely unobstructed view at both sides.

You find rear doors are hinged at their front edges to swing wide and free, and assure easy entrance and exit.

And you'll find legroom, headroom and hiproom extra-generous both front and rear—with interiors tailored in fabrics and patterns specially reserved for the 4-Door Riviera.

Best of all, this new Buick beauty comes off the line in both the low-price SPECIAL Series and the high-powered CENTURY Series.

So you can pick your 4-Door Riviera with the potent performance of a 188-hp or 236-hp Buick V8 engine—the swift get-away and gas saving of Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—the velvet stride of the Million Dollar Ride—the long list of Buick bonus features at no extra cost—and all at "great buy" prices that have helped move Buick into America's "Big Three" of best sellers.

But—better come see us about the 4-Door Riviera now.

With all-out production—and a prompt order—this newest excitement in cars will be yours that much sooner.

Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.*

The Civic Service Party Suggests:

THINK....

The Village Board has again taken action this week for political expediency . . . and you will be reading about their plan on garbage disposal . . . it is obvious that it's another move to "hoodwink" the taxpayers that they are solving problems . . . but the Civic Service Party brought it out in their platform . . . so they have adopted another plank of our platform.

BE ALERT....

A few days ago the present village board called another special "rigged" meeting to give assurance of the splendid financial condition of the village . . . read the facts revealed by the Civic Service Party in a simple analysis of general fund finances since this Village Board has been in power, on another page of this issue.

GET THE FACTS....

A few days ago, this same village board voted against issuing any more tavern licenses "at this time" . . . but they left the door open for next month . . . The Civic Service Party long ago announced "We are opposed to issuing any more tavern licenses simply because we have enough taverns."

Vote For Common Sense

This same Village Board presents to the voters a platform containing some 15 planks . . . what is their record . . . let's call "A Spade a Spade" . . . Here are some of the things they have given us:

1. The highest taxes we have ever paid.
2. A continuation of the highest water bills we have ever paid.
3. A promise of a municipal water softener "at no added cost" . . . we ask them and the voters to study this "POLITICAL HUMBUG."
4. Parking meters on State road strung half way to the village limits . . . who uses them . . . doesn't it force commuters into residential areas where the streets are too narrow?
5. The parking problem becomes more acute every day . . . and all we hear is more promises . . . and a lot of "Double Talk."
6. And we have what the incumbents call a village manager, but if you check the facts it is a "far-cry" from being a manager . . . he has no power . . . even his duties are not defined . . . and he can be fired on a moment's notice, with or without cause.

The voters of Arlington Heights have the privilege and duty to vote . . . we have attempted to bring out the facts regarding issues of this campaign.

The Village General Fund is more than $50,000 "worse off" now than it was when this village board took over, two years ago . . . Haven't you had enough? Regardless, we urge everyone to vote April 19.

We Suggest That You Vote Straight . . . Vote For Men Of Proven Ability . . . Vote For Men With Experience . . . Vote For Men To Serve Your Best Interest . . . Vote For

Heights Students Gain Recognition By State Academy Of Science

Three Arlington Heights township high school seniors have been selected for special recognition by the Illinois State Academy of Science at its forty-eighth meeting at Southern Illinois university, Carbondale, May 6 and 7.

The students are Janice Arlene Lindskoog, 700 S. Ioka st., Mount Prospect; John Peter Sheppard, 210 Marion, Prospect Heights; and Joseph Zikmund, 215 S. Albert st., Mount Prospect.

They will receive certificates of award at a ceremony to be attended by members of the academy and its affiliate, the Junior Academy of Science, Friday evening, May 6. In addition, they will be guests of honor of the Junior Academy at its annual banquet the same evening, and each will be allowed $10 in cash toward traveling expenses to the meeting at Carbondale.

Announcement of awards was made here by Dr. Frank H. Reed, Illinois Geological Survey chemist and chairman of the Academy's Committee on Science talent. Awards were based on results of a competitive examination given in cooperation with the Westinghouse Science Talent search.

"The Science Talent Search examinations are carefully formulated by the Science Clubs of America to select high school students who have unusual potential scientific ability and to encourage them to continue their education," Dr. Reed said in making the announcement.

Eastwood Assoc. To Meet Progress Party

Members of Arlington Heights Progress party will be guests of Eastwood Community association at the organization's meeting April 12 at the field house.

Association members will meet Albert C. Peters, candidate for police magistrate, Edward G. Carisle, William J. McNeil and David Zimmerman, candidates for the office of village trustees.

This Week with PTA

High-Protein Diet Scheduled for April

Plenty of meat will be included in the PTA program pot-pourri for April. April 19, Ridge school parents and teachers will hear Dr. Harold Shane, prominent educator and now a member of the faculty of Northwestern university, who will speak on "Raising Your Child in a Suburban Community."

North school PTA will attend the final performance for this year of the well-known team of Clabaugh and Lockwood (respectively, and more respectfully, Superintendent of Schools and president of the board of education). After his visit to South school PTA last month, the Rev. John B. Hubbard, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Park Ridge for 24 years, will return to speak at Dryden school on "What Are the Values of the Suburban Community?"

An authority in the field of speech correction, Dr. D. Harold Westlake of Northwestern university will speak to South school PTA on "Oral Language Development." The junior high PTA meeting a week later, will see a Village theatre production entitled, "The Community and Its Youth."

Exchange Shoes for Smiles April 21-22

Anyone seeing Danny Kay's special feature, "Assignment Children" (winner of a special Academy service award), and realizing from the happy faces of the children what delight just a bit of decent clothing can bring to them, feels a strong urge to rush to the nearest department store and order truckloads of garments for needy children everywhere.

However, most of the clothing, outgrown or somewhat shabby, discarded by American households during spring cleaning, will be just as welcome as new garments to children who have nothing. Adults, too, are in need; Mrs. E. J. Roble, PTA welfare chairman, asks that all cast-off clothing that is clean and wearable, including low-heeled shoes, be sent with the children to their respective schools April 21 and 22. Volunteers from the PTA will collect and bag the clothing for distribution by the Children's Federation.

Anyone for Calypso?

Usually unreliable sources have it that "calypso" is the newest addition to card crazes of recent years, begun by canasta and followed by samba. Mrs. Robert Stark, chairman of the PTA spring card party, and Mrs. Eldred Enloe, co-chairman, do not promise to teach anyone the game, but say that if four calypso players can get together, there will be a spot for them on the evening of April 28. The invitation includes confirmed bridge addicts, pinochlists, or what-have you.

As in previous years, candy and soft drinks will be sold to revive flagging energies and dulling intellects, report Mrs. Elmer C. Boehm and Mrs. Glenn Buckley, respectively chairman of these concessions. The serving of sandwiches and coffee at the conslusion of the evening will be by Mrs. Herbert Haynesworth and Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Lucky Mrs. George Gardner is in charge of setting up 175 tables and 700 chairs, a number that will require the use of 2 classrooms in addition to the junior high gymnasium and the cafeteria. Mrs. R. M. Skallerup, hospitality chairman, urges parents to invite friends and neighbors, and promises a helping hand, if needed, to fill out a foursome.

Ticket sales will be handled through room-mothers, but anyone who is not contacted may obtain tickets through Mrs. Eustace Smeed, ticket chairman.

Baton Twirling Clinic At Arlington High School April 9

Miss Jennie Blatchford, organizer and instructor of the Northwestern Pom-Pom Corps, is presenting a holiday twirling clinic April 9, at the Arlington Heights high school.

Featured as instructor and exhibitionist will be Duke Miller of Phoenix, Ariz., one of the foremost teachers of the art of baton twirling. During the winter months Miller is drill master of the Sun Devil Marching Band at Arizona State college. He also teaches twirling in the Arizona elementary and high schools in addition to his show work.

Now considered an authority on twirling he often judges contests and gives exhibitions. Baton twirling camps and clinics have been conducted by Miller from New York to California.

Duke and his baton have done shows in night clubs throughout the country and at the Paramount Theatre in New York City. During World War II he made a South Pacific tour with the USO.

At the clinic, Duke, one of the finest show twirlers in the baton world, will instruct beginners, intermediate and advanced twirlers in a wide variety of tricks, ensemble work for majorette corps, solo twirling, showmanship, drum majoring and signaling.

Village Theatre To Present Program For St. James Mothers

St. James Mothers club will meet in the school hall April 14, 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Cowan, vice president and program chairman, has announced the program for the evening will be presented by members of Village Theatre, Inc. A play "The Boy Who Discovered Easter," by Elizabeth McFadden, and directed by Anne Nygren will be given. The cast includes Don Nygren, Barbara Coller, Lu Staahl, Eddie and Teddie Staahl. Production manager is Eleanor Gengler.

A nominating committee for next year's officers will be appointed at this meeting, and final plans for the spring luncheon will be discussed.

Mothers of second grade students will be refreshment hostesses for the evening. (AM

YES! Automobile Insurance Costs More Today . . . BUT--

—so does every single thing you buy. With 50,000,000 cars and trucks on the roads, more accidents happen. Cars are fancier and more costly to fix—wages for repair men have gone way up—hospital and medical fees are higher than ever—judgments in damage suits are unbelievably high. All of these factors mean higher premiums for automobile insurance. But even with recent rate increases, you still pay little if any more for automobile insurance than you did ten years ago! Insurance—even automobile insurance—is one of the few truly low priced services today.

Third Graders Learn Meaning Of Citizenship

Citizenship training and the desire to help others are important goals of modern teaching. To help emphasize these points, a Citizenship club was formed early in the school year within the two third grades at the South school, Arlington Heights.

At the first meeting of the club the children decided to work on several welfare projects, both in school and out. With the help of their teachers. Mrs. Faye Kreth and Miss Nancy Olechowski, the children produced "The Golden Goose," and presented it for their schoolmates. This familiar children's story starred David Hoopes as the King, Merry Lee Auer as the Queen, Candy Withey as the Princess, and Lester Cordes as the Peasant who, for sharing his bread with the beggar, was led to the Golden Goose.

In another project the children wanted to do something for those less fortunate than themselves. As a result they began enthusiastically to collect toys and to save their money, with the hope of being able to fill Easter baskets for unfortunate children.

The club more than reached their goal, for they were able to deliver 44 Easter baskets and boxes of toys to the Lydia Children's Home, last week Tuesday. The home is one for orphans and children of broken homes, and is located at 4300 W. Irving Park rd. in Chicago. Chosen to make the delivery to the home were David Hoopes and Michael Masny. The children were accompanied by their parents on the trip.

Girl Scout List Summer Day Camp Dates And Locations

After Easter vacations are over, spring is most certainly here and summer seems not too far away. To the enthusiastic girl scout, to whom the "out" in "scouting" is most important, it brings thoughts of camping in some form.

Besides having established camp at Hickory Hill near Edgerton, Wis., the girl scout council hold 8 day camp sessions in June and July, in 6 different locations, of Northwest Cook county will to serve the needs of all ages of scouts.

Deer Grove (located between rte. 12 and 14 off Dundee rd.): Camp Pine (between rtes. 45 and 21 off Lake-Euclid aves.); Girl Scout house (between rtes. 14 and 58 on E. River rd.); Dam No. 4 (located in Park Ridge); and Harms woods north (on Harms rd. and Golf rd. (58), in Morton Grove) will serve the Brownies during the first session, June 14, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 23, 24.

During this session intermediates and seniors will be at Lake Avenue woods (located across from Camp Pine between rtes. 45 and 21 on Lake-Euclid ave.)

July 12, 13, 14, 15, 19, 20, 21, and 22 are dates for the second session. Intermediates will meet at Camp Pine during this time and brownies at Girl Scout house.

Girls must send in their registrations for day camp by mail. No registrations will be accepted before April 30. Folders will be sent out during April which will contain all council camping information.

In the day camps brownie scouts will have the fun of living together in the out-of-doors. They will plan and cook 3 noontime lunches. Intermediates and seniors will have the opportunity to develop camping skills. They will cook their noonday meals every day except the first and last days. (B-5

With The Blue Birds

Spring Fashion Show

Friday, April 1, marked the occasion of the campfire girls spring fashion show. Theme of the show was "Campfire Cruise" and Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights campfire girls modeled the stunning spring fashions presented by Carson, Pirie, Scott and Company. Shipboard entertainment was supplied by the Merry bluebirds, Happy Helpers, and Jolly bluebirds. The 3 5-minute skits were titled "County Fair Dances," "Cotton Pickers," and "America Sings." The models appeared quite professional as they graced the runway clothed in the newest "girls to teens" fashions. Focal point of the show was the modeling of the campfire and bluebirds costumes and the girl scout and brownie uniforms.

Easter Egg Hunt

All bluebirds are anxiously awaiting the annual Easter egg hunt Friday. The girls have been making and decorating baskets for the affair. Hundreds of eggs will be hid on the grounds of the Mount Prospect country club. At the sound of a given signal the hunt will be on. This Good Friday, 180 bluebirds will participate in this much enjoyed event.

When Bombing Comes

If war comes, Arlington Heights and other suburban communities will be completely at the mercy of enemy bombs.

So report civil defense workers who pointed out this week an alarming lack of preparedness in towns of north DuPage and northwest Cook counties.

Efforts to alert residents to the threat facing these communities has resulted in continued apathy.

Desperately needed are civilians to act as aircraft spotters, fire wardens, medical personnel, couriers, radiation detection teams, sanitation inspectors, etc.

Few have responded to the call for help.

Civil defense officials have repeatedly warned that, despite government efforts to secure peace, the troubled state of world affairs could mean a surprise attack at any time.

There has been an almost total lack of cooperation from families who must make some preparations for protection during an attack.

At present no plan for evacuation exists in any of these suburban towns.

Here is an outline of facts every resident should know and the preparations they should make:

1. Prepare a shelter.

A shelter below ground is best. A dug-out covered with three feet of dirt where no basement exists, would provide adequate cover. Basement shelters should be near but not under a window and against the wall nearest the possible direction of a blast.

Dug-outs should not be constructed so falling debris will obstruct exit. In lieu of underground cover, take positions behind the sturdiest partitions in the home. Do not seek cover out of doors. Stay away from windows and lie prone. Whether in a basement or dug-out shelter, the following supplies should be obtainable whenever possible:

1. Adequate water and food supplies for three days. A gallon of water per each adult and three gallons for each child for the three day period. Water packed fruits are desirable. Dried milk or canned milk. Foods in freezers and refrigerators is assumed to be safe from contamination, but should be consumed before danger of spoiling. Water in hot water tanks and ice cube trays is usable. Canned foods in cupboards, if still whole and uninjured, are safe if containers are scrubbed with strong yellow laundry soap.

Paper plates and plastic eating utensils. Can opener. Paper toweling. Extra paper for disposing of refuse. Matches, candles, flashlights and extra batteries. A battery radio is essential.

An emergency first aid kit with remedies for light burns, cuts and minor injuries. Germicides. A strong laundry soap, not detergent should be included.

Extra warm clothing and covering. Do not wear articles that have been exposed to radio activity. Extra covering for invalids or supplies for infants.

2. Recognize an attack iminent or in progress.

Warning of an attack in progress will be a series of short, sharp blasts from fire or police department stores. Take cover immediately.

Warning of imminent enemy attack will be three minutes of fluctuating siren blasts followed by three minutes of silence, repeated blasts, etc.

Take cover. Turn off all utilities. Turn your battery radio to either 640 or 1240 kilocycles. All other stations will cease operations. Only these frequencies will give you accurate information. The signal may vary as different localities cut in and out. It may be alternately weak and strong.

Stay in your shelter as long as possible. Your civil defense organization will endeavor to advise you when it is safe to come to the surface. Make sure your infomation comes from this point or local police, fire deparment, civil defense, national guard, etc.

Your radio will advise you of areas where radio active fall-out is expected to be dangerous. Avoid these areas, remain below ground when trapped in one until advised the danger has lessened appreciably.

3. When notified, it is safe to resume activity above ground.

In an area where prevailing winds are expected to reduce radioactive fall-out below dangerous conditions, you should be aware of the following:

1. Wash with strong soap all canned food containers, silverware and cooking utensils, dishes.

2. Bury all rubbish and refuse. Burning will not destroy radio activity, and will tend to spread it via ash.

3. Be alert against looting, criminal attack in the home area. Check for possible fire hazards or flood damage in the event utility service is resumed. Remove any debris to a location where it has least chance of causing injury. Bury if possibility of radio-activity.

4. In civic areas, be alert for possible sabotage of water supplies, tampering with fire-fighting equipment or mobile carriers.

5. In business areas be alert for sabotage of industry, transportation facilities.

6. Report such occurances to your police department.

7. Dispose of all human and animal waste by burial beneath three feet of earth. There are expected to be more casualties due to flying debris, fire, contamination and disease, than by actual blast or shock damage.

It is safe to assume that any air attack upon this country will be atomic, that atomic attack is not limited to airborne operations, and that there will be an internal as well as external threat to our security.

From The Police Blotter...

Walter Kellin, 105 Stratford rd., Arlington Heights, reported to Arlington Heights police that thieves made off with a Lennox blow torch burner, valued at $100, a bathroom door and keys to a french door, valued at $35, and a vanity chest, valued at $100, sometime during the night of March 31. Entrance was gained through a basement window well, and the exit out the garage door.

Several home owners reported debris dumped on their front lawns during the night. Police picked up the items and brought them into the police station for further checking.

Car owners reported more stolen hub caps this week. The thefts took place while the cars were parked in private driveways and in parking lots in the village.

The fire siren was sounded for numerous prairie fires during the past week. Fire Chief Elroy Winkelman urges residents not to start prairie fires unless adequate help is available to keep them under control. Calls of this nature are costly to the village and it takes the equipment out of the station when it might be needed for more serious fires.

Firemen also answered 2 inhalator calls the past week. They were unable to aid T. Porzucek, 1206 E. Oakton, who had died before they arrived.

Traffic court was light Monday night. Only 7 cases were heard and violations included lack of tail lights, failure to stop at sign, parking too near a fire plug, and leaving the scene of an accident.

Bus Service

Commuters in Arlington Terrace may be happy to know that a bus route has been started in this area for people riding the 7:23 a.m. train into Chicago and the train arriving in Arlington Heights at 6:06 p.m. After making the pickups through Stonegate the bus will arrive at N. Beverly and Euclid at 7 a.m. will proceed north on Beverly to Hickory (in the Greens) turn left on Hickory to Olive, turn west on Olive to State, turn south on State to station. Pickups will be made at any corner along the route. The fare is 13 cents per ride. When meeting the 6:06 p.m. train, the bus will be parked at the northeast corner of Dunton and Davis.

John Hoover, 626 E. Clarendon, who is running for village trustee will be one of the speakers at the meeting at the North school, April 11. Stonegate Homeowners association has invited the Arlington Terrace Homeowners to attend at 9:15 p.m.

Membership Drive

The Community Concert association will open its membership drive April 18 for the next season. 1955-56. However, anyone who is not a member this year and wishes to purchase a ticket before the drive starts April 15 may use his receipt to gain entrance to the last concert of this season to hear the Rochester Symphony orchestra, April 17. The CCA have hold dates for Whittemore and Lowe, duo pianist and the Vienna Academy chorus for next season. No single admissions may be purchased. Those interested may call Mrs. Arthur Franzen, CLearbrook 3-0525 for tickets.

Phyllis Nelson, 817 N. Hickory, went to Jeannie Carlson's birthday party Monday afternoon in Arlington Greens.

Entertains

Mrs. Oscar Holmgren put in a busy week of entertaining. Last Tuesday evening, March 29, she had her neighbors on Hickory in for a jewelery party. Sunday she entertained at dinner, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Palmer from Wonder Lake, her children and grandchildren Mr. and Mrs. John J. Barnings Jr., Leslie and Penni Lee from McHenry, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peek, John and Claudia from Park Forest.

Birthdays

Jary Davis, 906 N. Beverly, celebrated her sixth birthday with 11 neighbor friends last Saturday. The children played the usual party games, enjoyed ice cream and cake and had lots of fun with their balloons and batons.

Bruce Weber, 910 N. Beverley, celebrated his birthday at a luncheon with 14 neighbors and school friends. Their menu was barbeque beef sandwiches, ice cream, cake and root beer. All the children received kites.

Janice Johnson, 925 N. Douglas and Judy Kuehn, 921 N. Douglas, were members of the confirmation class and were taken into membership at the First Presbyterian church Palm Sunday.

Convalescing

Ray Herr, 845 N. Hickory, is convalescing from a broken leg he received Saturday falling from his bike. He is a good baseball player and the neighborhood boys have decided he can play anyway and be catcher.

Joseph Scheske, 833 N. Hickory, is recovering from a tonsillectomy performed Friday. His neighbor friends have been making the time go by fast by frequent short visits.

Moving

Prospect Heights Choir Gives 'Seven Last Words' Good Friday

Theodore Dubois' beautiful Lenten cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," will be given its fourth performance in Prospect Heights by the Community church choir, Good Friday at 8 p.m. in the church.

The Biblical word, full of poetry, hope and inspiration, will be combined with the music of the choir, soloists, piano and organ, to provide a religious program for the audience.

Soloists will include Mrs. Robert Klepper, soprano, George Orescan, baritone and Roy Goetschel, tenor. Mrs. J. Earle Smith will be organist and Mrs. Lewis Wills, pianist.

The choir will have its regular members and will be augmented by former members asked to help make this year's performance an outstanding one.

Director will be Mrs. Robert Christofferson, director of the church choir for 5 years. She took her musical training at North Park school of music and at the MacBurney studios. Mrs. Christofferson also does solo work with the choir and in March was one of the soprano leads in "The Mikado" production in Prospect Heights. She was also an assistant director of the operetta.

All those who wish to receive the inspiration of the Easter season through music are invited to attend. (AM

Palabar Horse Association To Participate In Horsecapades

Members of the Palabar Horse association, Palatine, will present the "Dance of Rangeland," that is, a square dance on horseback, as one of the acts which will compose the third annual Charity Horsecapades presented by the Northwest Mounted Black Horse Troop of Chicago.

The horsecapades will be held at the Chicago Avenue Armory, 234 E. Chicago ave. at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 16, and at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, April 17. It will consist of a series of diversified and highly entertaining equestrian acts plus drills by the Black Horse Troop which always puts on such a fine performance at the 4-H Fair each summer at Arlington race track.

Those members of the Palabar Horse Association who are participating in the square dance have been working under the able direction of Chuck Monell of Chicago. These members are: Tootsie Tomasik, George Chudzik, Mrs. E. F. Fisher, Mary Lou Fisher, Bob Heaver, Lynette Pittenger, Bob Chudzik, Linda Fox, Danny Wright, Pat Tibbitts, Eleanor Bartsch, Shorty Langan and Leonard Tomasik.

Tickets for the Horsecapades can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Leonard Tomasik at Palatine 696-J-1.

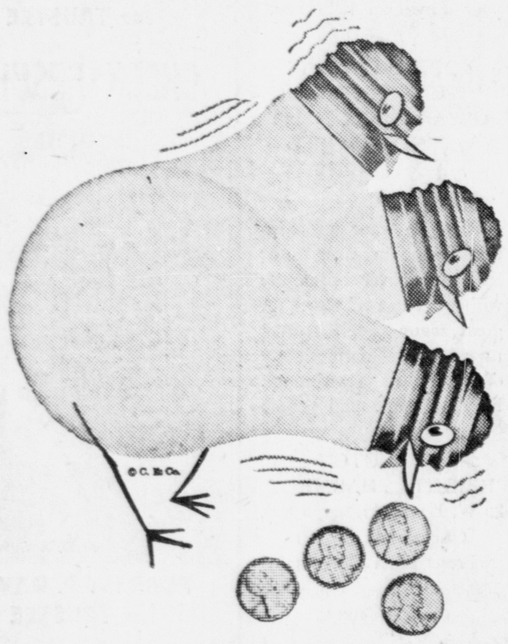
When everything else costs so much...



Your electric friend "LITTLE BILL" still works for pennies a day—

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down

Though the cost of living has doubled—today electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

Many new ideas have helped Public Service Company keep the cost of electricity low. Today, for example, we send out your electric bill every two months. This cuts the cost of bookkeeping, printing and meter-reading in half. And, by putting your bill on a post card, we also save on envelopes and postage. These "little savings" all add up to a big saving for you in lower-cost electricity.

So today, while you're using far more electricity than 25 years ago, you're actually getting more of it for your money (almost twice as much, in fact).

For just pennies a new electric dryer dries an entire family wash . . . automatically. No lugging or heavy lifting—the job is done, rain or shine.

Public Notice

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CHANGE IN GAS SCHEDULE

NORTHERN ILLINOIS GAS COMPANY hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on March 31, 1955, a revised Schedule of Rates for Gas Service, designated Schedule G.

The proposed revised Schedule will replace Schedule G-7 which was issued originally by a prior Company and adopted by Northern Illinois Gas Company upon its formation as a new Company. The revised Schedule is proposed for the purpose of (1) showing the present Company name throughout, (2) extending to May 1, 1956, the availability of Rate 41, Interruptible Gas Service—General Processing, which otherwise would expire on May 1, 1955, (3) eliminating the power production restriction of Rate 37, Industrial Volume Gas Service—Off-Peak, and (4) consolidating and modifying certain provisions in order to bring the Schedule up-to-date and improve its arrangement.

Further information with respect thereto may be obtained either directly from this Company or by addressing the Secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield, Illinois.

A copy of the proposed change in the Schedule may be inspected by any interested party at any business office of this Company.

Officials Agree On Responsibility Of Editors For Public Information

Illinois newspaper and radio editors exchanged views Friday with law enforcement and military officers on how to overcome obstacles to news gathering.

They met in Springfield during the second annual Freedom of Information clinic, sponsored by 5 press and radio groups.

Representing Paddock Publications were Stuart R. Paddock, Sr., editor, and Charles Hayes.

Representatives of state police, the FBI, army, navy, and local police addressed the editors and outlined the limits of their legal information to newsmen. The editors explored this ground for methods of obtaining closer cooperation.

Rep. Paul Simon (D., Troy) explained his House Bill 161 which would make it illegal for any county, city, village, town, school district, municipal corporation, district, political subdivision, board, commission, or agency to hold secret sessions barred to the public.

'Homemaker Of Year' Gets Gifts; Leaves Soon For New York

The "Homemaker of the Year," Mrs. Luther V. Stephan of Arlington Heights, was "thrilled all over again" Monday when the galaxy of prizes she won began arriving.

Already delivered to the parsonage at 315 N. Highland is an automatic washer and dryer, a complete modern bathroom, an osterizer blender, and a mirror.

Still to come is the $600 sit-down double sink, table lamps, the automatic electric dial control, and the year supply of soap.

Mrs. Stephan, named top homemaker last week in a contest sponsored by newspapers in connection with the modern living exposition in Chicago, was also introduced Friday to TV star Warren Hull, who told her the Colgate-Palmolive Peet co. will finance her trip to New York to appear on the "Strike It Rich" television show.

She and her husband will be notified within two or three days of the date for their trip. The firm will give them 10 days notice.

106 New Residents Welcomed In Arlington During March

Arlington Heights population increased 337 during March, according to the Welcome Wagon report of the Chamber of Commerce. Those 387 have their abode in 106 families.

New residents in Rolling Meadows number 283 in 78 families. Only 11 of the families were without children. Twelve families have three children while 38 families have two children. In Arlington 20 families have three each.

Reinhardt W. Weber

Funeral services for Reinhardt W. Weber were held April 2 at Lauterburg and Oehler chapel, Arlington Heights, who died at his Mundelein home March 30. Mr. Weber was born April 24, 1882 in Germany and was a retired contractor and builder.

He is survived by his wife, Emma, a nephew, Alfred Weber and 2 nieces, Frieda Davy and Madalen Riedler of Arlington Heights.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

God's healing and redemptive power will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" at Christian Science services this Sunday, April 10.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies."

The present availability of God's goodness and power will be brought out in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (472:24-30 All): "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise. They are not true, because they are not of God."

Jehovah's Witnesses To Attend 3-Day Conference April 8-10

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York will sponsor a 3-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Chicago Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 8-10. The convention, which will be held in the Lane Tech high school auditorium, 2501 W. Addison st., is for Bible instruction and concentrated gospelpreaching in this area, spokesmen for the group announced today.

Twenty local congregations will attend and participate in the program consisting of Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations, which are open to the public without charge. An attendance of over 3000 is expected for the morning, afternoon and evening sessions.

The local congregation, which includes the Arlington Heights, Palatine, and Rolling Meadows study groups, will observe the memorial of the death of Christ April 7, at 8 p.m. at Kingdom hall, 1651 Rand rd., Des Plaines, as will Jehovah's Witnesses world-wide. The next day there will be over 100 delegates leaving for the convention. Among them will be the Koeppen and Mueller families of Arlington Heights, and the Sanders and Gilbert families of Palatine.

D. E. Stull of New York will be the featured speaker of the event. He will appear on the program all 3 days and will deliver the main public addres at 3 p.m. Sunday. His subject is 'Why a New World Is Possible."

One of the highlights of this assembly will concern information on the distribution of a new booklet released last Sunday simultaneously in over 14,000 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in 159 lands. The title of the 32-page booklet is the same as the public talk given previous to its release, namely, "Christendom or Christianity — Which One Is 'the Light of the World'?"

To Give Cantata

The Senior choir of the St. Mark Lutheran church, Mt. Prospect, will present a cantata, "From Olivet to Calvary," Good Friday at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Lowell Berg is the director of the choir, Louis Langpop, the organist, and solo parts will be sung by Stanley Petersen, Mrs. Walter Herbst, Jr., Mrs. N. M. Nesset and Mrs. C. W. Payne.

Now Is The Hour

JEAN ELIZABETH EGGER

I saw Jesus Christ, standing at the Art Institute, in Chicago. I detected a great sadness, and about His blessed features was a quietude, a gravity. He was gazing wistfully at the tall buildings, the concrete and mortar. For a long time He stood there, watching the people as they brushed past Him, ever in a hurry. It was getting dark. He shuddered, and suddenly felt desolate, so very much alone. Deep was the longing for hospitality—supper with homelike folks—a night's lodging. Simple things. It was not much, but the Lord sought these. Slowly He walked down Michigan Avenue, seeking.

He stopped before a large and exclusive hotel, and studied, or appraised the situation, but His heart said "No." So He walked on to a larger hotel— even more impressive, and again He paused, but He could not enter. Money was their God, and He, the Lord, carried no money. They would not render hospitality to a stranger, or bed Him, let alone give Him supper. Jesus sensed all this as He stood at the door.

The longing for hospitality grew stronger. It was getting cold, the wind was sharp. Suddenly Jesus felt a pull on His heart strings, as if an irresistible force were leading Him, and He retraced His steps—walked until He came to Madison St. The inner force kept guiding Him westward, and He obeyed.

Out of the clear sky He heard music. Grateful souls were singing praises. It was skid row. The Harbor Light Mission. Jesus entered. A little woman came up to the Lord and asked Him to partake of supper, after the services, and she asked Him if He needed a night's lodging. Suddenly a great light burst upon the chapel—the deep longing in the heart of Christ was filled. Raising His arms toward Heaven, I heard:

"Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. In the crisis ahead will they be protected, for they are Mine.

"Watch thy heart, for out of it are the issues of life. God watches the heart, not the bank account.

"Charity, Faith, Hope—the greatest of these is charity. What ye do unto the least of them, ye do unto Me.

"The day is dawning when money will no longer be a measuring stick, or determine a man's success. It will be the heart. By their fruits shall ye know them. They will inherit the earth.

"The world is in great danger, and the struggle for security is great. Humanity has lost its sense of values. Security lies not in materiality, or personal gains. It has its origin in the soul.

"Acquaint thyself with Him, and be at peace. Thereby all good shall come to thee.

"I, God, am not the author of confusion, but of peace, and a sound mind.

"Peace is God's own heartbeat—His pulse. Hold thy peace. Be vigilant."

"Therein lies true security. Seek ye first the Kindgdom, and remember, America, that I came to fulfill, not to destroy. The only things we keep are the things we give. Conformity pays dividends. God loves a cheerful giver. Give such things as you have. Weary not of well doing. Consider the lilies. They go about their business of 'Being' what they are. They are anchored. Do they care if the roses are more beautiful, or if so and so has a new car? No. They do not waste God-given energy in coveting things that rust and corrupt. They do not wish to outshine the other fellow, or be spectacular. They are like little doves that grace the altar of the church; symbolic of serenity. They are as little children, in accord, in tune with the Infinite."

How simply did the Lord appraise, or determine, the dross from the gold, and in the final reckoning it will be the kindly heart that will endure, for it is automatically allied with Omnipotence, and sure of right results.

Tears were streaming down my face. Of course, it was only a dream, but so vivid. It was as if I walked with the Lord, felt His desolation, deep hunger for hospitality. It was as if money were the only barrier, the only enemy that shuts out His presence.

Wake up, America. Now is the Hour. Christ is among us!

ARLINGTON GREENS

The improvement committee of the Arlington Greens association announces the Harvel Bus company has begun bus service to and from the North Western station. Service started April 4. The response to a recent survey indicated that only two trains would support a bus service at this time — the 7:23 a.m. and the 6:06 p.m.

The bus will cover the following route. After making pickups throuth Stonegate it will proceed north on Beverley to Hickory, turn left on Hickory to Olive, turn west on Olive to State rd. and South on State road to the station. The bus will be at Beverley and Hickory between 7:05 and 7:10 a.m. and pickups will be made at any corner along the route. The fare will be 13 cents per ride. When meeting the 6:06 train, the bus will be parked at the northeast corner of Dunton and Davis.

The social committee of Arlington Greens association announces a buffet dinner dance for members only to be held May 6 at Hartmann in Wheeling. Music will be furnished by the "Captivators."

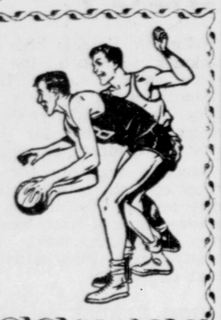
Heights Whips Glenbard In West Suburban Opener, 4-1

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1955

Covering Northwest and West Suburban Sports

Mac Says



— by G. A. McElroy

TRACK, BASEBALL, AND GOLF get under way this week and next all over the suburban area. Northwest baseball season opens Friday with a full slate of games as the teams open a 14-game home and home campaign. Grayslake and Antioch who shared the championship with 10-4 records last year and Glenbrook who placed third with 9-5 are again expected to be the principal contenders.

In track the thinclads went into action with a quadrangular last night (Wednesday) at Palatine where Antioch, Glenbrook, and Wauconda competed with Coach Welty's conference champion Pirates.

Palatine has taken seven straight track championships and looks like a pretty sure bet to come out on top again this year with Glenbrook offering stiff competition. Palatine frosh-sophs have won four years in a row since a conference frosh-soph meet has been held. This year both the meets will be held at Glenbrook.

In golf Glenbrook looks like a pretty good bet to end Palatine's five year monopoly of the links honors but Palatine will make a strong bid, led by veteran John Goetz. The league tournament will be held at Countryside golf course under the sponsorship of Grayslake high school.

IN THE NORTH SUBURBAN the league will shift to a home and home schedule. Last year with only a limited schedule Warren was undefeated. In the suburban league New Trier is defending champ, having posted a 12-2 record last year ahead of Waukegan's 10-3.

New Trier is also defending champ in track and their recent triumph in the Oak Park Relays tabs them as a strong contender to repeat.

In the North Suburban, Barrington got their first track title but most of their strength graduated. The North Suburban will have both golf and tennis tournaments this season for the first time. Barrington will host the golf meet May 16 and Lake Forest tennis May 14.

THIS SHOULD BE one of the greatest of many record breaking years since the Palatine Relays was started 23 years ago. With over 50 schools and some of the finest athletes in the state, the meet will be the biggest of its kind held this year in Illinois. It is a great undertaking for a school of the size of Palatine but very worthwhile in making Palatine well known.

A very large crew of persons is needed to handle all the field events in the morning and judge curves and relay exchanges, line up the competitors, guard gates, etc., to make the meet run off smoothly.

The volunteer services of any men of the community interested in track will be greatly appreciated, for the high school staff is too small to handle all responsibilities of running so big a meet. April 30 will be a big day in Palatine as over 1,000 boys come to Palatine along with coaches, managers, and following fans.

THE GOLF TOURNAMENT sponsored by Paddock Publications among leading teams of eight local twilight golf leagues will be held Sunday, August 21, at Arlington country club. Dan Taggart, manager of the course, concluded arrangements Monday afternoon with the sports department of this newspaper.

Past policy of holding the meet at a private, neutral country club is now an impossibility. Courses either won't have the meet on a Sunday, or charge so much for a Saturday that it's beyond the possiblity of Mr. Average twilight golfer.

We wish to thank members of Inverness country club for permitting us to hold our tourneys there in the past. Increased membership has removed the Sunday possibility, with Saturday fare now standing at $5.00 a round.

Thus, the tournament will be held at Arlington, home of the newest league in the meet, with the possibility of moving the meet around, providing course operators "will have us" break into regular weekend play.

First place teams as of August 6 will be eligible to compete August 21. Entry fees, usually set aside by the various leagues, will be $10, covering the cost of greens fees. They will be payable with entry. All other expenses will be undertaken by tourney promoters.

THE FREE GOLF CLASSES for the ladies held the past three Aprils, sponsored by Paddock Publications with instruction by Dan Taggart of Arlington country club, will be held in May this year . . . Cold weather in April has postponed too many past lessons . . . Daylight savings in May will help, too . . . Thus, the ladies free classes will be held first

Palatine Aims For Higher Finish Than '54

Friday afternoon Northwest conference baseball teams swing into action. Palatine, who finished sixth with a 6-8 record last year, will travel to Wauconda, seventh place club, with a 4-9 won-lost record. Bensenville, who won only 1 game and was shellacked pretty badly on occasions while losing 12, will travel to third place Glenbrook 9-5.

The schedule opening day brings together the co-champs of last year as Antioch plays at Grayslake.. Both had 10-4 records as champs. Ela-Vernon plays at Grant in a game between 2 teams which were deadlocked last year for fourth with 7 wins and 6 losses.

LITTLE IS KNOWN of the teams except that the 3 leaders, Antioch, Grayslake, and Glenbrook had teams last year well manned with under classmen. None of them will have had much practice or practice games so the early season results may not indicate too much. Tuesday local interest will center in the Palatine at Bensenville game in spite of the fact that neither team is expected to figure in the championship picture.

GAMES FRIDAY

Palatine at Wauconda
Bensenville at Glenbrook
Ela-Vernon at Grant
Antioch at Grayslake

Games Tuesday

Palatine at Bensenville
Grant at Antioch
Grayslake at Wauconda
Glenbrook at Ela-Vernon

50 Schools To Run Palatine Relays April 30

Over 50 schools and 1,000 athletes will compete in the 23rd annual Palatine Relays April 30, which will be the biggest high school relay meet held in Illinois this year and one of the biggest in the U.S. With the "B" class moved up to 700 enrollment and no limit on "A", combined with the abandonment of the Wheaton Relays usually held the same day, Palatine has inherited a flock of good sized schools with good track teams.

Among the 54 schools aiming to enter the meet are many newcomers including Aurora (West), Bloom, Blue Island, Bremen, Downers Grove, Hinsdale, Joliet, Kankakee, LaGrange, Lockport, Maine Twp., Rockford East, Waukegan, and York in class "A"; and Carl Sandburg, Marmion Military, North Chicago, and Rich Township in class "B".

GLENBARD, appearing in the meet for the first time, won class "A" in 1954 while Palatine won class "B". Class "A" is a wide open affair this year with Bloom and Riverside-Brookfield highly regarded contenders. Palatine may repeat but North Chicago, Mooseheart, and Libertyville will be strong contenders.

Class "A" Entrants

Arlington Hts., Aurora (East), Aurora (West), Bloom, Blue Island, Bremen-Midlothian, Crystal Lake, DeKalb, Downers Grove, Elgin.

Glenbard, Glenbrook, Highland Park, Hinsdale, Joliet, Kankakee, La Grange, Leyden, Lockport, Maine.

Niles Ottawa, Riverside-Brookfield, Rockford (East), Waukegan, York.

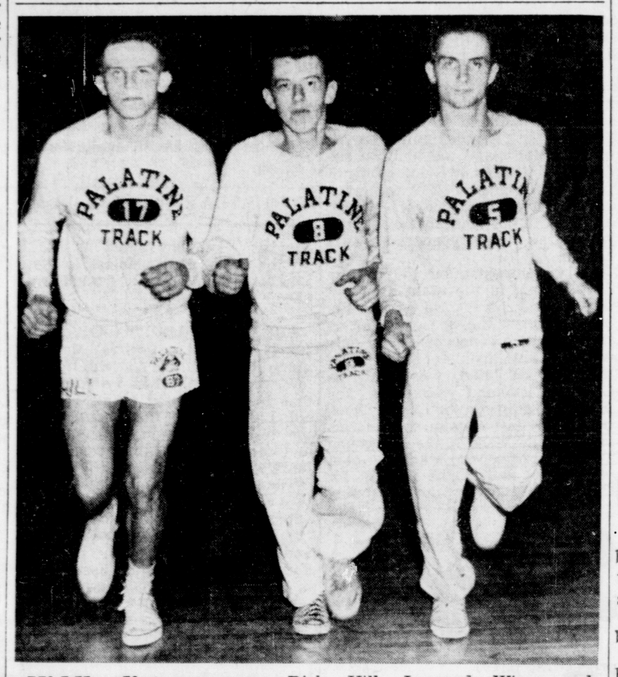
Class "E" Entrants

Antioch, Barrington, Bensenville, Carl Sandburg-Orland Park, Dundee, Ela-Vernon, Geneseo, Geneva, Grayslake, Libertyville.

Marmion Military, Mooseheart, Naperville, North Chicago, Oregon, Oswego, Palatine, Sandwich, Rich Twp., Rochelle.

Serema, St. Anne, St. Charles, St. Thomas, Sycamore, Warren, Wauconda, West Chicago.

Stan Fletcher rapped out two hits in Arlington's 4-1 victory over Glenbard Monday in the West Suburban conference opener. Stan knocked singles in the fourth and sixth innings, the latter time knocking in a run. The Card nine travels to Riverside Thursday and Niles Friday. —Staff Telephoto



Middle distance men Dick Hill, Leonard Wiese and Bruce McClung are all expected to help Palatine high school track squad compile an acceptable record this year. Hill runs the 220, Wiese the mile and half mile, and McClung 880 and 440. —Staff Photo

List Registration Dates For Heights Little League

April 16 has been set as registration day at the field house for Arlington Heights Little league. Boys unable to do so then may register April 23, but registration will absolutely close at that time.

Boys 8 years old as of July 31, 1955, and those who will not be 15 until after August 1, are eligible provided they live within the village limits. Each boy must bring a birth certificate or other proof of age, be accompanied by a parent and bring $1 for registration fee.

The parent waiver fee will also be $1. Boys out of town at this time may be registered by a friend, provided the above conditions are met.

BOYS 15 AND 16 years old are invited to register for Colt league, but plans are indefinite until the number available are known.

Little Leaguers of last summer will remain on the same team.

Tryouts for newcomers will be held April 23.

The women's auxiliary is inaugurating a shoe exchange this year. Boys' baseball shoes still in usable condition, should be brought to the home of Mrs. C. Benrud, 807 S. Vail, CLearbrook 3-3490, before 10 a.m. April 13. They should be tagged clearly with name and address and price expected.

The sale will be held at the field house April 16, during registration. Only Pony Leaguers are allowed to use metal cleats. Unsold shoes must be picked up by 4 p.m. or they will be disposed of.

Increased Interest In Heights Tennis

"Increased interest in tennis, but improvement is slow."

That is the consensus of alums watching Arlington Heights high school tenniseers this week. Turnout has been large, more than 30, according to Coach Ken Schaller.

Challenge matches were cutting "the boys from the men" this week in preparation for the opener Wednesday against Crystal Lake. Coach Schaller has been thinking of setting up a ladder system of ratings to determine top boys of his squad, week by week.

Still missing from the Heights tennis scene, however, is enough action during the summer when school is not in session. "All-summer" tennis program so evident in other communities has not arrived yet, locally, though combination of high school and park district courts in Arlington Heights provide opportunities for a lot more tennis action.

Next match is at Niles April 15.

Lady Golfers To Start Play May 17 At Old Orchard

Tuesday morning ladies' golf league will begin its playing season at Old Orchard country club May 17. Tee-off time will be between 8 and 9 a.m. from 3 tees.

A meeting for members will be held and breakfast served at 9:30 a.m. April 19 at Brandt's restaurant, Northwest highway, Palatine. Breakfast reservations may be made by calling Mrs. H. W. Ragland, CLearbrook 3-1136 before April 15.

Ladies interested in participating in the 1955 Tuesday morning golf program at Old Orchard are asked to call Mrs. Howard Feige at Clearbrook 3-0811.

Spring Grid Game

Illinois' annual spring football game, pitting the blue and white squads in their off-season contest, will be held in Memorial Stadium, April 23, Coach Ray Eliot, has announced.

The game will follow only eight practice sessions in order to coincide with the Illinois high school coaches' clinic, since drills do not begin until April 13.

Arlington At R-B Thursday, At Niles Friday

by BOB PADDOCK

Arlington Heights Cardinal baseball team opened the 1955 season Monday afternoon at Recreation Park with a 4-1 victory over Glenbard, and leads West Suburban league as a result. The locals journey to Riverside-Brookfield Thursday for a 4 o'clock game, then travel to Niles for a 2 p.m. battle Friday.

One run in the fourth and 2 in the sixth were more than enough with John Sujack on the mound for Heights. That was the story Monday after the visitors tallied once in the third frame, but couldn't cross the plate thereafter.

THE CARDINALS filled the bases in the opening inning but coudn't come across. Denny Maher fouled out on the first pitch. Gerry Sauter struck out. Dave Lynk singled to right, then advanced to second on an error putting Don Butts on base. Dick France was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Bob Harrington flied to left, ending the threat.

In the third inning for Glenbard Biehn was safe on first on an overthrow. Domville singled. Biederman was hit by a pitched ball but was picked off for the first out. Meyers rapped a roller to short and was safe on a fielder's choice as Biehn was caught at home. Patkowa was walked, bringing in Domville with the losers' lone run. Rench flied to right to retire the side.

A SINGLE and a walk threatened in the fourth but Sujack fanned Riechert to end the threat by Glenbard. Arlington tallied in the bottom of the fourth when Bob Harrington singled. Ron Ashley flied to left, with Harrington caught trying to go to third. Stan Fletcher singled to left. Sujack walked with Fletcher scoring on an error. Maher popped to short.

Arlington scored 3 in the sixth when Harrington was hit by a pitched ball, Fischer went in to run for him, and advanced to second on the short stop's error as Ashley reached first. Harrington went to third on an error, then scored on another misuse, Ashley reaching third. Fletcher singled, driving in Ashley, was later caught trying to make it to third.

Sujack was out at first. Maher singled and went to second on an error. Sauter tripled, driving in Maher. Lynk flied to center, ending the inning.

LYNK AND SAUTER each garnered two safeties for the Cardinals, the locals racking up 8 hits in all. Sujack performed well on the mound, giving up 5 hits, giving up 1 unearned run, fanned 5, walked 4. Arlington left 8 men on base.

In other games Tom Procha led Downers Grove as it opened defense of its conference baseball title with an 8 to 2 victory over Hinsdale.

Procha struck out 12 and gave up only 1 hit in the 7 innings he worked and also got a double for 3 runs batted in.

BLAIR STANICEK, Hinsdale catcher, got the only hit for the losers, a single in the sixth inning which brought in 2 runs.

Riverside-Brookfield beat La Grange, 4 to 2, in La Grange, and York's 1954 runner-up team beat Maine, 7 to 6, on the York field.

One of the 4 York hits was a bases loaded triple by Jack Wilson in the sixth.

Redwings To Practice At Recreation Park Saturday And Sunday

Arlington Redwings will practice at Recreation Park in Arlington Heights Saturday and Sunday noons, starting at 12:30, it was revealed this week by Bud Blumenthal, semi-pro manager.

The Redwings will open the season at Skokie against the Indians May 1, then follow with the home opener against the Kolski's last year's champs, May 8.

Several local men are working out with the Redwings and are expected to make the team.

Bensenville Hopes Better Than In '54

Second base was the big question of Bensenville high school baseball coach Tom Meneguin Monday as he attempted to name the starting nine for the league opener at Glenbrook Friday. The Bisons then come home to host Palatine April 12.

The band trip cut Meneguin short 3 starters for this opening game, with second base still unfilled. Starters Joe Masotti at short, Bob Heinrich behind the plate, and Tom Clark at second are all missing.

LARS HENDRICKSEN has been moved to short stop, instead of his usual outfield spot. Harold Tews will catch. But Mr. X is still the headache at second.

Dale Stroud appears to be top man at first with Jerry Graumann performing creditably at third.

On the mound Friday will probably be Floyd Busse, junior southpaw. Harvey Mich has been throwing hard, has a fast ball, but lacks pitching "know-how" to date.

IN THE outfield for Coach Meneguin are 2 boys, Monte Forke and Bob Misicka.

Pitching is a question mark. Ken Sirotzki and John Baumgartner, both of whom were thought of as twirlers, had not reported as of Monday.

International Show

This past weekend some 2200 dogs had a good chance to look at approximately 33,000 human beings. Occasion was the 15th annual International kennel club show at the Amphitheatre in Chicago. Not only were records for dogs entered broken, and also for the number of spectators who attended the show, but some of the local dogs in our area set a few records of their own.

To try to give the names of everyone from around here who had entries at the show would be almost impossible; however, some were outstanding.

ERMA E. MUNSTER of Bensenville had her Weimaraner "Gourmet Theron" go best of winners. Another winner and also best of breed was the champion bulldog "Ch. Sandow," owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Glass of Northbrook. From over in the same general area, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Peet had their "Ch. Ardendale Conversational" rated best Airedale terrier.

Following along with other winners of various breeds, Maryann Vann of Barrington had her miniature Schnauzer "Ch. Benrook Randy" winning best miniature Schnauzer in the show. It is interesting to note Mr. and Mrs. Vann have been training their Schnauzers in obedience work at Northwest obedience club in Palatine.

WITH THE LARGEST number of dogs entered from our area from any family or group of individuals, Mrs. L. S. Gordon Jr. and Janet Bennett had 10 of their little Yorkshire terriers in the show and their champion "Ch. Star Twilight of Clu-Mor" came through to win. He was not only judged the best Yorkshire in show, but also won coveted "best of the Terrier group."

Heading south toward the Lombard area, it was interesting to note the "best of winners class" for German shepherds was awarded "Bruce of Krog Farm" entered by the Diersburg kennels. From over on Route 20, near Elmhurst, Starkrest kennels owned by William Stark, entered their wire haired male dachshund "Starkrest's Happy Lark," which came out "best of winners" for its breed.

As far as confirmation judging was concerned, there were a number of second and third place winners from around the area, but as stated before it would almost be impossible for your editor to get them all in the space allowed.

ON THE SUBJECT of obedience trials at the show, it was for Arnold Selan of Arlington Heights to bring home the proverbial bacon as far as our area was concerned. His German shepherd "Kip Von Arlington" took second place in open class "B" and third place in "utility class."

It is interesting to note Mr. Selan's dog came within one point of a perfect score of 200 in the open "B" class, and actually he was only ½ point lower than the first place winner.

Not only did everyone from the northwest area do well in obedience but also to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Platt of Palatine went top honors for their Gordon Setter "Gunbar's Dare Devil." The Platts not only entered dogs in the confirmation classes, and did very well, but to "Dare Devil" went the first place award in the field trials held in connection with the Show.

This was without a doubt the first time that our area has had a major winner in all events of the International Show and it represents perhaps the first time that, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Platt, a major win has been recorded in the field trial exhibition.

ALL IN ALL from our area, there were actually 55 families showing a total of 86 dogs in the 2 day affair. People came from all over for the event, not only to see and exhibit their own dogs, but also to take a good look at the extra added attractions, one of which, and the major one so far as the youngsters were concerned, was Lassie.

Main demonstration given Sunday evening in the main arena of the Amphitheatre, practically brought down the house as far as the kids were concerned. Not only was Lassie's trainer, Rudd Weatherwax, on hand, was well as George Cleveland who plays the part of Gramps on the Lassie Show, but at the last minute special arrangements were made for young Tommy Rettig, who takes the part of the boy Jeff, to be present for the 9 p.m. performance Sunday evening. The boy acted as M.C. for the show, and, needless to say, Lassie put on quite a demonstration.

SPEAKING ABOUT Lassie brings to mind a promise that I made to a number of children a few weeks ago, when I told them that if they wanted to guess how old Lassie was, they could find the right answer in this column, and see how close they would actually come.

The origina Lassie is a male dog, 14 years old. The Lassie which appears on TV, and which was at the International, is also a male and is about 4 years old. He is a direct son of the old Lassie who is still alive, but according to Mr. Weatherwax is not up to a considerable amount of travel throughout the country.

Most outstanding record of Illinois baseball squad is against Indiana, which the Illini have whipped 40 of 48 times . . . Purdue has fallen 68 of 85 times.

Overall conference mark is 390 wins, 175 losses for a .690 average . . . Arrival of the latest Bear news reminds us summer is about over . . . Sports banquet speaker April 14 at Grant high school will be Art Bergstrom, formerly of Libertyville and now of Bradley university . . . Libertyville, which cancelled Monday's track meet with Arlington, has a 61-7 won-loss record since Bob Kelton took over the coaching reins in 1946.

Just as Arlington awarded a varsity wrestling letter to freshman Ralph Carlino, so did York issue one to freshman Charles Alessi . . . York has 10 baseball lettermen returning . . . The Elmhurst school officially dedicated its gym Tuesday of last week.

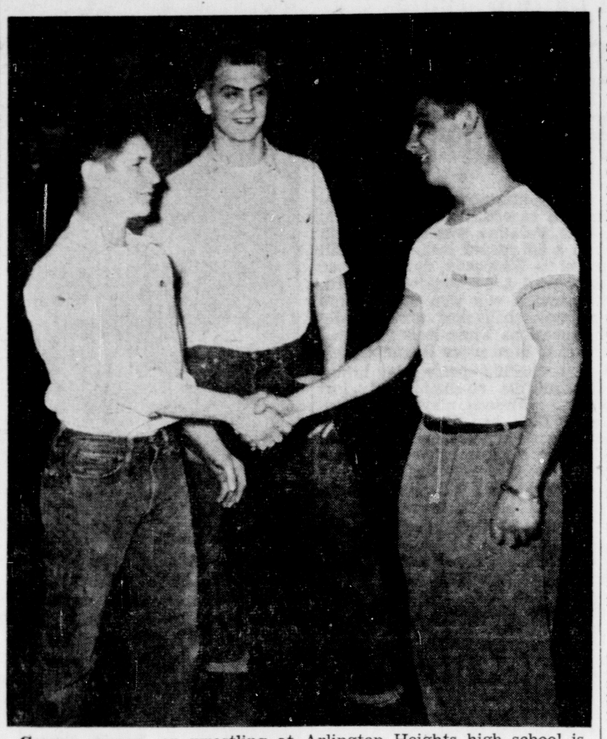
BILL ROBINSON, one of Arlington's greatest athletes of the class of '49, was in town over the weekend. He reported in to Heights athletic director Wally Grace, the two of them taking in the Globetrotter game in Chicago. Reports Wally:

"Going in, at dinner, and coming out we reminisced plenty, just as Bill had done the night before with Phil Theis, Rudy Heinze and Vic Bittner. In the days when we permitted doubling in spring sports Bill was a 4-sport man, performing well in all of them."

Tennis, track and varsity baseball squads are working out this week at Arlington, with many an alum talking over old times with coaches and watching future Cardinal stars warm up.

Walter Rueger, right, of Palatine, receives congratulations from Donald Schram of Forest Park for his feat of shooting (with bow and arrow) the largest buck in the state of Wisconsin last year, a 9-pointer weighing 204 pounds. Large traveling trophy, plus other archery awards, was given at the first convention of the Illinois archery asociation held at Leland hotel in Aurora in March. There were 20 boy hunters eligible for big game awards, the first year they have been awarded. There were 110 archers present at the convention representing 23 clubs.

Arlington Trackmen To Open Against Maine Thursday



Swan song on wrestling at Arlington Heights high school is concerned, until next season, that is, was sung last week when this year's captain Vic Carlino (left) congratulated next year's captain Jack Ebert, while "most proved wrestler" Al Rose looked on. —Staff Photo

Arlington Heights high school trackmen will open the home season with Maine Thursday without benefit of early season opener with Libertyville. The warmup scheduled for Monday with the Wildcats was cancelled.

Vacation trip of the large group of Heights students presently touring Washington, D. C., removed several track candidates from the Maine meet, leaving varsity coach Russ Attis somewhat lonesome.

HIGH HURDLE entries, however, are certain to include Larry Long with vacationing Dave Schimmel among the missing. Long and George Buechner will compete in the lows.

In the sprints will be Harrison and Tom Totzke, with Bill Lussow and Ken Korcek running the quarter. Ray Hornbostel is listed for the half with John Sheppard, Ronald Garr and John Landmeier named for the mile.

Wallace Anderson is the only broad jumper certain to compete against Maine, with Long listed in the high jump. Bill Palmer and Stan Norman will compete in frosh-soph high jump.

LEW GREEN and Griffith Pritchard will both compete in the pole vault. Running in the 880 relay will be Kennicott, Dick Malcomson, Buechner, and Dick Van Note.

In the weights it will probably be Jack Johnston, Dennie Striegel, Wayne Mueller, Wayne Malzahn and John Lukan. Carl Klehm and Dick Fischer will be tossing the weight for the frosh-sophs, as will Jack Webber.

In the discus will be Mueller, Johnston and Lukan, with Klehm twirling the platter for the frosh-sophs.

Time Trials Monday

Time trials for Bensenville high school track team are planned for Monday, April 11, according to track mentor Paul Henry. The squad of 45 boys has been working out regularly this week, in spite of Easter vacation.

Not much was known of individual performances as of Monday afternoon, but Coach Henry expects to have a good idea of top boys in various events by next week. Opening meet is at home against Palatine and Elmhurst.

Illini Nine To Be Filled With Sophs

Improved speed, defense and hitting, but questionable pitching are forecast for Illinois' 1955 baseball team by Coach Lee Eilbracht as his 32-man squad goes through final week of preparations for the season opener against Washington University (St. Louis) at Illinois Field Tuesday, April 5.

With only five lettermen back from last year's unit, Eilbracht envisions a predominantly sophomore lineup this year.

Fill Positions On Soph Nine At Bensenville

Starting positions of Bensenville high school frosh-soph nine were fairly well filled by Monday of this week with the opening Northwest conference game scheduled for Friday against Glenbrook. The varsity will travel, the frosh-sophs playing the Trojans on the Bison field.

Coach Glen Van Proyan has announced a starting battery of sophomore Gene Palicki on the mound with sophomore Russ Krase behind the plate. First reserves at these two spots will be Bill Blaesing, pitcher who also plays first, and Paul Rucker, catcher.

THE INFIELD will probably include Bob Stroubel at first, freshman Dave Helms at second, Bob Clancy at short and freshman Bill Emory at third.

Other infielders on the squad include Bill Kebbie and Jim Meneguin, plus Wayne Hohman and Leon Langguth, who are on the band tour. Langguth is a sophomore, the rest freshmen.

Bensenville Dogs Win At International Show

Another winner in International dog show at the Amphitheater in Chicago over the weekend were 3 puppies of Vern Marcum of Bensenville. These pups were 9-months-old English Pointers.

Dotmar's Handsome Duke won first puppy dog class. Dotmar's Gay Maggie copped second puppy bitch, American bred. Dotmar's Lovely Duchess took third puppy bitch class.

All 3 dogs are pups of Ch. Grange's County Gentleman which took best of breed at the show last year and of Ch. Marcum's Lady Imogene.

Future Winner

Ksar of Auldley and Featherstitch announce the birth of a "son" March 31 in the stable owned by Elmer Sass, State and Dundee rds., just north of Arlington Heights. The future race horse comes from a good bloodline and his ancestors are credited with winning a lot of races.

York Has 10 Lettermen Back For Baseball Team

by ROGER DAVIS

Led by a first team of ten returning lettermen, Coach Harold Kieffer's York high school squad is expected to be close on the heels of top-ranked Downers Grove in the conference race this season.

Lettermen back from last year's third place squad are Jack Wilson and Marvin Reese, catchers; Bill Krueger first-baseman; Don Anderson, second-baseman; Bob Hoffman, shortstop; Frank Wagner, third-baseman; Bill Zersen, Don Schloemer, and Dick Oeler, outfielders; and Bob Stuenkel, pitcher.

DESPITE A LACK of pitching depth and batting power (Bill Zersen hit the team's only home run last year), the Dukes hope to improve on their 8-5 WSC record and overall mark of 14-6 in '54.

Among the 1955 Dukes, the best batting average posted last season was .271 by Andersen. Zersen, .207 a first-baseman who was shifted to the outfield this season, also won an honorable mention.

Stuenkel is easily the best choice of the inexperienced four-man pitching staff, with a 6-1 record in '54. He was undefeated until he lost the final game of the Kankakee sectional tournament last May, breaking his six-game winning streak.

DICK OELER, 0-1 last year, will alternate between the outfield and the mound this season. The pitching staff is rounded out by John Benedict, 0-1, LeRoy Lukes, up from the frosh-sophs, where he had an 0-2 record, and Sid Paradee, a senior.

Others who may enter the picture in the outfield are juniors Bob Bloom, Bill Buehring and Don Hellison. Buehring is also a possible candidate for third, and additional infield material includes Otto McBride a junior; John Wingert, sophomore; Bob Hesch, senior; and Bruce Haas, junior.

GONE FROM last year's term are Wally Srauch, shortstop; Ken Fiene, center-fielder; Carl Budelsky, pitcher; and Ken Travis, pitcher. Travis, a bespectacled right-hander, signed a contract with the New York Yankees and pitched in their farm system last summer.

Since coach Harold Kieffer took over, the York baseball team has never finished lower than fourth in the WSC. In the last seven years, the Dukes have finished fourth once, third twice, second once, and won one conference championship and tied for two more.

Film On How To Play Basketball Released

"How to Play Better Basketball," a 30-minute 16-mm sound-on-film with fundamentals of basketball explained by Harry Combes, head coach at the University of Illinois, has been released.

The film which will be circulated for use in homes, schools, and clubs, is being distributed by All-America Sports films, 271 Madison avenue, New York, N. Y.

Employing regular speed, slow-motion demonstrations, and scenes from actual collegiate games, Combes treats the basic fundamentals of basketball in an easy-to-follow manner which will aid any coach or instructor in helping players improve their game.

Combes' suggestions are backed by one of the most successful careers of any basketball coach in the nation. The Illinois coach joined the collegiate ranks in 1948 after having directed Champaign high school to the state championship and winning 106 of 113 games in his last three years as a prep mentor.

Since Combes entered the Big Ten, his teams at Illinois have won three conference titles, three times have been third in the NCAA tournament, and against all competition have won 78 per cent of games played during an eight-year period. Never has a Combes-coached team lost more than five games in a season.

Issuing equipment was, actually, the main order of business for Arlington Heights baseball candidates until last week when the weather finally gave the local diamondmen a break. Discussing equipment, above, are outfield candidate Ron Ashley, catcher Stan Norman, student physical education instructor Bob Fasick, baseball coach Howard Lester. —Staff Photo

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois is taking a taxpayer opinion poll to determine its policy on the governor's request for a 1 cent increase for 1 year in the state retailers' occupation tax.

A questionnaire and return postal card ballot form has been mailed to 12,000 taxpayers scattered throughout the state by the federation in line with its program of determining policy on basic issues from the grass-roots up.

"The taxpayers federation staff advises," the questionnaire points out, "that the only possible alternative to increased revenue would be curtailment of state services. The state has been spending more than its income since 1947, living off the surplus accumulated during the war years; that surplus is now about gone.

"TO CONTINUE the existing level of state aid for schools will require an increase of around $46,000,000 for the next biennium due to increased enrollments. Demands for increases from state colleges and universities, from the department of public welfare, for public aid, etc., etc., add up to additional multi-million dollar increases. Not all demands, obviously, are warranted, but some increases are warranted and are inevitable."

Despite the above, the questionnaire asks, do you believe that the taxpayers' federation of Illinois should oppose any new or increased state tax whatsoever? Do you believe that the federation should oppose any new or increased tax that is not temporary (that does not have a definite expiration date to force reconsideration by the next general assembly in 1957)

WITH RESPECT to the nature of any tax increase, the questionnaire continues, would you favor enactment of a 2% use tax on purchases made outside Illinois for use and consumption in Illinois to supplement the present 2% realtors' occupation tax (sales tax), in preference to an increase in the 2% R.O.T. rate? Pointing out that a use tax would not produce enough revenue to solve the state's financial problems, the questionnaire also asks whether legislation to broaden the base of the R.O.T. would be preferrable to an increase in the R.O.T. rate.

The final question is, if it develops that an increase in the R.O.T. rate is going to be voted, would you prefer a 1% increase for 1 year or a ½% increase for 2 years.

The results of the poll will be published by the federation.

Barrington Depot May Be Moved

A plan for the development of parking areas around the present station of the North Western railroad at Barrington, together with plans for financing the improvement, will be presented to the village board at its forthcoming meeting next week.

Four members of a special committee appointed to study a plan for moving the passenger station to a new site 3,200 feet east of its present location, as well as other proposals, recommended the measure.

Looking For Swimmers

With an eye toward the Olympic games in Melbourne, Australia, next summer, Walt Schlueter, 1952 Olympic diving coach, will hold tryouts for positions on his Chicago swim club in the Town Club pool from April 20 through April 30.

Under the name of Community Builders swim club, Schlueter trained swimmers have captured practically every existing national and local aquatic title during the past several years.

The team and sponsorship has been taken over completely now by Schlueter, who is seeking about 50 boy and girl swimmers to add to a nucleus of some 50 more from his present group to represent the club starting next fall. Divers and water ballet prospects are also being sought.

Schlueter asks that those interested in seeking positions on his 1955-56 team apply on April 18 at the Town Club, 505 N. Michigan, or phone DE 7-7030, for an appointment.

Poll Shows Strong Support For Spitball

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has some solid support for his suggestion that the spitball be returned. That comes direct from The Sporting News.

To find out how baseball men in general feel about the idea, The Sporting News conducted a poll among managers, coaches and players in the major league training camps. Out of 120 contacted, 84 either supported the idea or offered no objection. Only 36 were outright opposed. Ten out of the 16 major league managers said they would like to see the spitball come back. Only four were against it, and the other two said they were on the fence, neither favoring nor opposing it.

THE MANAGERS in favor were Chuck Dressen of the Senators, Casey Stengel of the Yankees, Paul Richards of the Orioles, Lou Boudreau of the Athletics, Stan Hack of the Cubs, Eddie Stanky of the Cardinals, Bucky Harris of the Tigers, Mayo Smith of the Phillies, Leo Durocher of the Giants and Charlie Grimm of the Braves. Those opposed were Marty Marion of the White Sox, Al Lopez of the Indians, Pinky Higgins of the Red Sox and Fred Haney of the Pirates. The two having no strong feeling either way were Walter Alston of Brooklyn and Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati.

The poll showed that pitchers and coaches were strong for the return of the spitball. They generally reasoned that pitchers have been taking it on the chin from the rules-makers for so long that they need any assist that the spitter would give them. Infielders and outfielders were in the van of those opposing the spitball. Typical comments from these men were that the public has become accustomed to the long ball, and that the spitball would work against the long ball, possibly hurting the gate. Besides, they said, there are few enough .300 hitters now, without adding the further handicap of facing a "new" pitch.

HOWEVER some of the better hitters didn't agree. Al Rosen of Cleveland, Gus Zernial of Kansas City and Hank Sauer of the Cubs said they were emphatically in favor of having the spitball returned. Rosen said he believed it would halp fatten his batting average. Zernial said pitchers can't control the pitch, "And when they get behind in the count," he said, "they'll have to throw me the fast one. Baby, that's the one for me." Sauer said, "Give the pitchers a break. I don't think it would make much difference to me. The spitter can't be worse than the knuckler. Maybe we won't see so many knuckleballs if the spitball was allowed."

Stangely some of the strongest opposition came from the pitchers. Billy Pierce of the White Sox said that if they wanted to help the pitchers, why not enlarge the strike zone.

MANY OTHERS had comments, one way or another, about the return of the pitch outlawed 35 years ago. One of the most interesting comments came from Pee Wee Reese, captain of the Dodgers. "I don't think legalizing the spitter would make much difference," Reese, said. "They never stopped throwing it anyway."

Attend Football Clinic At Cincinnati

Tom Meneguin and Paul Henry, Bensenville high school football coaches, attended the coaching clinic at University of Cincinnati Friday and Saturday, along with Paul Lewis of Grant, Paul Kessenich of Antioch, Bill Freiberg of Wauconda and Pat Rooney of Ela-Vernon.

Heading the program were Murray Warmath, Minnesota grid coach, and Paul "Bear" Bryant, Texas mentor. Intrasquad game Friday night had the coaches watching in their shirt sleeves.

Australia Rules You Can't Send Rats Thru Mail To Friend Or Foe

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Sending a rat through the mail, according to an Australian court ruling, is not a woman's prerogative!

The case began some time ago when a thirty-two year old housewife from Brisbane decided that she couldn't stand a certain lady friend of the family anymore. Her husband had been paying too much attendion to the woman.

He was too quick to light her cigarettes and far too energetic at playing porter with doors, the housewife claimed.

In their five years of marriage he had never bothered to wear a necktie or take a shave when stepping out for the evening. Now he is a different personality, the woman explained to the judge, because of a simple hussy trying to steal her husband's attentions.

IN AN UPSET moment, this Brisbane housewife set the rat trap and decided to send her rival a present.

Wrapped in silk paper with all of the outward appearances of a chocolate eclair, the rat (now deceased) was placed in a pastry box, bound by a ribbon, and taken to the post office The cadaver was registered and dispatched.

The next day her rival was interrupted during breakfast by the mailman. She signed his receipt and returned to the table with the package. When she saw the pastry box, she later admitted, she thought that it was a small present from the straying husband.

She opened it up, let out a scream, recovered from the shock after some minutes, and called the police.

THEN THIS IRATE housewife found herself in court. Not unprepared by any means, however, her solicitor predicted a smashing victory.

The defense explained that sending rats through the mail is a common practice. An example was given of mailing rabbits and chickens as cold meats.

This did not impress the judge, however. Pursuing further, the attorney presented evidence that medical groups throughout the world frequently send rats by mail, and that nobody is prosecuted for such activity. He said that the plaintiff was basing her case on an unhealthy attitude toward a very common object.

The judge, however, ruled against this reasoning. The defendant was ordered to pay a ten pound fine ($22) for sending a noxious object to a person by means of the Queen's courier.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. How does one write a formal acceptance to a wedding invitation?

A. Write on the first page of a sheet of note paper, and address to the parents of the girl in whose name the invitation was issued: "Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. South accept with pleasure Mr. and Mrs. John Philip Smith's kind invitation to the wedding and reception of their daughter, on Tuesday, the twelfth of April."

Q. Some of my friends, when they catch my eye in church, smile and bow, or wave their hands at me, even though the service is going on. Is this proper?

A. Ordinarily, in church, you may smile at a friend—but never actually bow. To wave the hand is exceedingly wrong.

Q. Is it the duty of the person who is pouring tea to put the sugar into the guest's cup?

A. Yes; but she should ask how much sugar is desired.

Q. I have been invited for a weekend visit. Would it be proper for me to bring a gift to my hostess?

A. This would be a very nice thing to do. The gift need not be valuable, but should show care in selection. And, of course, this does not excuse you from writing that "bread-and-butter" letter as soon as possible after you return home.

Q. How should one take an olive stone from the mouth?

A. With the thumb and fore finger, and laid on the plate. Never be guilty of ejecting it from the mouth directly to the plate, or into the palm of the hand!

Q. Is it proper for a woman to wear gloves while dancing at a formal dance?

A. Yes. They used to be a requirement.

Q. Just what is the proper way to eat a chicken leg? Is it all right, after cutting most of the meat, to pick up the bone in the fingers for the rest?

A. This may be done at picnics, and in certain restaurants where such a practice is encouraged as a feature of the house.

Q. I would like to give the name of a friend as a personal reference in applying for a job. Should I ask that friend's permission first?

A. That would be the proper thing to do.

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell The Truth, and Make Money," — H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

April 7, 1905

Martin and Emil hauled a carload of perfume from Mount Prospect the other day.

The Union party's caucus last Saturday in Palatine was the biggest ever held with 255 votes cast. The following were elected candidates for the village election April 18: Albert S. Olms, village president; J. G. Horstman, R. M. Putnam and I. M. Kuebler, trustees, and W. H. Brockway, village clerk. These men are not expected to have any opposition since no other ticket had filed by the deadline.

From the Itasca correspondent . . Our sidewalks are getting pretty rank. I suggest the street committee take a tumble as I did, by a plank flying up and landing me fully 5 points down. The result was 2 loosened teeth and a sore wrist. We will not ask for damages, but want a supply of spikes to nail the boards down.

Only opposition in the coming village election in Bartlett finds Jacob Schwingel running against Henry Boehmer. Unopposed candidates are J. A. Schminke, William Metz and William Fassbender for trustees and R. Schneider for clerk.

Forty Years Ago

April 2, 1915

H. P. K. Bicknase, a resident of Palatine for most of the past 47 years, died suddenly last Friday at 77 years.

William H. Leseberg, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leseberg, took as his wife March 18 Jennie Peterson, a Chicago girl.

Abel Griffith Chessman, pioneer resident of Addison township, died in his home in Itasca Saturday at the age of 83 years. He was postmaster at Itasca for many years and received his first appointment from President Lincoln.

The following were confirmed by the Rev Maierlie at Churchville Palm Sunday: Mathilda Warenberg, Henry Stahlman, Elmer Schmidt, Emil Franzen, William Meyer and Harvey Hannebuth.

The Citizens ticket for the Schaumburg township election April 6 has no opposition. The candidates are Albert Sporleder for supervisor, Henry Moeller for highway commissioner and H. C. Bartels for school trustee.

Thirty Years Ago

April 3, 1925

Sixty years after the "Boys of '61" returned to their homes the Arlington Heights Businessmens' association is preparing for the construction of a $900 GAR monument in their honor.

W. F. Meyer Sr. was retired by the U. S. Postal service April 1 after serving at the Arlington Heights post office for five years under his son, the postmaster.

The second annual Arlington Heights high school basketball banquet was highly successful the other night with letters awarded to the following players on the squad: Capt. Joe Cordulack, Ole Johnson, H. Lips, Leonard Bolte, Richard Schoenbeck and Cliff Crane.

Henry Oehlerking, an old settler of Elk Grove who came to this area in 1854, died March 28 at the age of 87 years.

A average honor roll students at Arlington Heights high school are Vivian Volz, Helen Meyer, Inez Ihle, Donald Thal, and Margaret Johnson.

E. J. Heinrich died in his home in Wood Dale Sunday afternoon.

Taking part in the 8th grade debate at the Arlington Heights grade school Friday on the question of which is the more useful, the train or the automobile, will be Emil Roeske, Mary Sadecky and Alice Becker against Mildred Schuetler, Anna Olah, Lawrence Schwartz and Walter Annen.

Twenty Years Ago

April 5, 1935

Noble J. Puffer, Palatine, superintendent-elect of the Cook county school system, was last week appointed assistant to State Superintendent John Wieland.

Because the law does not allow for such a contingency, the name of W. S. Dollinger will appear on the ballots of the April 16 election as a candidate for the Palatine village presidency even though he died suddenly March 22.

Fifty Arlington Heights high school students took part in the ping pong tourney sponsored by the Pep club last week and Ruth Long and Billy Miles won the women's and men's singles crowns respectively. Miles and Ray Dreschel were the doubles titlists.

Officials of the Palatine fire department appeared before the village board the other night to request that their members receive free village vehicle licenses.

Two Arlington Heights residents died the past week. Fred W. Schmitt, 515 N. Chestnut, passed away Thursday after a two day siege of pneumonia at the age of 78 years. Herman Dickmann succumbed Monday in a Chicago hospital. He lived at 516 W. Campbell and was 50 years old.

E. Bartholmey became acting postmaster of Bensenville Monday in place of former Postmaster George Warnecke.

Ten Years Ago

April 6, 1945

Waldemar Krause, identified with the business life of Arlington Heights and Wheeling township for a half century, died in his home at 19 N. Pine ave., Arlington Heights, March 30 after a lingering illness which had kept him confined to his bed for several months. He was 74 years old.

A. M. Conger, a teacher at Arlington Heights high school the past 20 years, has presented his resignation.

The Rev. Herman G. McCoy, pastor of Arlington Heights Presbyterian church, presented his resignation at the annual meeting of the congregation Wednesday evening so as to accept a call from the Presbyterian church at Cherokee, Ia.

Phyllis Elliott and Sgt. John K. Little, both of Prospect Heights, were united in marriage March 31 at South church, Mount Prospect, by the Rev. Robert T. Handy.

Elected without opposition in a quiet Schaumburg township election the past week were Supervisor Fred W. Pfingsten, town clerk Louis W. Redeker, assessor William H. Greve, road commissioner Emil F. Schrage, Constable Charles J. Braun and school trustee John W. Bierman.

Bensenville will vote April 10 on the proposed construction of a municipal building after the war.

Oh

Since the natural colors of clay products are, with few exceptions, mixtures of shades rather than pure colors, the accepted practice in specifying color for brick and tile is to require the shipment to match an approved sample.

Moving hydrants was last week's order of business in the Campbell street widening program in front of the offices of Paddock Publications in Arlington Heights. Shown above is one of the men breaking through the clay to reach the main far below the road. New hydrants were installed several feet farther back, against the sidewalks, to make room for the 4-lane road, with the bright, bright lights. —Staff Photo

To The Public

I am very proud to be a resident of Palatine and associate with so many wonderful people. In the number of years that we have lived here doing business in Palatine, we have made every effort to conduct our business with honesty and integrity. However, of recent date there has been an undercurrent of falsehoods spread against our business and character. They have become so vicious that it is necessary to repudiate these stories by this statement.

At no time has anything ever been said or done against any person or persons that would injure them personally or in business.

Widely Read

On behalf of the Presbyterian women's organization of the Community Presbyterian church of Mt. Prospect I wish to thank you and your staff for the grand cooperation and courteous attention you gave our group in making our second annual antiques show and sale a wonderful success. Our guest register proves that due to the wide circulation you gave our articles we had many visitors from the surrounding communities that learned of our show through your cooperation. Again may we say thank you for making our efforts worthwhile.

Satisfied

During the time I have lived in Arlington Heights I have found the service of a private scavenger to be reliable and accommodating.

If it were not so, I would sign up with his competitor. This is a guarantee of performance we would lose if the village took over garbage disposal. Let's leave well enough alone.

Griffenhagen Report

A registered letter from Charles W. Houchins, 509 North Fairview, Mount Prospect was received at the Mt. Prospect municipal building Wednesday, March 30, in reference to the Griffenhagen report.

The Griffenhagen report was presented to the board of trustees in March of 1954 as previously authorized.

The public press was well aware of the existance of this report and publication in full could have been made had the press desired to do so at that time.

No official board action has ever been taken to attempt to cause anyone to believe the report was to be secret in nature, as stated in your letter. At the time when the report was presented to the board of trustees for official acceptance, the press prominently made reference to it on the front page of the Herald.

From time to time references were made to this report at public board meetings as certain recommendations were put into effect by the board of trustees.

In a recent issue of the Mount Prospect Herald, mention was made you had previously been refused access to the Griffenhagen report. At no time have I received a request from any citizen for a copy of this report until your letter was received.

A copy of the report shall be made available to you as requested.

A Reply

Theodore A. Lams, Mt. Prospect village president, has received the following reply to his above letter:

In the absence of Charles W. Houchins and since I am the recipient of copy No. 9 of the survey report on the village government prepared by Griffenhagen and associates, I would like to express my appreciation of your cooperation in making the subject material available for our study.

Since the prime aim of the Better Government party is to give the citizens of Mount Prospect a modern up-to-date government, I assure you that the material reported in the survey will not be used to slur or degrade the present village trustees or your administration. Our approach will be objective. For example, after having reviewed the material presented by the survey engineers, we will be in a position to better understand the forthcoming Citizen's Committee findings.

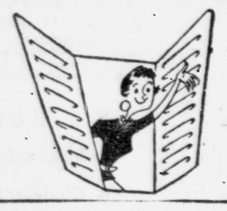
JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER



Dear Peg:

"With the growing scarcity of survivals of the not too recent past, the term "antique" has fallen into perilously loose usage. So far has this gone that the term is frequently applied to objects which saw the light of day hardly before our own entry into this world. The United States government, for the purposes of its customs revenue, decided some years ago to classify as an antique, and therefore duty free, all objects made or presumably made before 1830. I understand the authorities intended to specify all objects that had attained the respectable age of 100 years or so, but by some chance the date 1830 was mentioned, that being the century mark when the law was passed.

This, in fact, has not proved totally untoward, since the date 1830 is approximately central to that period when the machine began to oust individual production from our industrial economy. The odds are therefore in favor of any object made before 1830 being produced largely by hand and to that extent personalized, in contrast to the standardized impersonality of mechanized production . . . This quality of personality is, I think, the chief reason why the pre-industrial age antique continues to be sought out with increasing fervor even as the tide of modern design advances.

A CONTEMPORARY SETTING often offers a most satisfactory setting for the antique, but like all marriages of opposites, there must be a common basis for successful melding. Good, well integrated design is, I think, the basic factor, age alone does not make an antique of real value, any more than modernity is, by itself, a proof of virtue. It is this fact that makes antique collecting something more than mere accumulation. There are many reasons for collecting antiques, both real and presumptive, but it might be well for the collector, both actual and potential, to ask himself what he is really interested in—age or beauty, rarity or quality. He can save himself a lot of trouble if he can give an honest answer and act accordingly—" from "Antiques—What, Where and Why," by Meyric R. Rogers, curator of decorative arts and industrial arts, of the Art Institute of Chicago.

I think that this article, parts of which I've just written to you, is one of the clearest and most comprehensive commentaries on antiques and their collectors that I've ever run across. It was especially meaningful to me as I read it the first time, since I'd just attended the Greater Chicago Antiques Show and sale. In this show, as well as in other annual shows in our area, were antiques distinquished especially by their fancy price tags, and unfortunately neither does a high price (just as Mr. Rogers says age doesn't) necessarily indicate value nor even good design. It would be a lot easier for the antique lover and collector if they did.

IT WAS SO MUCH FUN being among the first to see the booths during the "preview" on opening day. Mildred Roberts (one of my good friends and fellow-antique lovers), invited me to go to the show and the luncheon for patronesses and their guests. The displays all looked so fresh and sparkling as we walked into the large exhibition room in the Lake Shore Club. Mildred was especially interested in the desks. I think the three we saw and Mildred's choice among them illustrates a point of Mr. Rogers.

Although they were all quite expensive and close to the same age, they were of three distinct styles. One was made of pine and designed quite simply. Another in pine was of a French provincial design. The one Mildred admired especially was a lovely cherry desk with beautiful detail around the drawers and base. Now, though all three were unusually lovely and well made, the cherry desk most nearly resembled in color and style the other pieces Mildred has in her living room. Realizing this, it was the only one she considered buying.

I WANTED A LITTLE LAMP I saw for the girls' room. Perfectly charming, it had a base of white and pink glass and an octagon-shaped shade on which, in each panel, a little girl was busy at something like brushing her hair, trying on a hat, looking at herself in a mirror and trying on some cosmetic. Needless to say, my mouth fell open and my teeth nearly fell out when upon inquiring about the price from the dealer I learned that it could be mine for $135! Annoyed at my complete lack of self control, the dealer haughtily explained that each panel in the shade was an exquisite piece of Dresden china—so he was actually giving it away at that price. Oh yes, there was another trinket I thought was cute — a little bracelet made of jeweled slides (these are the tiny movable pieces on the antique watch chains that were worn around the neck.) They were "giving" this away for $175.

I loved the show — it was expensive, gorgeous, glamorous and fabulous and the fact that I couldn't buy anything at it didn't bother me at all, I didn't expect to. I wouldn't expect to buy a painting by some French old master — but I wouldn't miss going to the Art Institute to see it on display.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY BY MARY

We are simply exhausted. Spring is here and all the magazines and advertisements have so proclaimed. In each day's mail comes pamphlet after pamphlet with simply fascinating pictures of tools to make the garden grow.

The fashion books are full of frocks with A shapes, H shapes, and even the old fashioned girl shapes. We have spent mental thousands of dollars and wish you to know that we look divine in our mind's eye.

Now that spring vacation has started, the child population of our neighborhood seems to have tripled. And all of the little dears feel that our yard is the perfect vacation paradise. In one corner under the largest pear tree, there is a most adorable edifice making its appearance. It is to be a club house we are told in no uncertain terms.

This clubhouse is to be built entirely around a defunct iron cot, minus mattress, but with lovely pillows made from scraps of old material filled with shredded paper. The paper filling is very soft and quite cheap the clubwomen have assured us.

The sides of the building are composed of orange crates gleaned through the delight of a local grocery store manager who didn't know what to do with them until the organizers took them off his grateful hands. The cracks in the crates are being boarded up with the slats of more crates and the nails being used are the exact size of railroad spikes. This causes consternation among the young builders as they fail to see why the wood cracks each time one these mammoth spikes is driven home.

At one time discouragement ran so high that a delegation came to me with a snappy proposition. It was thought a jolly idea if I were to advance them a small sum so they might purchase a load of bricks and a bag of mortar. That way, they said, their clubhouse would be good for years and years and wouldn't my grandchildren have a bully time?

The roof presented no problem at all as a neighbor is about to build a garage and they were absolutely sure that he had gone hog wild when he bought the shingles. They just knew that he could hardly wait to give them any old shingles lef over. Then too, they planned on getting expert advice plus a little free help from his builder.

We hated to throw all the cold water handy on their project so we are back to the orange crate deal. In order to keep the rain out and the cot in, well, we didn't need that corner of our basement anyway.

Homemaker of 1955

I wish to take this opportunity to express my humble, but most sincere thanks to Stuart R. Paddock, staff and friends, for generous and exceedingly kind felicitations this past week! I felt highly honored to represent the "Arlington Heights Herald" in the "Homemaker of 1955" contest of the Modern Living Exposition at Navy Pier.

I am especially appreciative of all the time and attention Stuart R. Paddock gave in spite of all his many other editorial responsibilities. This is another noble example of his many community activities "beyond the call of duty" and he deserves all the credit due him!

MANY THANKS also to the rest of the "Herald" staff, Fred Garreiss, who drove us to the "crowning" in his fine car; Charles Hayes, reporter, for his excellent story; Vear Folkman, assistant editor, members of St. Peter church, and all other friends who called or wrote notes of best wishes. Mrs. Ridgely Jackson, who nominated me, deserves a special public "thank you," too!

The clippings and stories from the Arlington Heights Herald were on the large bulletin board of the Exposition at Navy Pier. One of the managers of public relations commented they were placed there to tout the wonderful community spirit of a progressive suburban newspaper such as the Arlington Heights Herald and the good will of local people. He also stated that it must be wonderful to live in such a "City of Good Neighbors." I most heartily agree with him!!

About Tactics

Mr. Bishop's "Fence Post" letter implies that the tactics "used a year or so ago in the high school election" were questionable. He further implies that the Arlington Heights Civic Service party is resorting to the same tactics.

Frankly, I'm not quite sure why Mr. Bishop thinks those tactics questionable, but isn't he aware that TWO of the candidates in his own Progress Party were very active architects of those questionable tactics in the high school election?

News From Ozarks

Like the rest of the country, the Ozarks have had a cold spell which played havoc with the peach, apple and grape crops, for the second time this winter we had snow and freezing weather. Our winter is of short duration and although it may get cold, the cold spell lasts only for a short time. The summers are long and it does get hot but the heat is not like that up north, in that it is dry heat and you never hear of anyone being overcome with the heat here.

This place is becoming a sort of refuge for people all over the United States. We have some from Florida and California but mostly Illinois people. In fact they have an Illinois club with several hundred members. Most of the people are retired or pensioned and they find that they can make a go of it by getting a home with land sufficiently to raise fruit and vegetables as well as flowers and shrubs. The taxes here are very small, for example on twelve acres fronting on a highway having a house and barns, I pay about eight dollars a year land taxes.

I KNOW what taxes are up north and the cost of living and I also know that many pensioned people are having quite a struggle making ends meet and with this in mind I have arranged so that I can provide homes, with two bedrooms, for around six to seven thousand dollars on a black top highway about three and a half miles from Fayetteville, providing city water, natural gas and electricity. With our short winters the heating cost is considerably less than up north.

The City of Fayetteville is the site of our state university with a population of seventeen thousand. There are no large factories here and it is a very clean city. It is set on many hills, in fact Mount Sequoia is a part of the city and on the top the Methodist assembly have many large buildings. This brings to mind that there are more churches here than I have seen elsewhere and the people very religious. We can get quite a few television stations which include the CBS, Mutual and other chains, thereby giving us fine television entertainment.

SOME PEOPLE enjoy living in the mountains while others prefer level country. I can provide a home to suit their wishes. Would like to add that the scenery is very beautiful wherever one may live. The locale of the Shepherd of the Hills novel is but a few miles south of us and in the heart of the Boston Mountains. There are many beautiful scenic drives and places to see and enjoy. One's neighbors are not too close and there is no over crowding unless one lives in the city. We much prefer the country and the mountains.

I have gone into the building business because I feel I really can help those on pensions live within their means and make a real home for themselves and with this in mind I have gone into the building business instead of raising turkeys. I would like others to enjoy this great country as we do and experience a new sense of freedom and happiness.

I was elected Justice of the Peace last fall and feel back in the harness again.

Stand Up and Be Counted

Regarding Mr. Bishop's letter of last week, it would be of widespread interest in Arlington Heights to know some facts: Was the reference to "tactics used a year ago in the high school election" intended to reflect upon a candidate of the Civic Service Party for trustee, or was it directed at his Party's candidates, namely, Mr. McNeill and Mr. Johnson, who also were very active participants in the Committee of 100?

Mr. Bishop did not mention one mis-statement of facts, he only said he counted ten. I would remind him that the undersigned attended the special "rigged" meeting of the village board March 28, called for the purpose of releasing a financial statement purported to give an analysis of village finances. At that time I spelled it out, and again I repeat what we mean by being "financially embarrassed."

The village board reported in a statement issued by Mr. Bishop in the March 10 issue of this newspaper, that they will end the year with a "safety factor" of some $13,000 in the general fund. This purported to elude to the sound financial position of the Village's general "operating" fund.

The facts are as follows: Two years ago, when this present village board took office, we had $25,000 in this general fund with no liabilities. Now, they say we will end this year with a "healthy" balance of $13,000. They did not tell us that in January, 1955, they borrowed $30,000 which must be repaid from the first tax money collected in 1955 (that is a liability). They did not say that the projected surplus would have been zero if they had not hastily shifted $12,734 from the water fund to pay administrative salaries, which have always before been paid out of the general fund. That's like taking money from the "piggybank" at home to pay current household bills isn't it? Adding the liabilities to the cash on hand two years ago, when Mr. Bishop and this present board of trustees took over, shows that we are now $50,000 worse off than we were then.

I, too, would be willing to talk to any person or group of persons, preferably in the presence of Mr. Bishop, either before or after election, relative to questions about the affairs of the village. And I am sure many will then agree that it's time for a change.

Forrest F. Davis.

Rolling Meadows

We are the members of the incorporation committee of the home owners' association in Rolling Meadows. Last week the Civic Progress party distributed a letter to the residents of Rolling Meadows. This letter claimed that Kimball Hill had stated in a private meeting with some of their candidates that the incorporation committee had assured him smaller lot sizes would be allowed by the city.

For the benefit of those not present at a meeting held by that political party last Friday we should like to state Kimball Hill appeared at the meeting and publicly stated no such assurances had been given him by this committee. Speaking for ourselves, none of us gave Kimball Hill any such assurance, nor could we.

It is obvious that we individually, or as a committee, could not give any assurances to anyone on a matter that can only be decided by a city council. At the time these assurances are alleged to have been given we could have no idea who all of the candidates would be, much less who would be elected to the city council. As a matter of fact, the mayoral candidate of the Civic Progress party admitted the only ones who could determine the size of lots in the city would be the city council.

ANOTHER ERRONEOUS statement contained in the letter was that Kimball Hill only allowed his property south of Kirchhoff road to be included in the city because he had received assurance of smaller lot sizes. This would indicate Mr. Hill had a voice in the selection of the area to be included in the city.

This is not true! Kimball Hill did not select the boundaries of the city of Rolling Meadows! The area to be included (including Arlington Crest) was decided upon by the whole board of directors of the home owners' association, of which Fred Schultz was a member.

The above facts can be verified by speaking to anyone who attended the meeting of last Friday. As members of the committee who worked only for the best interests of the community we feel we do not deserve to be drawn into a public controversy for political purposes and that it was most unfair of this group to do so.

Rise Midwest Farm Values Traced To Income, Credit

What's behind the recent boost in value of Midwest farm land? Writing in its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago lists three major reasons for the increased demand for good farm land in this area:

Corn belt farm income halted its decline and began leveling off about a year ago. Such income changes usually take at least six months before they affect the value of farm real estate.

MORE BUYERS were able to enter the market as both interest rates and down payment requirements declined. Mortgage terms are becoming increasingly important to farmers since more and more of them are relying on credit to acquire land.

Returns on alternative investments, such as stocks and bonds, have decreased during the past year. Consequently the more stable returns from farm land in this area look relatively better than they did a year ago.

IN SHARP CONTRAST to the midwest farm real estate values in the sout and southwestern part in the south and southwestern part of the United States have continued to decline. Chief causes is shriveled incomes due to persistent drouth and acreage cutbacks in cotton and wheat. Moreover, land values in the West have declined as much as 15 per cent from their 1952 high as a result of the big drop in cattle prices.

On the other hand, the value of midwest farm land recently reversed its trend—after declining for about two years—and is now 2 to 3 per cent above mid-1954. Almost all areas of the seventh reserve district shared in the gain as farm income was buoyed up by last year's vigorous market for hogs and soybeans and a near-record production of farm commodities. The strong market for fed cattle late in 1954 also helped bolster the income picture.

SOUTHERN IOWA was the only district area which failed to show a land-value gain. Here drouth cut sharply into farm income. The value of dairy land in the Midwest, however, increased slightly despite a further reduction in cash receipts of dairy farmers.

Contributing to the price strength of Midwest farm land has been the limited number of farms offered for sale and the desire of farmers to enlarge the size of their farms. Since 1952 about 30 per cent of total farm sales have been for farm enlargement. This active demand for an additional "forty," the bank says, is likely to continue for some time.

KEY to the farmer's desire for a larger farm is the bigger fraction of his expenditures which now goes into farm machinery. Large machinery investment in many cases means that additional land can be absorbed without stepping up outlays for labor or equipment. Thus, production costs per unit of output tend to decrease as the size of farms goes up.

Farm Women Plan Active Participation In Farm Affairs

Fifteen Illinois farm women, members of the newly-formed women's committee of the Illinois agricultural association, gathered in Chicago Tuesday for their first meeting.

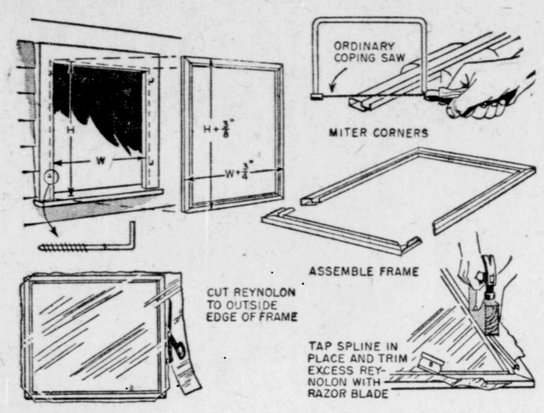
The purpose of the committee, as expressed unanimously by its members, is to bolster participation by women in the program of the farm bureau organization.

The ladies agreed their goal would be increased interest among all members of the farm family in legislative and public relations functions of farm bureau. This is in keeping, they said, with the philosophy of the organization as a united voice for the entire farm family.

Mrs. Harold Bergman of Palatine is a member of the group.

Plastic Sheeting in Frames Cover Stock Barn Window

Low-cost window coverings for poultry and stock buildings are easy to make with Do-It-Yourself aluminum frames and plastic sheeting. For example, a 3'x3' frame and transparent covering for farm building windows costs about $3. Rolled aluminum framing comes with spline for locking plastic sheet in place. You'll never need to paint aluminum frames either.



Simplest method is to cover opening with frame on outside of window casing. Hold frame in place with L-shaped screws, and in summer remove frames completely for ventilation.

Miter sections to outside dimensions of frame and join with corner locks. Cut Reynolon plastic film to size of outside frame and lock in grooves with spline. Complete instructions come with aluminum sections.

Reynolds Do-It-Yourself aluminum is available from your local hardware store or lumber dealer.

CARL F. MEES

I feel each week I do not want to bother you with reading material that may not be of interest. However, when we talk of health we should all be interested.

Proviso high school, Maywood, started using ½ of their milk supply in 1/3 quart containers, Monday, March 28. By Thursday they were using 90% of their milk in the 1/3 quarts. They wanted to go to 1/3 quarts entirely because the student body liked them so much better.

They are still using 10% half-pints because we like to have the choice to offer the students. The student body is using 36% more milk. Similar results have been noted at Carl Sandberg high school in the south part of the county.

ONE INTERESTING thing was noted in the program. The students eating in the early shifts took all the third quarts containers and those eating in the later shifts had to take the half pints. The later shift students were not happy about this. If the students want this additional milk, I wonder why we haven't given it to them before?

This has been an interesting project. I think the results that have been accomplished will be of interest to many schools.

Probably many of you wonder why we haven't tried it in some of the schools in this area. I was all set at one time to try it with Supt. Clabough and Supt. Slichenmyer in the Arlington Heights schools, only to find the milk supplier did not bottle 1/3 quarts, However, most dairies will not find it too difficult to provide equipment to bottle the 1/3 quarts if the school demands them to do so.

LAST MONDAY evening a group of vegetable growers met at the farm bureau building to discuss the possibility of marketing co-operatively. They decided we must keep up with the changing times and market our vegetables the way the housewife wants them, for she is the ultimate buyer.

A lot of interest was developed at the meeting. A committee was set up to further study the possibilities of organizing such a co-op.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the farm bureau office at Arlington Heights Monday, April 11, at 8 p.m. If you grow vetetables, it will be to your interest to meet with the group.

WOULD YOU LIKE to save 20 days of working time and $40 in hospital expenses this year? You can do it by eliminating farm accidents.

You can take the first big step right now by servicing your machinery and adjusting it early for spring work.

Tractors are the worst offenders in causing farm accidents. When you use your tractor make sure to stop it before you get off and be sure it's out of gear before you start it.

The main safety rule for operating any farm machinery is just to use good common sense.

Should Use Heat Lamps For Clean, Cheap Chick Brooding

Many Illinois poultrymen are using electric heat lamps to keep their baby chicks warm.

F. W. Andrew says one advantage of heat lamps is that it's easy to keep the brooder house clean when you use them. Andrew is an agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

You don't have any ashes or fuel waste to carry out if you use electricity. You don't have to carry any fuel in either. The electric wires take care of that for you.

CHICKS AREN'T hidden under a hover when you use heat lamps, so you can keep a close eye on them. And you can use the same bulbs to keep little pigs warm when you're not using them for chicks.

Heat lamps are low cost and easy to use. Three lamps in a reflector until will keep about 100 chicks comfortable.

Good; sound wiring will help to prevent power failures. Many poultrymen use an alarm system that rings at the house in case the power goes off.

Provide good insulation—especially on the floor. Make sure all power connections are tight. Watch the chicks, and add more heat if they don't seem to be warm enough.

Pole Type Barn Offers Economy

A new plan for a pole-type barn, low cost and efficient, may be obtained free. It requires a minimum of building material because of the special poles used as supports. No concrete footing or floor is necessary.

Outstanding feature of this project is the rust-proof, long-wearing Masonite Tempered Presdwood panels used for the roof and ends, as well as the large siding doors. The barn is designed to keep sawing and fitting at a minimum. The Masonite panels, being true-cut to size, always fit.

Built at the expenditure of a minimum man-hours, the pole-type barn may be used for various purposes, as the interior may be partitioned for any farm requirement. If desired, a milking parlor can be added within the barn or as an addition.

To obtain a copy of this free plan, write Farm Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., requesting Plan No. AFB-212.

Soil Conservationists Told Of Lower State Water Table

The North Cook soil conservation district was well represented at the 1st annual northeast land council meeting at the Riley Grange hall, 3 miles south of Marengo March 16.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hattendorf, Hanover township; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rohlwing, Werner Kastning and Harvey Pohlman, Schaumburg township; Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Schmid, Barrington township; and Elmer Bittner, Palatine township. Also present was Maurice M. Umbdenstock, soil conservation technician.

Willard Cook, president of the Illinois association of soil conservation districts, reported on the water survey for Illinois. The water table is being lowered, much more water per person is being used, and the increased industrial use makes one realize more than ever something must be done to hold as much water as possible on the land where it balls.

WENDELL ROLSTON of Hampshire told of his experience in Germany where he helped on the "Heifer Project." The heifer project is where 1st calf heifers are distributed to qualified refugee farmers. He stated conservation work here is nothing compared to what they are doing in Germany. He also stated next to the conserving of human lives, the conservation of natural resources is a close second on the list of importance.

Dr. Russell T. O'Dell, professor of soil physics of the University of Illinois, discussed the use of the soil survey map as the tool in which to base tax rates on land and be fair to everyone. This takes into consideration the type of soil, amount of erosion and the slope. From this the productivitiy rating of any piece of land can be evaluated and be the same all over. This way everyone will be taxed fairly.

MRS. BYERRUM, from Du Page county, past president of American women's federation of soil conservation, talked to the ladies.

Mrs. Wendell Rolston, showed slides on how the farmers work in Germany with 1 cow and 1 horse to pull their implements, etc. She also told how they work together to help each other.

Mrs. Byerrum explained how soil conservation practices tie in very close with the water we drink and food we eat. Also how wildlife, wood products and clothing are products that result from soil conservation practices. You don't stop to think how important it is until you turn on the tap for a drink and there is no water. That is the time when you wonder where it comes from.

New Booklet Discusses Social Security, How It Affects Farmers

Social security for farm families, how it works and what farmers need to do about it are explained in a booklet just issued under the joint sponsorship of the internal revenue service and the social security administration. It is now being mailed to every rural and star route boxholder in Cook county, it was announced by Julius Berman, district manager of the northwest district social security office, and E. J. Sauber, district director, Internal Revenue, Northern Illinois.

This booklet is directed to the self-employed farmer, farm employers, and farm workers — approximately 5½ million in all — who were brought under social security on January 1. The purpose of the publication is to acquaint them with their benefits and tax obligations under the old-age and survivors insurance program. The mailing to rural boxholders in this area is part of a nationwide distribution to farm people. Those farmers who did not receive a copy through this mailing may obtain one from the district director of internal revenue or from the nearest social security office.

THE BOOKLET stresses the need for self-employed farmers and hired farm workers to apply for a social security account card if they do not already have one; it also points out to the farm operator who employs workers that he should secure an agricultural employer's identification number. Examples are given of the monthly benefit peyments for themselves and their families toward which farmers are now building under the old-age and survivors insurance program.

One section of the booklet is devoted to explanations of how and when a farm operator must report his own and his workers' farm earnings. The farm operator will report his earnings from self-employment on the same return on which he reports Federal income tax. He will pay self-employment tax for each taxable year ending after 1954 in which his net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more. If the farm operator reports his income tax on a calendar year basis, his first report and payment of self-employment tax will be made for the calendar year 1955, and will be due not later than April 15, 1956.

IF A FARM operator has a worker to whom he expects to pay at least $100 in cash wages during 1955, he is advised in the booklet to keep a record of the name, social security account number, and amount of wages paid to the worker. The farm employer, moreover, is told that he should deduct two per cent social security tax from all cash wages paid to each such employee. As the employer, he must contribute an equal amount, report the wages, and pay the total social security of four per cent to the district director of internal revenue.

The booklet includes an application form which employers of farm workers may send to the district director in order to obtain further instructions, tax return forms, and an employer's identification number.

New Poultry House Lighting Is Advocated on New Jersey Farms

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

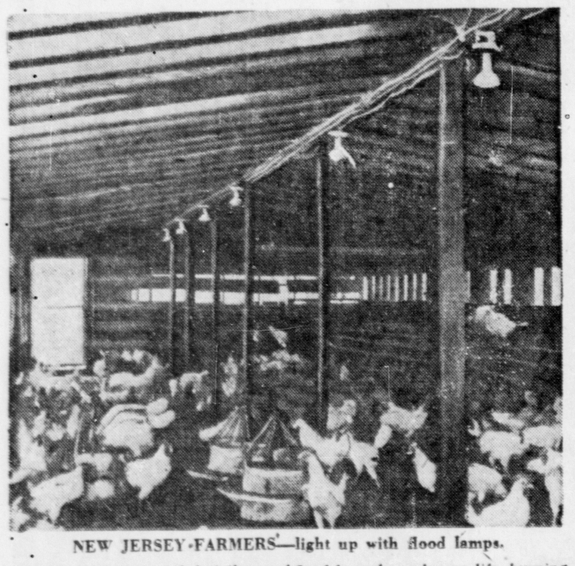
If results elsewhere prove as successful as they have in southern New Jersey, it looks as if present poultry house lighting recommendations are due for some changes.

Lights still will be controlled by time switches to operate on schedules previously adopted, but the use of 40-watt lamps in cone shape reflectors may give way to type R-30, 75-watt flood lamps. Here's the story: standard recommendations call for 40-watt lamps to be hung 6 feet above the floor on the basis of one for every 200 square feet of floor area. New Jersey poultrymen found that these suggestions worked fine as long as the reflectors were clean and there was enough lights to adequately illuminate feeding and watering areas, as well as perches.

But when dust accumulated on the reflectors, they discovered that poultry houses went into involuntary dim-outs and that chickens refused to come down from their dark perches at night. The result was lower egg production. Also, these Jersey farmers are of the opinion that the 40-watt lamps do not provide enough light when installed as recommended. They advocate that illumination levels be raised to 3 to 5 foot candles, rather than follow present suggestions of eight-tenths to 1 foot candle.

The poultrymen presented their problems to their power suppliers and considerable experimentation and study were conducted before the flood lamps were accepted. This type of lamp is available from nearly all light bulb manufacturers. It has silvered sides, coated with aluminum. Although its first cost is higher, the flood lamp has a longer life, burning approximately 2,000 hours as compared with 750 hours for comparable Mazda bulbs. The lamp has a built-in reflector so dust and dirt have little adverse effect on its lighting qualities. This eliminates the extra work of cleaning reflectors. Properly located, such lamps will meet the new suggested higher illumination levels.

Because of their higher wattage, the R (for reflector) 30, 75-watt lamps may or may not increase lighting costs. This depends on the number needed to do a satisfactory illumination job. Costs of operation, however, are only relative—it's the benefits obtained in extra income and less work that count. For example, one test case in New Jersey showed that, although a farmer paid 37½ cents more per month for his electricity with flood lamps, his egg production increased 6%, adding $18.75 to his monthly gross income.



NEW JERSEY FARMERS—light up with flood lamps.

Hog Prices Are Bouncing Back

Hog prices are bouncing back. A comeback is expected in the hog market according to National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock publication. This could mean higher prices for pork!

H. M. Conway, director of research for the magazine, says prospective conditions are shaping up to justify holding the late fall pig crop for marketing during May and June.

It is very difficult to justify the late winter and early spring high market in view of the over-all supply of meat and the ability of consumers to buy, says the magazine.

THERE HAS BEEN a moderate increase in hob supplies which in part accounts for the lower level of prices compared with a year ago. However, there has been no general price deflation and no basic reduction in demand.

Aside from the increase in supply, the low hog market can be attributed to restrictions in retail distribution.

The lag in retail price adjustments which is necessary to maintain a normal flow of pork into consumption has been responsible for much restriction in consumer demand. This lag normally characterizes any downward adjustment of prices in line with supply. A check of retail prices shows that there has been only a moderate decline to consumers as compared with a year ago.

THIS RELATIVELY high price of pork has helped maintain the extreme demand for beef as retailers in general have been inclined to hold pork prices up in line with competitive cuts of beef.

This maladjustment in retail prices has been accompanied by a general tendency to market the fall pig crop earlier than usual. The supply has been quite generally bunched for March and April. The magazine says this means a relative shortage during the late spring, which will be followed by the usual seasonal curtailment during early summer.

Liquid Grain Protectant Is Developed

A liquid grain protectant has been developed to arm the wheat farmer against grain infestation, Donald A. Wilbur, professor of entomology at Kansas State college, reported.

Developed after five years' research, the protectant may supply the answer to the grain infestation problem at the farm level. This protectant is applied in the form of a wet spray, and is devised to kill or repel grain storage insects.

Wilbur evaluates the protectant as particularly effective against the cadelle beetle, the saw-tooth grain beetle, flat grain beetle and some of the other grain insects that annually destroy millions of bushels of wheat.

HE BASES his conclusions on the performance of the product in a comprehensive test program conducted on wheat farms in Harvey county, Kansas, which was initiated in 1952. In the final stage last year the program embraced eighty-three bins on some thirty farms, the bins averaging about 800 bushels each.

Wilbur said the best results were obtained by applying the spray at the rate of two gallons to each thousand bushels of wheat. This will cost the farmer about 2½ cents to the bushel.

Through experimentation, Wilbur arrived also at the most practical form of hand spray, a narrow mouth quart jar calibrated to show how much of the protectant is being applied.

When the protectant is sprayed on grain in storage, much of the liquid evaporates, leaving only a small deposit of a toxicant used in many food processing plants. The newly developed product in no way affects germination of the treated wheat.

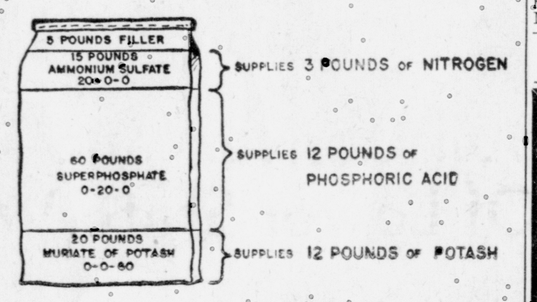
Should Test Soil First, Use Correct Fertilizer



This is the time of year when home owners turn their attention to that portion of their homes that extends beyond the walls of the house and the utilization of the opportunities for outdoor living. The key to success of having this area of the home beautiful, attractive and productive remains with the capacity of the soil to produce regardless of the energies extended on the part of the owner says John Bicket, assistant farm adviser.

There is no magic in either mixed fertilizers or single fertilizers. Their value depends on the kinds and amounts of plant food they contain.

LET'S TAKE a look at the materials that go into a bag of mixed fertilizer:

100 pounds of 3-12-12 can be made up of the following;

5 pounds of filler or conditioner.

15 pounds of ammonium sulphate that supplies 3 pounds of nitrogen.

60 pounds of phosphate that supplies 12 pounds of phosphoric acid.

20 ounds of muriate of potash (60 per cent) that supplies 12 pounds of potash.

The Illinois fertilizer law specifies that the guaranteed analysis of fertilizer shall be expressed in minimum percentages of nitrogen, available phosphoric acid and water-soluble potash. For example, 3-12-12 contains 3 per cent of total nitrogen, 12 per cent of phosphoric acid and 12 per cent of potash.

MIXED FERTILIZERS are often called balanced fertilizers. But the term balanced is misleading. Both soils and crops vary so much in their needs that the common mixed fertilizers are not balanced for either the soils or the crops. The amount of plant food you put on will depend on the amount that is already available in the soil.

Here is where the soil tests come in. They tell you how much limestone, phosphorus and potash you already have in your soil and how much you need. The only way to balance fertility is to test your soil for lime, phosphorus and potassium and supply the amounts called for by the test.

YOU CAN HAVE soil tests run by turning, in a representative sample to the farm bureau office, 201 E. Dunton. The cost of this service is $1.00 per sample.

A registered Guernsey cow, Riverdale May's Lorelei, owned by Buren R. Anderson & Son, Palatine, produced 10,245 pounds of milk and 511 pounds of fat. This production represents approximately 4883 quarts of high-quality milk. "Lorelei" was a six year-old and was milked two times daily for 305 days, while on test, and met calving requirements.

"Lorelei" is the daughter of the outstanding Guernsey sire, Fairmount Master's Duke, that has 13 tested daughters in the performance register of the American Guernsey cattle club.

Ground Feed

A University of Illinois agricultural engineer says an electric blower and some sheet steel pipe will take the back strain out of carting ground feed long distances on your farm.

Export Gain Seen In 1955

Additional export gains are in store for U.S. producers in 1955, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago observes in its monthly review, "Business Conditions." This is especially important for midwest firms since more than one-fourth of all industrial goods the U.S. sends overseas is produced here. A significant proportion of the nation's farm exports also comes from the Midwest.

Increased demand for U.S. merchandise by foreign countries last year reversed a two-year decline that had set in after 1951. Merchandise exports in 1954, excluding military shipments, totaled 12.8 billion dollars—3 per cent over the previous year.

CHIEF REASON for the current uptrend in exports is the very high level of business activity in other countries. What's more, the bank says, prospects are bright for continued good business abroad through 1955.

The encouraging outlook for exports also hinges in part on the high level of gold and U.S. dollar reserves that foreign nations have accumulated. Such reserves, built up to meet temporary trade imbalances of these countries, now appear to be reaching more adequate levels. As a result, the bank points out, a smaller proportion of their future dollar earnings may be set aside to swell reserves. This in turn would make available more funds for purchasing U.S. exports.

Elk Grove Home Bureau Has Lesson On Wills And Inheritance

Elk Grove unit of Cook county Home bureau met March 23, at the home of Mrs. Charles Leclerc, Prospect Heights. A dessert luncheon was served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. I. Boettcher, Mrs. J. Wetterman, and Mrs. E. Wille.

The lesson on "Wills and Inheritance Laws in Illinois" was given by home advisor, Mrs. C. Upham.

The next basket lesson will be given at the home of Mrs. A. W. Busse April 14 at 10 a.m.

A bus tour of "Chicago by Day" has been planned by the committee chairman, Mrs. J. Wetterman, Mrs. W. Busse and Mrs. M. Cramer. The group will meet at Mount prospect depot April 20 and board the 8:48 train. The Greyline bus will meet the group at Northwestern station to begin the tour at 10 a.m. Members interested may call CLearbrook 3-5226 for reservations.

The unit has planned a craft day, on the regular meeting day, April 27, to be held in the Farm Bureau office basement, Dunton st., Arlington Heights, from 10 a. m. to 4 p.m. The craft lessons will be on copper enameling by local leader, Mrs. W. Busse; handbag lesson by local leaders, Mrs. N. Foss and Mrs. Von Bergen and the tooth brush rug lesson given by Mrs. J. Oltrogge and Mrs. A. Deeke.

Mrs. E. Linneman has been elected to the Cook county executive board as ways and means chairman.

At the regular meeting in May, the Up and Doing 4-H club will hold a bake sale at the home of Mrs. Edwin Deeke.

The 4-H Corner

List Prizes Offered In 4-H Electric Program

A 1955 4-H program in which northern Illinois agriculture and home economics club members can aim for two $200 scholarships and 92 camp trips was announced today by John Bicket, Cook county assistant farm adivser.

The competition, called the Northern Illinois 4-H electric program is sponsored by the Public Service company and is open to all club members in 23 northern Illinois counties including Cook county. Two agricultural club members and two home economics club members from each of the 23 counties participating will be awarded camp trips. All winners will be selected from the blue award group and blue ribbons will be presented to members of the blue award group.

ACCORDING to John Bicket, 4-H'ers can enter the program by using electricity in any or all phases of their regular Ag or home economics projects and then making a report in the official 4-H electric program folder which can be obtained from local club leaders. Entries in the 4-H electric program will be judged by county and 4-H extension officials on the basis of the 4-H'ers general record, his individual work with electricity, and his group work with electricity.

Pointing out that the goal of the 4-H electric program is the development and adoption of more efficient and more profitable methods of doing farm and home that anyone who participates in the program will benefit through learning how to use electricity to simplify farm and home chores, to produce better farm products.

"Folders describing the Northern Illinois 4-H Electric Program will be in the hands of club leaders about the middle of April," Mr. Bicket concluded.

Up And Doing Has April Fool Club

The fifth meeting and combination April Fool Day party was held at the home of Kathy Sibilski Elk Grove, March 29 at 7 p.m.

Judy Moehling gave a talk on, "How to Give A Demonstration." Theona Popp on "How to Make Caramel Candy." Carol Moehling on, "Cooking Utensils."

Cheryll Garlisch gave a demonstration on, "Toothpick Lapel Pins." Laura Lee Scharringhausen on, "Artificial Flowers."

Games were played and refreshments were served.

Easter Animals On Farm TV Show

Traditional Easter animals will be featured on "Farmtown, U.S.A.," Sunday, April 10, as farmers and 4-H members from Iroquois county visit George Menard, master of ceremonies for the half-hour show.

Various sizes of rabbits, chickens, and ducklings will occupy the "Farmtown" spotlight at 2 p.m. Sunday on WBBM-TV, channel 2.

Paul Stam, who operates a farm near Watseka, will show three breeds of rabbits which he raises for show purposes and for meat production. Among his champion rabbits will be New Zealand Reds, New Zealand Whites, and California breeds.

Tells How To Enroll In 4-H Program Here

"During the past few weeks I have had several requests for information on 4-H club work." says John H. Bicket, assistant farm adviser. These requests have come from boys and girls wanting to know how they can enroll and from parents wanting general information on the value of the 4-H program.

There are three ways a new member can enroll in a local club.

1. Contact a present 4-H club member.
2. Contact a 4-H club leader in your community.
3. Contact the county extension service at the farm bureau office.

4-H CLUBS are now in the midst of a membership drive, for they recognize the value of the program and feel a responsibility to make the program available to others.

The value of the 4-H program is embodied in its desire and success in developing young people into forthright dependable citizens, capable of assuming their place in the community for present and future betterment.

From this you can see the value of the individual and the development of the individual is important and the many projects and activities are only a means to accomplish this end.

Future Homes 4-H Nominates Officers

Future Homes 4-H club held the first of its summer meetings. It was held at the home of the leader Mrs. Foss and was a special meeting to which mothers were invited.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Bernice Ffluger. Old and new business was taken care of. Nominations for officers were held. Pat Krause was nominated for president; Vern Krause, vice president; Lois Von Bergen, secretary; Pat Wuestenfal, treasurer; Bernice Pfluger, reporter; Susan Kappa, program chairman; and Sherry De Palma, recreation chairman.

Mrs. Foss explained requirements of the first year girls taking clothing. She also explained hints to help all the girls in their clothing projects.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served.

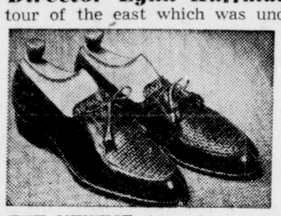
World's largest bronze panel of our Lord's Last Supper officially dedicated in pre-Easter ceremony at Memory Gardens. Rand rd. at Euclid ave., Arlington Heights. Purchased for Memory Gardens by William J. Pailey, the more than 2-ton Leonardo Da Vinci immortalization has been placed at the main drive for public display. Brought here from the Fonderia Artistria Casting Foundry in Firzene, Italy, the bas relief is approximately 15 feet in length and almost 7 feet in height.



THE NEWEST thing this spring is the woven leather shoe, shown here in a two-eyelet tasseled moccasin which has a red and gray vamp inset on a charcoal shoe. It also comes in black and white and brown and white woven leather.

HATS for leisure wear feature light weight comfort and masculine color touches. This soft finish felt has a heather tone background enlivened by a multi-colored band.

Mary Ann Martin Weds James T. Brown Jr.

(Lohmiller Studio

Friends and relatives of James Theodore Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Brown, 102 N. Wille st., Mount Prospect, travelled to Watseka March 26 for his marriage to Miss Ann Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davidson Martin of that city. The 4 p.m. ceremony took place in First Presbyterian church with the Rev. Richard L. Harter, pastor of the Watseka church, officiating.

Miss Grace Burnham of Watseka played the organ and Miss Carolyn Ainsworth, also of Watseka, sang, "Through The Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her marriage, the bride wore a gown of white silk shantung fashioned with scoop neckline which went to a deep V in back edged with tiny pearls, fitted bodice, empire waistline and a floor-length gathered skirt. Her headpiece was a white lace cap with scalloped edges with pearls and rhinestones and her veil was shoulder-length. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Linda Martin served as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Kay of Chicago, Marlene Brown, sister of the groom, Margaret Fay of Watseka and Marcia Bell of Watseka. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Susan Smit of Watseka. The bridesmaids wore ballerina length gowns of yellow taffeta made with tucked bodices, princess waistlines and full gored skirts. Their headpieces were bands of leaves in yellow taffeta and they carried bouquets of white daisies. The maid of honor had yellow daisies added to her bouquet. A floor-length gown of wite dotted swiss over yellow taffeta was worn by the junior bridesmaid and her bouquet was also of white daisies.

Pvt. Ray Huffman of Arlington Heights was best man to the groom and ushers were the bride's brother Michael Martin, Lt. Edward Grosse and Kenneth Lee of Chicago and the bride's cousin, Robert Evans of Arlington Heights.

A reception was held at the Elks' club where Mrs. Martin received in a dress of taupe faille with pink accessories and pink camellia corsage and the groom's mother in powder blue shantung with matching accessories and a corsage of pink tea roses.

The new Mrs. Brown attended Lawrence college in Appleton, Wis. for 2 years and was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The groom was graduated in 1950 from Arlington Heights township high school and was graduated in 1954 from Lawrence college. He was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

After a honeymoon in New York city, Mrs. Brown and his bride will reside in Chicago where the bridegroom is a freshman at the University of Illinois medical school. The bride is employed in the advertising department of Curtis Publishing Co.

Favorites for Flavor

An appetizing spring luncheon menu, complete with three excellent recipes, is our feature this week.

They have been shared with us by an expert cook, Mrs. M. W. Passmore, who collects recipes as a hobby. The Passmores have moved around quite a bit, and love of cooking has prompted Mrs. Passmore to accumulate recipes from all parts of the country.

The main feature is a Baked Sandwich "Souffle," prepared in a large pan. It consists of bread slices topped by grated cheddar cheese, ground ham and another layer of bread. An egg mixture (which is seasoned with chopped onion and dry mustard) changes the composition of this giant sandwich into a souffle.

An attractive feature is that this dish is made the day before it is to be served. Baked for an hour, it is cut in squares and served with a mushroom sauce.

Ginger Ale Salad consists of ingredients complimentary to the souffle, and is slightly tart flavor make it an excellent accompaniment to the main dish.

To top off the luncheon Mrs. Passmore suggests Soda Cracker Torte, a dessert which is easy to make, attractive in appearance and delicious.

It contains chopped dates and nutmeats, is chewy in consistency, and is served garnished with whipped cream and a cherry.

The Passmores moved to their home at 610 S. Evergreen over two years ago. They have three sons, Richard, 13, John, 10, and Billy, 7.

Baked Sandwich "Souffle"

Butter large pan, 9 by 13 inches. Cut crusts from 12 slices white bread. Lay six in bottom of buttered pan. Cover with:

1 cup grated cheddar cheese
2 cups ground ham (canned luncheon meat may be used)

Butter remaining six slices of bread and place on top of mixture butter side up. Set aside.

Beat:
Add:
3 cups milk
1 tablespoon chopped onion
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon salt

Pour over bread. Let stand in refrigerator overnight.

Bake next day for one hour in 300 degree oven.
to brown before serving, Cut in squares and serve with mushroom sauce.

4 tablespoons butter
2 tabespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 can sliced mushrooms
Salt and pepper

Melt butter, stir in flour and gradually add milk. Add mushrooms and seasoning. (The sauce may be prepared by heating one can mushroom soup and diluting to cream sauce consistency with milk.)

Serves 10 generously.

Ginger Ale Salad

1 package lemon jello
1 cup boiling water
1 cup ginger ale
1 cup diced apple
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup diced pineapple

Dissolve jello in boiling water. Add ginger ale. When slightly thickened, stir in celery and fruit. Serves 6.

Soda Cracker Torte

3 egg whites
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup sugar
12 single soda crackers, rolled fine
½ cup chopped nutmeats
1 cup chopped dates
½ teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg whites with baking powder until stiff. Gradually beat in sugar.

Fold in the soda crackers and add nuts, dates and vanilla.

Put in well-buttered, 8-inch pie tin and bake at 350 degrees for one-half hour. Serve with whipped cream and a cherry. Serves 6.

Phoebe Ann Ellis Weds Robert W. Smedley

(Community Camera

Before the altar at the Methodist church of Arlington Heights, which was framed with a background of a rhododendron trees, composed of pink carnations and rhododendron leaves and a fern sunburst of emerald leaves, Phoebe Ann Ellis and Robert William Smedley were united in marriage Saturday at 8 p.m. The wedding vows for the single-ring ceremony were read by the bride's uncle, the Rev. Irving M. Ellis of Knoxville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erle M. Ellis of Arlington Heights and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Smedley of Denver.

In addition to the altar background of greenery and pink, altar vases were filled with pink snapdragons and carnations. Six pairs of 7-branch candelabra entwined with smilax were also placed on the altar. The aisles were marked with cathedral candles of pink and pink satin ribbons and garlands of smilax leaves marked the pews. Fan arrangements in the church windows were made of emerald greens.

Miss Judy Walters of Arlington Heights played nuptial music and accompanied Robert Edwards of Deerfield who sang, "Calm as the Night," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Ellis escorted his daughter to the altar. The bride's gown was of imported silk, waltz length, the bodice of which was encrusted with pink seed pearls and crystals on embroidered Venetian lace. The long torso type gown with miniature waistline had a scooped neck, short cap sleeves and hooped skirt. She also wore short white kid gloves and a single strand of pearls.

The bride's finger-tip veil fell from a lace cap which matched the imported lace in her gown, and a small nosegay of lily-of-the valley and roses was attached to the back of the veil. For her bridal bouquet she chose a cascade of lily-of-the-valley and light-pink Hildegard roses with ivy.

Her attendants were Miss Harriet Early of Denver, maid of honor; Miss Joan Ellis of Knoxville, Miss Celia Ann Close of Arlington Heights and Mrs. James Brewer of River Forest, bridesmaids. All wore identical white nylon gowns, with coral-pink chiffon and white sashes. Their dresses were styled with single-ribbed nylon bodices, short sleeves, squared necks and full pleated skirts. They also wore short white kid gloves and single strand pearls. Their crownless hats were made of sweetheart pink Garnette roses, feather-white carnations and smilax. Their identical cascade bouquets were of pink Delighte roses, white carnations, smilax and lemon leaves.

Dr. John Smedley of Denver, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man and guests were seated by Robert Ellis, the bride's brother of Arlington Heights, William Campbell of Toledo, Dr. Robert England of Chicago and Milton Fischer, also of Chicago.

Mrs. Ellis chose for her daughter's wedding, a mauve lace and satin net gown with satin cords through the bodice. The dress was also styled with the long torso lines and the lace and satin net skirt was flared. Her hat was a flat crownless wreath of flowers matching the dress and she wore light pink kid gloves and matching slippers. Her over-the shoulder corsage was a feathered-narrow strand of pink carnations.

Mrs. Smedley's gown was of turquoise chiffon and lace, and she wore matching slippers and short kid gloves. She chose a flowered matching brim hat to complete her accessories. Her corsage was also an over the-shoulder style composed of a feathered narrow strand of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a light buffet supper was served at the Pantry in Park Ridge for 300 guests.

After a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the couple will be at home in Denver at 1661 Uinta May 1.

The bride is a graduate of Arlington township high school and attended Colorado Woman's college, Denver, and received her degree from Michigan State college, East Lansing. Mr. Smedly attended the University of Colorado Columbia university, New York, and has his law degree from the University of Denver law school. He is a practicing attorney in Denver and his bride is district director if the girl scouts in that city.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Fort Smith, Ark., Toledo, Sandusky, Hamilton, Urbana and Columbus, Ohio.

Pi Phi Alumnae To Hold Cookie Drive

Pi Beta Phi alumnae club of Arlington Heights will hold its next monthly meeting April 13 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. B. Fullerton, 300 Bristol lane, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Harrison Kennicott and Mrs. Charles M. Mills will serve as co-hostesses.

The program will be the annual cookie drive in honor of founders day and Pi Phi's first president, Emma Brownlee Kilgore. All Pi Phis in the area are wecome and anyone desiring transportation may call CLearbrook 3-7546.

This year again, from April 1 to April 25, the Bramson gallery in Evanston is exhibiting paintings done by members of the Junior Red Cross in the north and northwest suburban schools.

These paintings in the Bramson exhibit may, later in the year, be part of an exhibition in Italy, Australia, Canada, or any one of the 62 nations that are part of the League of Red Cross societies that handles the distribution of these pictures.

The response has increased each year since 1947 when the program started. More than 6,000 paintings have come to the United States from 23 countries, and about 35,000 have been sent to 31 countries and territories.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

Junior Woman's Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club will be held Monday, at 8 p.m. at the community Barn on Kirchhoff rd. An especially interesting program will be presented by Nils A. Lafgren, director of field services, citizens traffic safety board of Metropolitan Chicago. Mr. Lafgren will show some pertinent safety films and discuss safety problems as they affect our community. It promises to be a program of vital importance to all women of the city, who naturally are concerned for the safety of their families.

The Junior Woman's club extends an invitation to all women of the community to attend the meeting and to join their organization. The Junior Woman's club is concerned with philanthropic and community problems, and gives women a chance to work for the betterment of their city while enjoying the friendship of their neighbors who are interested in the same things. The Junior Woman's club is not connected with any political or religious organization but is affiliated with the American Federation of Women's Clubs, belonging to the 7th Illinois District of that group. If you would like to meet a group of your women neighbors of all ages who are working for their community while enjoying the friendship of their group by all means attend the meeting next Monday evening. Refreshments will be served and you can be sure you will be made to feel welcome.

Welcome World

Little Nancy Dow who isn't quite two years old herself, has a new baby sister, but she still is anxiously waiting to even see her. Nancy is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Geegh of Grand Rapids, Mich., while her mother and sister are staying at St. Francis hospital in Evanston. Nancy, as well as her grandparents will have a chance to see little Susan Marie this week when mother and daddy, Dorothy and Bill Dow of 2304 W. Sigwalt st., bring her home. The new addition to the Dow household arrived April 1, and tipped the scales at 7 pounds 14 ounces. Dorothy's mother, Mrs. Geegh, will be staying with the Dow family for a short while to lend a helping hand to the new mother.

Their first child, as well as the first grandchild in their families, has arrived to "claim" the household of Bob and Sue Schultz of 2405 Dove st. Little Lynn Adams Schultz arrived March 27 at Resurrection hospital in Chicago. The young miss measured 20 inches and weighed 7 pounds 4½ ounces on her arrival. The lucky young lady already has her grandmother, Mrs. A. W. Lawrence of Milwaukee, visiting her. Lynn Adams is the fortunate possessor of not only 2 sets of grandparents, but 3 sets of great-grandparents as well as a great-aunt and great-great-aunt. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lawrence of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Schultz of La Grange, have already called on the young miss. It will probably be a little longer before Lynn sees her great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Dahlberg of La Grange, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawence of Greeley, Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams of Hastings, Nebraska.

Fashion Fair April 14

The "Fashion Fair" to be presented by the Women's association of the Community church is nearing the final stages of polish, and everyone concerned with the production is busy working for its success. The fashion show, which will feature all types of clothing for women and children, promises some outstanding models and a great variety of selections. To add to the enjoyment of the evening, the Women's association will serve refreshments, and there will be three gifts awarded to the audience. The donation will be only 25 cents—a mighty small price for an outstanding evening. The "Fashion Fair" will be held April 14, at 8 p.m. at the Barn.

Models for the fashion show have been chosen. The women and children have been busy rehearsing and being fitted for their spots in the show. After their lessons in modeling technique you will no doubt be able to spot the "models" simply by their outstanding grace and carriage, but for those who, like me, tend to be unobservant here are their names: Sally Myers, Myrna Novak, Barbara Schneider, Arlene Alvis, Noreen Enger, Lorraine Kramer, Hope Singleton, Vesla McNerney, Betty Maseng, Ruby Yurtis, Evelyn Jesperson, Nancy Ringsmuth, Myrtle Yunger, Edythe Paeglow, Emmy Macior, and Dorothea Griesman. The children's clothes will be modeled by Nancy Maseng, Debbie Singleton, Judith Paeglow, Joan Macior, Pamela Bol and Roxanne Jesperson.

Youngster Hospitalized

The atmosphere around the home of Bob and Mae Zimmanck of 2301 George st. was unusually quiet last week. Both of the Zimmanck children were away, but their father and mother were kept pretty busy just visiting them. Little Robert Junior, who just arrived at Resurrection hospital on Christmas Eve, spent last week in the Sherman hospital in Elgin. The baby underwent a hernia operation March 29, which was completely successful. His mother and father brought him home last Saturday, April 2, and the little boy is recovering rapidly. While her brother was in the hospital, the Zimmanck's two year old daughter, Barbara, stayed with her grandparents so that her parents could visit him at every opportunity.

Community Church

Rolling Meadows Community church will hold its first communion service Maundy Thursday, April 7 at 8 p.m. This is the traditional communion service day, and the Community church extends and invitation to all who feel they can sincerely participate to join in this fellowship.

The Easter Sunay services April 10 will open with the Junior Hi department of the Sunday school breakfast and service at 7 a.m. The regular worship services will be held at 9:30 and 11:15 a.m., and there will be nursery and preschool classes held during both services to care for the smaller children. However, there will be no regular Sunday school classes for the older children as it is hoped they will attend church with their parents on this important day. The Senior choir will sing at both services, and they will be joined by the Junior choir at the 11:15 a.m. service. The Junior choir will appear Easter Sunday in their robes for the first time.

In keeping with the Holy Week theme, the movie shown at the Community church Saturday, will be the great religious film "King of Kings." The film will be shown at 1, 3:30 and 7:30 p.m. at the Barn.

Everyone in the community is invited to join in these church activities during this most solemn and joyful period of the Christian calendar.

Blood Donors Available

Residents of Rolling Meadows are reminded that in the case of emergency if blood donors are needed a group of your neighbors stand ready to assist. The list of available blood donors is maintained by Don Dahlquist of Sigwalt st. There is no charge for this assistance. The people who have volunteered for this service are merely anxious to lend a helping hand to their neighbors in the case of family emergencies. If you are in need of help in this way, or if you would like to volunteer your name for the blood donor list, please call Mr. Dahlquist. His telephone number is CLearbrook 3-0889.

Visitors In Rolling Meadows

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee of 2309 School drive had welcome weekend guests recently. Mrs. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Hartley of Gilman, Ill., visited the Lee's new home in Rolling Meadows for a pleasant interlude. A real family reunion was had during the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley when Mrs. Lee's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reutter of Lombard, spent a Sunday in Rolling Meadows.

Little Pamela Maszk, who is two years old, and her older sister, Sandra, who is seven, had an important visitor staying with them last week. Their grandmother, Mrs. Julia Arneson of Decorah, Ia., arrived in Rolling Meadows last Friday, and left only yesterday. A pleasant visit was had by Mrs. Arneson with her daughter, Jean, and her family, of 2306 Wing st.

Softball Teams to Be Organized Soon

Rolling Meadowites who were here last year will remember the exciting softball games which were played by the teams organized on the various blocks. After a summer of Sunday morning games, the "championship" game was played at the first annual Rolling Meadows outing sponsored by the Home Owners' association. The "champions" of this event, the team from Sigwalt st., are now anxious to again prove their skill, and have issued an invitation to other streets to organize a softball team. The defending champions are very hopeful that other streets will take advantage of this pleasant way of meeting and getting acquainted with their neighbors. The important thing is not skill at the game, but a willingness to join the fun—remember, your neighbors probably feel just as hesistant as you do but would probably like to join you in a ball game. If you would like more information about forming a team or the tentative plans of the league, you are invited to call Ed Jaske at CLearbrook 3-8531 or Don Dahlquist at CLearbrook 3-0889.

Accident Victim Recovers

That heavy body cast which little Janet Chellman has been wearing for several weeks has finally been removed. As a matter of fact, the removal of the seven-pound cast last Saturday was the best birthday present the little girl received. She celebrated her second birthday Sunday. Janet broke her collarbone several weeks ago when she accidently fell in her living room while playing with her father. The little girl who is the daughter of Bill and Ann Chellman of 2800 St. James street, after undergoining a series of X-rays was placed in the body cast which she has worn since. Her mother is going to keep the heavy cast for a souvenir of the experience for her daughter, who because of her youthful age will probably never remember the accident herself.

Anniversary Celebration

It was the 8th anniversary of their marriage, but the first one to be celebrated in their new home in Rolling Meadows for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gieras of South st. The anniversary party which was held Saturday, was a real success and a wonderful time was enjoyed by all. The guests who joined the Gieras for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. Dever, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Booth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee, all of Rolling Meadows, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lucier of Palatine.

Girl Scout Meeting Time Changed

Girl scout troop 302, under the leadership of Mrs. Gretchen White has changed their meeting time from Wednesday evenings to 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoons. The girls will continue to meet at the Barn. Because there are so many evening activities for young people it was felt by the parents and adult scout workers that the afternoon meeting time would be much better and would allow the girls to spend more time at home during the evenings. With the warmer weather approaching it will give the troop greater opportunities for outdoor activities as well, and they are eagerly looking forward to planning some cook-outs.

Home Parties Held

It was a copper demonstration that drew the guests to the home of Mrs. Dorothy Huberty of 2604 South st., March 29. A real party atmosphere prevailed at the demonstration which was attended by a great many of Mrs. Huberty's friends and neighbors. On hand for the demonstration were Mrs. Ruby Yurtis, Mrs. Marge Kitterman, Mrs. Irene Wiever, Mrs. Ann Hornof, Mrs. Mary Jane Ziemke, Mrs. Barbara Schneider, Mrs. Dorothy Stier, Mrs. Dorothy Koral, Mrs. Lorraine Held, Miss Deanne Huberty, and Mrs. Darlene Mineas, all of Rolling Meadows. Also present were Mrs. Lavinia Hinrichs of Kirchhoff rd., Mrs. Betty Weis of Park Ridge, Mrs. Eleanor Woerner of Itasca, and Mrs. Helen Ackerman, Mrs. Mercedes Kling, Mrs. Pat Barstein, and Mrs. Dorothy Schutz, all of Chicago. Following the demonstration, Mrs. Huberty served coffee and cake, to really highlight a pleasant evening.

The home of LaVerne Koehler at 2908 Lark court was the scene of another home demonstration party last week. A group of friends and neighbors gathered at the Koehler home last Friday for a pleasant evening. Attending the home party were Mrs. Jean Edgren of School drive, Mrs. Gloria Dedrich and Mrs. Ann Goertz of Lark court, and Mrs. Joyce Taylor Mrs. Geraldine McLeod, Mrs. Iris Sydow, Mrs. Sarah Kairys, Mrs. Eleanor Schenck, Mrs. Carol Strauwald and Mrs. Jo Strauwald, all of Campbell st. Also on hand were Mrs. Harriet Nelson and Mrs. Goldie Littenski of Chicago. Refreshments were served to the guests following the demonstration, and an enjoyable get-together was enjoyed by the new neighbors.

Wilke Road Family Moves

Their friends and neighbors bid a reluctant good-bye to Lt. and Mrs. Robert Pollard (Bob and Pat of 2809 Wilke rd. Lt. Pollard was transferred to a new assignment in California by the navy, necessitating the move by the family. The Pollards, with their little daughter Greer, left Rolling Meadows early Friday morning. The evening before, Bob and Pat were entertained at dinner by their good friends Lt. and Mrs. Robert Jacobson (Bob and Ann) of 2901 Wilke rd. Their trip to California will be a real vacation for the Pollards, who are planning to spend two weeks with Mrs. Pollard's family in Missouri on their way to their new home.

Junior Women to Attend District Meet

A group of women from the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club is planning to attend the last meeting of the year of the 7th district, of which the Rolling Meadows club is a part. Since one of the membership requirements of the Junior Woman's club is attendance at one district meeting each year, it is hoped that a great many members of the local club will take advantage of this opportunity to fulfill their membership requirements.

The district meeting which will be held April 12, at 8 p.m., at the Mount Prospect village hall promises to present an unusually interesting program. Among the speakers will be Waldo Kenworth, who will discuss the "Stamps for the Wounded" program of the Junior Women's Clubs of America. This is a national project of all Junior Women's Clubs who pesent the stamps to hospitals for help in rehabilitating wounded servicemen.

The gift of $1,200 which was given by the 7th district to the Blind classroom of the Wheeling school will be discussed by Jack Norris, principal of the school, and Mrs. William Corts, a parent of a blind dhild. They will explain to the women's club members the imporant work which this gift has accomplished.

Another highlight of the program will be a talk entitled "Inside the Pump Room" by Lucia Perrigo. Miss Perrigo is the public relations director for the Pump Room of the Ambassador East hotel in Chicago. The election of district officers will also be held at the meeting.

Birthday Parties

It will take more than measles to keep little Ellen Gruenbaum from celebrating her birthday. When her seventh birthday rolled around March 13, poor Ellen was strictly "in bounds" with the measles, but last Saturday, she made up for lost time by having an even better party than she hoped for in the first place. Ellen, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gruenbaum of 2313 Meadow drive, was hostess to a group of her schoolmates and friends. On hand for the party were Debra Douglas, Carol Sors, Pamela Bol, Judy Miller, Diane Keirstead, Cheri Carrs, Judy Siewenic, Janet Selinka, and Penny Soderberg. The little girls enjoyed outdoor games because of the warm weather as well as birthday cake and ice cream.

Linda Phipps of 2405 Wing st. celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday, with a party for a group of her little friends. Joining Linda for her birthday party were Karen Gruenwald, Kathy Bierman, Terry Krause and Kent Nyblin of Rolling Meadows, and Carol and Scott Rollins of Evanston. Due to the warm weather games were played in the backyard. A pleasant close to the birthday celebration was enjoyed by the children when they had birthday cake and ice cream. While Linda held her party for her friends Saturday, Friday, was actually her birthday. That evening she celebrated the important event with her grandparents.

Bible Study Group Plans Meetings

The Bible Study group of Rolling evenings, April 21 and 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lee Hultgrem of 2308 South st. The group has also planned a meeting for Tuesday, May 3, at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Aileen Wertheimer of 2304 School drive. The group extends an invitation to all residents to join them in their study of the Bible. If you would like further information you are invited to call Mrs. Alice Swetman of 2102 South street. Mrs. Swetman's telephone number is CLearbrook 3-8136 and she will gladly discuss the plans of the group with anyone interested.

Vacationing

Mrs. Syble Robbins and her two daughters, Rita and Rebecca, of Campbell st. are enjoying a brief vacation. They are spending a week at Winona Lake, Ind., where they are visiting Mrs. Robbins' mother, Mrs. Joyce Saylor. You can be sure the two little girls are thoroughly enjoying their brief stay with their grandmother and Mrs. Robbins certainly shares her daughters' feelings.

Still Time to Regisfer For Little League

The first official registration for the Rolling Meadows Little League was held last Sunday. While a great many boys were registered at this time, there are still many boys remaining to be signed up for this activity. Information regarding the registration of boys in the Little League may be obtained from Ed Garrity, 2504 South st., CLearbrook 3-8346. Since it is necessary for both parents to sign the registration cards, cards may be picked up at Mr. Garrity's home and returned later properly signed and filled out.

All boys between the ages of 8 and 12 are invited to join the Little League. Boys must be at least 8 years of age by July 31 and cannot be older than 12 on that same date. Parents must show proof of age at the time of registration.

Registration of seven year old youngsters will be held in the near future. It is hoped to organize the younger boys into a "minor league" in preparation for actual Little League play next year. Mr. Garrity will be at his home all day Saturday and Sunday, and will assist parents at that time in registration of their boys for this outstanding sporting activity.

A meeting of the Little league organization was also held last Sunday at the Barn. Since the Rolling Meadows Little League ball field will probably not be finished in time to start practice periods this spring, the main discussion of the meeting dealt with the procurement of a suitable field for temporary practice and league play. Several alternative suggestions were offered and are currently being investigated. The Rolling Meadows Little League ball field will be located on Campbell st. west of Salt Creek near the water tower. This should prove to be an ideal central location when the site is finally developed, which should be sometime early in the summer.

Sign Contracts For Permanent Parsonage

Minister S. Nelson Ringsmuth and 3 trustees of the Community church of Rolling Meadows met with leaders of the Midwest Community Church Development association Friday noon in the Tower club in Chicago to complete final details on the purchase of the church's permanent parsonage.

The Rev. Ringsmuth and his family moved into the new official church residence at 2704 Park st., northeast corner of Meadow dr., late last month. The dwelling is just one block north of the future site of the permanent church building at Meadow and Kirchhoff rd.

The meeting Friday saw the association sign contracts with the Community church of Rolling Meadows agreeing to underwrite the down payment and early expenses of the parsonage until the church is able to assume the responsibility. The association did the same thing in the establishment of the church.

Representing the church with the Rev. Ringsmuth were these trustees: Clifford H. Keirstead, chairman of the finance committee; Leif E. Maseng, chairman of the building committee, and Howard H. Zaccard, a member of the property committee who attended for Chairman Alfred W. Garms.

Arlington Crest

Seventh Birthday

Judy Loeding, of N. Warren ave. celebrated her seventh birthday March 26. She had a party for a few girl friends.

Friday, April 1, Ricky Loeding turned on the wringer of the wash machine and caught his arm in it before his mother could get to him and shut off the power.

Susan Balducci had her tonsils removed Friday.

Hostess

Mrs. Stollstiener was hostess to several of her neighbors March 29. It is surprising how quickly the mending gets finished when done in company with other menders. We of the north side of Arlington Crest are hoping our neighbors of the south side will follow our example and start their sewing circle.

Association To Meet

Arlington Crest Civic Association Inc. will hold its regular monthly meeting April 13 at 8 p.m. at the residence of Wayne Goodpasture, corner of Olive st. and Williams ave. Everyone is urged to come as matters of vital importance to the subdivision will be under discussion. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

State Bond Sales

A total of $43,144,282 in Series E and H savings bonds was purchased in this state in the month of February. This is 5% above sales for February last year. Sales of the popular Series H bond alone totaled $16,288,000, more than $5 million above last February.

Prospect Meadows

A vote of thanks goes to former writer, Rosemary Vosburgh, from Joyce Ruther, new columnist of the Prospect Meadows column. Mrs. Ruther will be glad to take news items and urges everyone in the community to contact her.

Coffee Outdoors

Women of Bob-O-Link rd., enjoyed coffee outdoors Thursday. Among them were Marge Murdock, Millie Webber, Ruth Bocian, Pat Wrath, Jean Kamps, Connie Heurlin, Ruby Polly, Marilyn Peregrine, Loretta LeForge, Joyce LeBrun, Marie Stanke, Alberta Dobbs, Ethel Larson, Gloria Campbell, Ruth Burt and Ann Incinelli.

Mr. and Mrs. William Riley, Orfole lane, are parents of twin sons, Charles Terrell and William Martin Jr., born March 23. The boys have a 4-year-old sister, Patty. Mar. 31 will be a day to remember for 2 families in the Meadows. Marge and Art Drake have a new son, David Daniel, born at St. Francis hospital weighing 9 pounds 7½ ounces. Edith and Chuck Schroeder of Bob-O-Link rd., chose Oak Park hospital for Brian Charles who weighed 9 pounds 5 ounces.

Birthdays

Jimmy Creamer celebrated his fifth birthday with 2 parties. His grandmother, Mrs. William Creamer Sr., his aunt, Diane, and his 2 uncles, David and Roger, helped him celebrate Sunday with a birthday dinner. Neighborhood playmates who ate ice cream and cake Tuesday were Russ Ann Seymour, Don Cody, Billy Toner, Bill Rutkowski, Debbie Sage, Joan Daniels and brothers, Steve and Larry. R. J. Morand was feted on his birthday with a dinner party attended by Jean and Howie Kamps. Mr. Morand is Jean's father. Another birthday child was Kathleen Halleran who had an Easter theme for her fifth birthday. Children who enjoyed an egg hunt and took home an Easter chick were Liz Wyatt, Letty Seeber, Barbie and Kathy Smith, Linda Geraci, Cindy and Mary Lou McKenney, Sharon and Maureen McNaughton and her 2 brothers, Tom and Pat. Mrs. McNaughton, Mrs. McKenney and Mrs. Geraci were also present.

The antique show held by Community Presbyterian church was attended by Lynn Nye, Chris Pellitier, Rosemary Finch, Marilyn Peregrine, Elaine Johnson, Kay Wilson and Marge Blim.

Entertain

Ruth Bocian enjoyed a visit from her sister, Marge Christoffel, who came to the Meadows last Tuesday. Skeets and Joyce Hoglund entertained Joan and Bob Hoglund over the weekend. The Hoglunds visited with Mrs. Hoglund's sister, Mrs. Patterson in Des Moines the previous weekend.

Vic Heurlin seems to be the Meadows' luckiest male. In the past 2 weeks he has enjoyed both Texas and Florida sunshine. Rosemary and Bill Vosburgh didn't go that far but had a wonderful time dining at the I.A.C. followed by an evening of "Tea and Sympathy" ast Tuesday. Stan and Ruby Polly enjoyed an evening with their bowling group which wound up the season with a dinner at Mangam's chateau last Saturday.

Last night the nominating committee of Prospect Meadows auxiliary chose possible officers for the organization.

When Dennis Kamps had an impromptu sand box party, the following children rushed to the cookie box while Dennis fell asleep: Gail, Ritchie and Judy LeBrun, Susy and Nancy Hoglund, Connie and Paul Stanke, Val and Chipper Ruther, Gary Hehman, Jane Wrath, Tim Derning, Sandy Sepke and Michael and Suzy Murdock. Mothers present included Jean Kamps, Joyce LeBrun, Maria Stanke, Joyce Hoglund and Joyce Ruther.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to Lillian Kunz whose father died March 22.

Diane Klein is happy her leg is not out of the cast that has been hampering her for many weeks.

April 14 is the date for the next association meeting and Mr. Berchmans urges everyone to attend. Members are asked to bring neighbors.

Ginnie Jenkins is up after her recent visit to the hospital.

Spring Dance

Plans for the spring dance were further discussed last Friday night by Barb Sell, chairman, Velma Sage, Rosemary Vosburgh and Marilyn McLean. These girls will be selling tickets from April 16 until May 18 on their individual routes: Kay Sepke will sell in the 400 block of Boy-O-Link and on Rand rd.; Velma Sage, in the 600 block of Oriole and Bunting; Marilyn McLean in the 400 block of Oriole and Albian; Violet Toner on Foundry rd.; Rosemary Vosburgh in the 600 block of Bob-O-Link and Larkdale and Barb Sell on Prospect Manor and in the 400 block on Larkdale. The committee plans dancing to the music of Russ Newman at the VFW hall. Date of this event is May 21 and the committee is looking forward to a large turnout.

Brownie Scouts

At the March 22 meeting, each Brownie was given striped awning material to complete a "sit upon" to be admired and put to use at the April 12 meeting. The girls had no meeting last Tuesday because of spring vacation. Intermediate girls spent their meeting planning badge work. The Clover patrol leans toward the sewing badge while the Star patrol is already planning a program to be given for the Clovers' next meeting. Most of these girls are starting toward their first class badge and are learning to be first class girls before they can be called first class scouts.

Dorothy Doyle is soon going to be scouting for mothers who can work along with with the troop and their own girls.

Cub Dens

The Meadow cub dens are working on the forestry theme this month. Den 12, supervised by Ed Moeller, read and discussed this project at the den's last meeting and then played games. Den 13 discussed its project which coincides with den 12; this month the boys will be making bird feeders and bird houses. The Meadows scouting area is known as Blackhawk district and the boys are included in pack 232.

The need for men to work with these boys is great since it is harder to accomplish good scouting with crowded dens, says Ed Moeller of the Meadows. A training program is now in session for men who would like to work with the boys. Mr. Moeller will be glad to give anyone interested, information about this work. His phone number is Clearbrook 3-2704.

Scouts will be collecting newspapers Saturday and ask residents to place tied bundles on the curb before 9 a.m. ro take them to North school before noon the same day.

Last Sunday Jaek Pelletier, Chuck Brazeau, Daryl Burt and Don Finch dug fruit trees for the Meadows park. These trees were a donation.

Sunday Guests

Bert and Joyce Ruther had Sunday company in 3 shifts. First to arrive were Mr. and Mrs. George Price from Oak Park with their children, Dennis, Ronald and Peggy Ann. Also from Oak Park came Beth Donahue and Doug Smith. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Frazier from Wilmette were brought to the Meadows by their daughter, Susan, a freshman at New Trier high school.

Elk Grove News

School News

March 31, Mrs. Chappelear's third grade and Mrs. Allison's fourth grade gave an assembly program for the rest of the students at Elk Grove school. Dennis Preuter played an accordion solo and there was a choral reading by fourth graders plus an Easter parade where the girls were all dressed in Easter bonnets. Mickey Adams sang a solo part of the song with all the fourth graders joining in with the chorus.

Mrs. Cahappelear's third grade sang a spring song with the accompaniment of bouncing balls in rhythm to the music. They also sang "I Won't Play in Your Yard" with Phyllis Petersen and Barbara Scharringhausen in their sun bonnets acting out the song.

An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by Mrs. Hecht's first graders and Mrs. Chappelear's third graders.

Mrs. Allison had her traditional Easter egg tree in her room. Last year her tree bloomed but this year she wasn't fortunate enough to secure a pear tree but the tree is budding and has taken on a springlike appearance.

Mrs. Coston's eighth graders are busy working on the play "No More Homework" which they will give May 5.

Mothers' Club

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club will be held April 14 at 1:30 p.m. The high school will present a film on a day's activities at the school with Susi Carter as one of the pupils followed during the day. This should be especially interesting to upper grade mothers.

Paper Drive

The eighth grade students will sponsor a paper drive from April 11 to April 14 to help further their trip to Springfield. They are also planning another hot dog sale for April 20. Residents are asked to save and bring them to school during that period.

A meeting of eighth grade parents and members of the high school staff will be held at the school April 18 at 8 p.m. This is an important meeting of the students and their parents when the high school curriculum is explained and cards are given out for the selection of courses which the students will take next year.

Election for members of the board of education for both Elk Grove and the high school will be Saturday, April 9, from 12 to 7 p.m.

Mr. Rabattini's sixth grade surprised him with an Easter cake made by Mrs. Vance Folkman. The cake was decorated with "Happy Easter Sixth Grade" and on the top was a nest made of green cocoanut with a little chicken and jelly bean eggs on top. Mrs. Folkman also made Easter baskets of puffed wheat and carmels which were very novel.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Cavallo with their children, Mark and Janet, are going to enjoy their spring vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla., with Mrs. Cavallo's parents.

Miss Patti Folkman, a sixth grade student at Elk Grove, was one of the models in the campfire fashion show at Central school in Mount Prospect, April 1. Models walked down a gangplank with ship's lanterns and other scenes from shipboard—the theme of the show was a "Sea of Fashions." Patti modeled a mauve pink 2-piece dress with full skirt and bolero type jacket. With this Patti tied a white and blue ascot in a bow, the ascot was detachable. All clothes were from Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co. Patti is a member of Mrs. Fred Welsh's campfire group.

Feehanville School

Vote Saturday

This coming Saturday is election day at the Feehanville school. A person qualified to vote in a school election "must be a citizen of the United States, above the age of 21 years and must have resided in the state for 1 year, in the county for 90 days and in the school district or territory for 30 days immediately preceding the school election." With these qualifications one is a "legal voter" and need not be a registered voter.

There are 2 vacancies on the school board. Two petitions have been filed, one for Edgar L. Brookhouzen and one for Kenneth F. Karnuth. There will be 2 names on the ballot—vote for 2.

There will be another issue to be voted on at this election, and that is a proposed increase in the educational fund levy from the present .61 to .82. The 1.126 mentioned in the green slip (that came with the recent tax bill) is the sum total of the educational fund, building fund and bond levies. Even with the proposed increase District 26 will still have one of the lowest tax levies in this area for school purposes.

Civic Association

The monthly directors' meeting of the Forest River Home Owners' Civic association will be held April 11; at the Community house.

Guild News

Mrs. Charles Badalmenti, chairman of Our Lady of Lourdes Guild; attended the executive meeting of the Altar and Rosary Society last Friday. Plans for the party to be held at Chevy Chase after Lent, are nearing completion. Father Maginot was present, and spoke to the ladies on modern day problems. The April open meeting will be the second Thursday of the month, with an interesting program planned for the evening.

The April meeting of Our Lady of Lourdes Guild will be April 15 at the home of Hermina Huening. Plans for the games party to be held later in the month will be the important item on the agenda for the evening. The Guild is in a position to accept new members, and anyone interested in joining can contact the chairman, Mrs. Badalamenti, Va 4-291, or any one of the Guild members.

Forest River Church

Special services will be held Good Friday, at the Forest River church, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Instead of having 2 separate Sunday school hours Easter Sunday, the 2 groups will be combined, for an Easter program, and will start at 10:30 a.m.

The Boys Brigade and the Pioneer Girls are proud of their reputation of being "First" in all things—and, following this tradition, they are planning the first Hallowe'en party of the year April 11. Costumes are mandatory. All young people in this age group are welcome. The party will be held at the Forest River church.

The young people's hay ride, postponed from last month, will be held on April 23.

The Boys Brigade have started their spring training — every nice day last week they were at the Dam practicing baseball.

It was birthday night at one of the last meetings of the Ladies' Bible class. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. Schauer, and Miss Ruth Pierson was the birthday girl. Refreshments were served after the class meeting.

Community News

The Child Health Conference is held in the morning, the third Tuesday of every month. Attendance has fallen off during the bad weather this past winter, and the doctor is concerned. Unless the attendance is at a certain level each month, the conference will have to be discontinued.

Word has been received of Gerald (Hoot) Smith, who had to leave for the West coast for his health last winter. We hear he is feeling fine and has gained 22 pounds, which is 12 pounds more than he has ever weighed. Anyone wishing to send friendship cards to him can reach him at 13615 De Alcala Drive, La Mirado, Calif. He will enjoy hearing from his former classmates.

Billy Phar, Dennis Buttner and Ray Olson from our school district, who are in the band at Prospect Heights school, all received medals at the special award assembly last week. The band presented Mrs. Wilson, their band leader, with a lovely rose plant. The A basketball team won second place in the basketball league, and were presented with a trophy—Billy Phar and Harold Broberg from this district were on this team. The B team won first place in the league, and were presented with a trophy also. The cheer leaders were called on and commended for their good work during the year. Janet Sandquist from this district was in this group. Among the adults from this area present at the assembly were Mrs. Irwin Phar, Mrs. Ed Buttner and Mrs. A. R. Hanson.

Jimmy O'Boyle celebrated his birthday last week Wednesday, with his schoolmates at school. John O'Boyle brought a tray full of cup cakes to school, and the children in the upper grades room all shared in the treat.

Did you see the pictures of Barbara Messner, Mrs. Lois Hougue and daughter, Carrie, of Meadow Lane, in the Roto section of one of the Chicago papers last Saturday? Their pictures were printed "to prove that Chicago area women are just as alluring as screen stars."

Francis Munson went to the hospital last week Tuesday and has been under treatment for mastoid. He is coming along fine, and at this writing expects to be home soon.

Birthday greetings this week go to Richard Kozel, who is celebrating his 10th birthday this Saturday.

Mrs. Stanley Luczak — CL 3-6346

Birthday Greetings

Mrs. Howard Koepke celebrated her birthday April 4.

Mark Alvin Moehling celebrated his third birthday Tuesday, with a luncheon for a few small friends and relations, who helped in the celebration.

A vote of thanks is due Mrs. Roland Koenig for substituting for your reporter last Monday.

Deepest Sympathy

Mr. Edward L. Kleinofen, 83 year old father of Charles Kleinofen, 109 S. Haddow, Arlington Heights died March 23. He was buried from the Oehler chapel in Des Plaines, March 26. Interment is in St. Peter cemetery, Skokie.

On Sick List

Down with the measles this week are: Kevin Grismer, Peter Loy, Marney Walerius and David Wilder.

Chester Petersen recently underwent surgery at St. Joseph hospital in Elgin and is well on the road to recovery.

Miss Means and Mrs. Ruehrdanz of the Cook County Health department called at the school, Friday. The school welcomed Mrs. Ruehrdanz as the county nurse who will guide our school in the health program.

Vote Saturday

Election for one member of the board of directors will be held this Saturday, from 12 noon to 5 p.m. at the Forest View school, ½ block north of Algonquin road on S. State road. Caucus is from 11 a.m. to 12 noon. Everyone is urged to come out and vote.

Saturday evening guests at the Charles Jevne home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Opela of Arlington Heights.

Two board members will be elected to the school board for a 3-year term Saturday. Voting will begin at noon and the polls will close at 7 p.m. Nominees are Mr. Danielsen, Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Seppala.

Hospitalized

Mrs. Al Walters entered Cuneo hospital for surgery last Friday, and is doing nicely. She hopes to be back home the latter part of this week. Her husband, Al, appeared on television last week in a bowling match, and in the background their son Warren, who attends Wilson school, could be seen, much to the delight of his classmates!

Roberta Barody celebrated her sixth birthday this month with a party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Moskal. Her dad is in the armed forces and Roberta is anxiously awaiting his return.

Housewarming

Mary Lou and Charles Ruckhold moved into their new home in Palatine last week and were surprised with a housewarming when many friends and relatives arrived last Sunday evening. The biggest surprise was when Red Best's truck drove in the driveway to deliver a beautiful television set, a gift from all the well wishers. Mrs. Ruckhold is the former Mary Lou Moskal.

Robert Parsons attended the fourth annual Northern Illinois Congress of classroom teachers in De Kalb last Saturday.

Election of officers will be held at the next PTA meeting, Tuesday, 8 p.m. There will also be a children's program and a film showing problems that confront children and their parents in high school.

Home From Hospital

Louis Zirko, Biesterfield rd., is convalescing at home after being in DuPage Memorial hospital for treatment.

Beth Ann Bleichroth had to miss school last week because she was ill with chicken pox.

Sorry we learned too late for last week's news that Darla Jean Fessler of Elgin was to be a contestant on the Morris B Sachs amateur hour Sunday. Darla, her parents and brother lived on Biesterfield rd. several years ago.

Happy birthday to Carolyn Bleichroth, who will celebrate her eleventh birthday April 7.

Mrs. Ed Ostrowski drove to Chicago Sunday to attend the monthly meeting of Alpha Kappa Lambda, a sorority whose members are all graduates of Chicago Teachers' college.

Mrs. Willard Bergman and daughter, Janelle, Biesterfield rd., visited relatives in South Dakota last week.

Donald and James Schroeder were surprised March 26 with a birthday dinner. Guests were Grandmother Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. James Zarnow and children, Christine and James Marc of Chicago, and Kenneth Nelson. They received a phonograph as a gift from their parents and radio station WJJD played a birthday request.

Tuesday morning Mrs. Ruth Suarez, Mrs. Bess Depalma and Mrs. Wuestenfeld brought their preschool children and their collection of home movies to the Ostrowski home on Lincoln lane where they spent several pleasant hours viewing movies of each others trips and birthday parties. There were 10 children present.

Neighborhood boys interested in playing baseball should call John Kappa, LA 9-5188, after 5:30 p.m., who will help them organize teams. William Noelle has offered the use of vacant land on Biesterfield rd. as a ball diamond if the boys would like to play there under the supervision of Mr. Kappa.

Residents are urged to go to Elk Grove school Saturday and cast their votes for school board members, on both the elementary and high school ballots. John Kappa, Biesterfied rd., is running for the high school board as a representative of this district.

Moved

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Wilders and Kathy moved from their home at 3 W. Euclid last Friday. They came here last October from Park Ridge. They moved now to Washington, D. C., where they had lived before coming to Park Ridge for a number of years. A change in Mr. Wilders' business connection caused the move back East.

Visiting with the Bruce Corbetts is Mrs. W. O. Davis from Maysville, Ky. She is Mrs. Corbett's mother and plans to be with her daughter and family for about a week. (AM

HEAR THE WORLD'S TOP CONCERT STARS

In Your Own Community

One Week Only To Join

April 18 Thru 23

Again you will have the opportunity to enjoy national headliners of the concert world, conveniently in your own community at small cost. The Community Concert Association will enroll members for the 1955-1956 season for six days, April 18 through 23. Memberships are available to everyone.

Dues for the season are $6.00 for adults and $3.50 for students. This admits members to all concert attractions to be selected shortly by the Artists Committee. No other admissions are sold.

Membership teams have been organized to call at homes in our entire area, Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, Inverness and all communities. Get your membership from the Association representative who calls on you, or call any of the officers or team captains listed below. Memberships also may be obtained from Association Headquarters.

Purpose of the Community Concert Association

This association was formed eight years ago in order to bring the finest of cultural entertainment to the community. During the past seven seasons members have enjoyed leading personalities of the concert stage in person at small cost. Five major attractions cost less than you will spend to attend a single concert in the city. The Association is non-profit. All funds are used to defray expenses of the concerts. The annual community concert season has become a permanent part of the life and culture of the community. Your support will bring even greater attractions to Arlington Heights in the coming season.

SPECIAL OFFER

For the first time new members who secure membership before April 17 will be entitled to attend the last concert of the current season upon presentation of their receipt at the door. Final concert is April 17—The Rochester Symphony Orchestra.

Have Opening For Newly Activated Squadron At O'Hare

Manifest clerks, billers, truck drivers, transportation clerks, parachute riggers, and even WAF personnel are wanted by the newly activated 13th aerial port squadron, O'Hare International airport, Park Ridge. That's the word from Major John K. Auld, 1009 Watling road, Arlington Heights, who has been appointed commander of the squadron.

Mission of the squadron, according to Major Auld, is to "transport and deliver cargo by air, land, and water to military units in its area."

"We're a new outfit, with plenty of vacancies to fill, and therefore available jobs for all enlisted grades are virtually "limitless," continued the Major.

Major Auld stated that the squadron trains one weekend per month at O'Hare, and urged anyone who desires more information concerning the program, to call ROdney 3-0800, Ext. 384.

In France

Pvt. Don E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown, 1414 W. Oakton st., Arlington Heights, is a member of the Ingrandes quartermaster depot in Ingrandes, France.

Communications zone units man major U. S. supply installations and depots in France and transport men and supplies from French ports to American forces in Germany.

A comptroller with the 7866th army unit, Brown entered the army in August 1954 and completed basic training at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He arrived in France in January of this year. Brown is a 1954 graduate of Carleton college, Northfield, Minn.

In Florida

A first solo flight has been made at the Whiting field U.S. naval auxiliary air station by naval aviation cadet James K. McNeely, son of Earl McNeely, of 502 N. State, Arlington Heights.

Re-enlistmenf Program Of The Air Force

United States air force has announced a new re-enlistment program with special inducements, according to Sergeant Walter Mohnsen, local air force recruiter.

Under the new plan former airmen who are qualified and technically trained in specified specialties, may now enlist in their permanent grade held at the time of separation and be concurrently promoted to any temporary grade held at that time, provided they enlist within six months from the date of their separation.

For additional details and a list of the air force specialties qualifying men and women for this opportunity, contact sergeant Mohnsen at 1518 Park Place, Des Plaines.

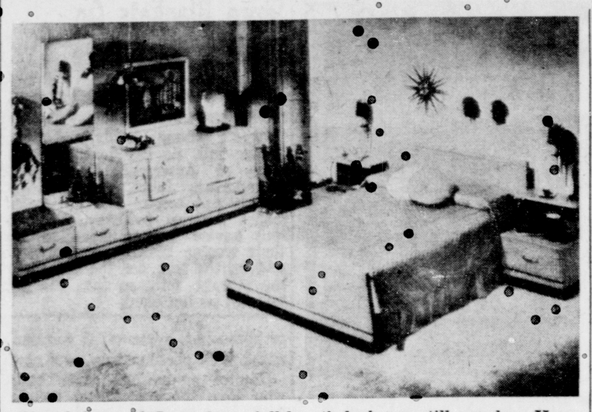
DESIGN FOR LIVING

Building - Remodeling - Improving



Vanities with a long, full-length look are still popular. Here is one with a fresh appeal, improvised from a flexible new bedroom grouping. Its base is a newly styled seat stand which also serves storage purpose as a night stand, window seat or vanity base as shown here. A black and gold marble pattern is used for the stand's scuff-proof base, lending it both beauty and practicality.

In Texas

Sporting a 167 average as he bowls with the Beaumont, Texas, army hospital team is Cpl. Richard Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Carlson, 213 W. Fremont, Arlington Heights.

Carlson has been at Beaumont a year, and is a member of the bowling team representing the hospital at the fourth army kegling tournament at Fort Hood, Texas. The team hopes to move on to higher competition at Fort Monmouth, N. J., in the all-army tourney.

Home-like Nightingales

Last year the American Red Cross issued 208,200 certificates to persons who completed home nursing training.

In France

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Markow, 502 Eastwood, Mount Prospect, have received word from Col. Walter J. Wells, commandant in the corps of engineers, U.S. army, that their son, 2nd Lt. Lew K. Markow was graduated as a superior student from the recent mine warfare and basic demolitions course conducted at the USAREUR engineer school in France. Superior students are those with grades 91 per cent or better. Col. Wells states in his letter to the Markows that achieving a superior rating in this rapid, condensed course is a noteworthy accomplishment attained only by a small percentage of the students. "You can be justly proud of the fine record maintained by your son during his stay at the school. It has been a privilege to have had him under my command," wrote Col. Wells.

Back From Caribbean

Robert C. Heiden Jr., seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Heiden of 626 N. Harvard, Arlington Heights, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Abbot which returned to Newport, R. I., March 27.

The Abbot has been engaged in "Operation Springboard," a series of training exercises in the Caribbean.

While on the training exercises, the crew made liberty stops at St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands; San Juan, Puerto Rico, Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic.

In Far East

Richard G. Dreyer, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Dreyer of 700 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, serving in the Far East aboard the heavy cruiser USS Los Angeles, flagship of Cruiser Division 5.

Lessons In.... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Would you do that if you was me?" Say, "Would you do that if you were I?"

"Dear Mr. Brown," is considered less formal in the salutation of a letter than "My dear Mr. Brown."

Do not say, "We need about fifty foot of wire." Say, "about fifty feet of wire."

The word "number" is singular or plural, according to usage. "The number was increased to fifty." "A number of men were present."

Speak of the "science" of grammar, and the "art" of speaking correctly. "Science" is systematized knowledge, "art" is skill in performance.

Do not say, "Each of the boys have their own cars." Say, "Each (singular subject) of the boys has his own car."

Words Often Mispronounced

Awry. Pronounce a-ri, a unstressed, i as in ripe, accent second syllable.

Fecund. Pronounce the e as in fed, accent first syllable.

Contiguous. Pronounce kon-tig-u-us, o as in on, i as in it, first u as in use, accent second syllable.

Romance. Accent second syllable, not the first.

Exuberance. Pronounce egg-zu-ber-ans, u as in use and not eks-oo-ber-ans.

Wagner. (German composer). Pronounce vag-ner, a as in ah.

Words Often Misspelled

Ascent (act of rising); assent (to agree). Proceed, two e's; procedure, ced. Mangeable; retain the e following the g. Excerpt, observe the c; exert, no c. Faint (to swoon); feint (trick). Chaos; though pronounced kay-oss.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Elephantine; heavy; clumsy; ponderous. (Accent third syllable, pronounce last syllable as tin). "His elephantine wit amused only the dullest of his listeners."

Instinctively; involuntarily, by natural impulse. "Animal mothers instinctively protect their young from harm."

Apologetic; of the nature of an apology; regretfully excusing or acknowledging. "Realizing his mistake, he assumed an apologetic manner."

Sophistry; deceptively subtle reasoning or argumentation. (Pronounce first syllable as soff, accent first syllable). "No amount of sophistry will make me think differently."

Cynic; one who believes that human conduct is motivated wholly by self-interest. (Pronounce first syllable as "sin"). "The life he has led has turned him into a cynic."

Seraphic; angelic (Pronounce se-raf-ik, e as in see unstressed, a as in at, accent second syllable). "His dream was of seraphic spirits moving about him."

Tell Earning Limits For Maximum Payments Of Social Security

"How much can I earn and get all my social security payments?" is the most frequent question asked by persons of retirement age, according to Julius Berman, district manager of the northwest social security office. Many employers call with the same question, so advice can be given to their employees who work part time.

Anyone who is 72 years of age or over can receive benefits for all months regardless of how much is earned. For the worker who is under age 72, earnings for the entire year must be considered. If the earnings are $1200 or less, payment can be made for all months.

WHERE EARNINGS exceed $1200, one month's benefit must be withheld for each $80 or fraction of $80 over the $1200. For example, a man who earned $1281 in a year and worked all months would have 10 months benefits payable. The first additional $80 would eliminate one payment and the $1 would eliminate the second.

One who works in all months and earns over $2080 will receive no payments for the year. On the other hand, benefits are payable for all months in which no more than $80 is earned regardless of total yearly earnings.

"OLD AGE or survivor beneficiaries who earn $1200 a year or less or who became 72 years old before February of this year, need not concern themselves with the retirement test," Berman said, "but for all others a complete understanding is very important."

The best way to get that understanding, he suggested, is to visit the social security district office at 4255 Milwaukee avenue. Those who cannot conveniently call in person, he added, may request fact sheet No. 3 by mail.

'Trailer Parks To Be Taxed As Improved Property,' Says Keenan

From now on land on which trailers are parked more or less permanently will be taxed as improved property.

The new policy was announced Monday by County Assessor Frank Keenan.

Keenan said township assessors report to him that 80 per cent of the trailers remain as semi-permanent residences for at least 4 or 5 years. The trailers have in the past been taxed as personal property, but the land on which they stand has been taxed as vacant.

Keenan said the trailers will continue to be taxed as personal property, but the land will now be considered as improved.

Keenan has asked the township assessors to count the trailers in their areas and report back to him.

The assessor declined to estimate the number of trailers in the county except to say that "there are thousands." In Bremen township alone, Keenan commented, more than 3000 trailers have been counted.

Keenan expressed a particular concern that many parents who live in trailers are not paying the taxes needed to educate their children.

From 26 to 33 per cent of the trailers in Cook County are residences of families with children, Keenan said.

Here is a youth bedroom grouping that will afford the youngsters an opportunity to take more than a personal interest in their own furniture. The authentic Thunderbird designs give it added appeal. It offers a do-it-yourself theme by providing unpainted decorative grooving which can be completed in any colors. The wood is celtis, and finished to provide an excellent background for any colors. Note the protective side rail on the upper bunk.

Store Blankets On Top For Best Care

Store a soiled wollen blanket under a dead weight in the spring and it won't emerge lively and fluffy in the fall. So say textile technicians at American Institute of Laundering, Joliet, research and educational center for the professional laundry industry. Technicians advise homemakers to put their woolen blankets away clean and on the top, not the bottom of the storage pile, so that the nap will not be flattened.

Home Appraisals

The Chicago veterans administration G.I. home loan guaranty division received requests for appraisal for more than 1,375 proposed and existing homes for Illinois veterans during February, the highest monthly total since November 1954, Robert D. Beer, VA's manager in Illinois, announced.

The February total was 20 per cent above the 1,105 units for which VA received appraisal requests in January, and 44 per cent more than the 921 received in February 1954, the month the current surge in homebuilding activity got underway.

Of the 2,834 units for which appraisal requests were received last month, 1,744 were from builders for proposed homes. This was 443 above January and 660 per cent above the 369 received in February 1954.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

One of the best big bands in the nation belongs to Ralph Marterie, who has made brass and reeds sing out in real style on his Mercury platters. Now you can enjoy almost an hour of "Dance Date," a brand-new Mercury 12-incher. You'll find many of the hits Ralph made famous on this disc, such as that lively "Bumble Boogie," "Detour," a sizzling version of "Take the A Train," "Purple Shades," "Dry Marterie" (a classic!), the tender "Moonlight in Vermont," and that jaunty "Pennslyvania Turnpike." Real hi-fi sound!

Speaking of "Pennsylvania Turnpike" we're reminded of that enchanting Broadway musical about the Amish folk, "Plain and Fancy." Well, Capitol, has just issued a 12-inch discing of excerpts with the original cast which includes Stefan Schnabel as Papa Yoder, Gloria Marlowe as the heroine Katie, Richard Deer and Shirl Conway. Franz Allers conducts chorus, orchestra and cast in such delightful tunes as "City Mouse, Country Mouse," "Take Your Time and Take Your Pick," "Why Not Katie," the lovely ballad "It Wonders Me," and that uproarious "It's a Helluva Way to Run a Love Affair. Albert Hague wrote this delightful score and Arnold B. Horwitt did the lyrics. Rollicking good fun, tender love story, and musical entertainment all in one, plus Capitol's superb hi-fi sound!

You hi-fi fans are invited to visit your critic at Newark Electric, 223 W. Madison St., Chicago, where he's hi-fi manager. You're welcome to ask any questions about discs or home hi-fi systems; if you can't make it in person, drop us a note!

Capitol again has given those who love modern music coupled with breathtaking sound one of the most astonding platters in the lp catalog: it's the 12-incher offerlating "Music for String Instruments, Percussion and Celesta," Milhaud's "Concerto for Percussion and Small Orchestra" and Carlos Chavez's remarkable "Toccata for Percussion" based on Mexican Indian ritual dances and rhythms. Felix Slatkin directs the Concert Arts Orchestra in the two latter works; Harold Byrns, one of our finest authorities on modern music, lead the Los Angeles Chamber Symphony in the Bartok. Don't miss this one!

Tell Cause Of Most Golf Course Injuries

More than 10,000 golfers, caddies and club personnel will be injured this year on America's 5,000 golf courses.

The points often overlooked by golfers, are that a driven golf ball travels better than 250 miles per hour and that a swung golf club speeds through its arc at a rate of 200 miles per hour. They discount the dangers of lightning, heat prostration, and sunstroke, and ignore the hazards of motor vehicles as they cross roads running through the course.

Most frequent cause of trouble is the golf ball itself, a hard shelled object that becomes a dangerous missile in flight. Damaged and lost eyesight, broken bones and concussions, resulting from being hit by a golf ball, are not unusual.

Practice swings on the tee were shown to be the cause of many accidents, and in nearly all cases serious injury.

Getting struck by lighting while on the golf course was not a frequent occurrence. Yet, in more than 150 instances it struck down players and caddies, and in at least half the cases caused death.

At least 500 golf course accidents resulted from players or caddies being hit by motor vehicles driving through the club grounds.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

An ordinary thoughtful churchman was curious, "Why do we make such an issue of Easter?" He thought that churches ought to emphasize the real message of Christian living every day; of course, the Easter story was good, men and women are concerned about eternal life. But in the long run, isn't life as we live it the important thing? And isn't the story of the empty tomb one of those parts of the Christian message, which comfort our apprehensions without really changing our actions.

This response is more likely to be discovered in the "ordinarily thoughtful churchman" than in the somewhat irregular church member who takes his membership as a matter of course. This thoughtful one is concerned about putting his Christianity into his daily life. He loves the teachings of Jesus and wants to live as Jesus would have him live.

BUT HE TENDS to be a devotional or practical person rather than one who examines the historical and philosophical bases of the meaning of Christ to life and the world.

The early Christians, the ones who worked out the statement of the Apostles' Creed, for example, were quite anxious to put Christian principles into their daily life. They were involved in real controversies about the nature of the Christian life and its practices.

THE TROUBLE was that everybody was agreed on the Golden Rule and the teachings of Jesus. But the "liberals" of that age were inclined to suggest that there was no real help for men in living the kind of life which Christ taught. Jesus was the Son of God who came only to tell us what God wanted.

The "believing Christians" said this was not the case. Jesus is the Son of God who shows us what God wants and then changes the quality of our life by His Living Presence. So we find what a modern writer has called "the amazing comma," between "born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate."

The comma represents agreement on teaching, anyone—Son of God or Son of Man—could teach. But only the Son of Man could be born in a normal human manner; only the Son of Man could suffer and actually die and thus give real meaning to resurrection.

THE WORLD has known many religious teachers who have given words of comfort and inspiration to people. These religious teachers have helped to lift the sights of people or to encourage people to bear with their problems. But Jesus Christ who lived among us demonstrates that God transforms life.

St. Paul tells us that the Son of God was in the form of God, but out of love for man, he did not feel that being God was something to be held in one's grasp. Therefore, he emptied Himself of His godhood and took upon himself the form and manners of a man. As a man, he died, even submitting to death by crucifixion. For this reason, you can be sure that God is at work in you—even though it seems that you are working out your own salvation, with fear and trembling.

The point and purpose of Easter and of Good Friday, is that God is at work in you. Now you are living in the Kingdom; it is in your midst. Now your life is being transformed by the power and love of God. Now you are accepting—or rejecting—the grace and truth which God offers. God was in Jesus Christ, making Himself known to you and me.

County Assessor Tells Of Plan To Get All Property On Tax Rolls

Cook County Assessor Frank Keenan has announced long-range plans to insure that all property in the county is on the tax rolls.

Keenan's announcement came after a Monday morning conference with local township assessors. Keenan had called them in to discuss ways to insure that all building permits were reported to them and in turn reported to the county assessor.

County school superintendent Noble Puffer has charged that millions of dollars of property has escaped taxation by being omitted from the tax rolls.

Keenan said the assessors are unanimous in feeling that Puffer's statement is an exaggeration.

But Keenan said they conceded that laxity has kept some improved property listed as "vacant" in county records. The township assessors blamed village clerks for failing to report building permits to them properly.

And Worth Township Assessor Henry T. Bland even cited one case where an unnamed village clerk had neglected to report some 300 building permits to the township assessor.

Keenan said investigators from his office will make spot checks on local assessors' reports from now on.

And he said that he will work to have the state General Assembly pass legislation to spell out the responsibilities of all officials who have a hand in preparing the tax lists.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

To Direct Meetings

Shell Oil company announces the annual series of dealer meetings being held (starting April 5) and running for the balance of the month. These meetings will be directed by Harry O. Krass, 418 W. Wilson avenue, Palatine.

Krass is finishing his 22nd year with Shell starting with them in Detroit in 1933. After holding various positions with the company, he became retail manager of the Detroit division, coming to Chicago in 1951, in the same capacity.

One of the foremost merchandising men in the United States, Krass has inaugurated a number of firsts in the merchandise field which have been used by industry throughout the country.

Among the subjects to be discussed at these meetings will be "Plans and Suggestions on How to Increase Sales in 1955," "Shell's 1955 Advertising Program," "Ideas on How to get Customers to Return Again" and suggestions to show the dealers and their men on "How to Become Better Salesmen." (BB

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

I have often wondered what secret it is that some people possess which enables them to please everyone. At last, I believe I have found an answer.

People who are pleasing to everyone are generally without great firmness of character, with few or no convictions; nor any strong moral principles.

The more sincere a person is in his convictions the more sure he is of his thinking and his ability, the surer he is to make some enemies. Great men of consequence make enemies quite as easily or perhaps more easily than they make friends. The type of man or woman who is ready to fight for his convictions will make a good and loyal friend once he takes a liking to you; but he may be a most difficult person to get along with. Great men and women are often lonely because their preceptions are keener. They see what you do not see, understand what you can not grasp, and cannot help feeling irritable because you do not see or understand a situation.

THOSE PEOPLE who please everyone are not in any sense stable. They are your friend while they are with you, but are equally friendly with your enemy. They will stick with you in good times, but desert you when the going gets rough. They seldom have a sense of loyalty, are deeply selfish, and while often effusive with praise, are lacking in gratitude.

So beware of the always "pleasing" person, and never count them as a real friend. Far better to accept the friendship of a person who has the right kind of enemies than one who has none; for you know that his emotions are deeper, his principles finer, his loyalty enduring. It would advantage you to accept those qualities which sometimes irritate and hurt, and admire and love him for his strength of character, knowing full well that while your strong friend may cuss and damn you when your stupidity deserves it, he will be in there fighting for you as long as he can stand.

New Spring Fabrics Inspire Hobbyists To Start Sewing

NEW SPRING —LUD

Home sewing is more popular today than ever. It heads the list of women's "do it yourself" endeavors.

For centuries, women have fashioned articles of wearing apparel for themselves and their families, from the first primitive garments right up to the present day handmade couturier fashions.

Home sewing now stands at its peak in this country with 96 per cent of the U.S. female population over 12 years old engaged in some type of sewing. In a survey made recently by a leading thread company, sewing was listed by 88 per cent of the women as their number one hobby. The average age at which girls learn to sew today is 12 years, while their mothers on the average learned at 14.

OTHER FORMS of do-it-yourself projects may come and go, but the age-old craft and hobby of sewing continues to flourish among all age and income groups.

With the approach of spring, every woman who sews will be busy getting her wardrobe in order for the change of seasons. The fashion picture for spring looks particularly exciting for those who are planning to stitch up some cotton originals this year, the national cotton council reports.

There are many flattering pattern styles for all types of clothes and an array of exquisite, colorful fabrics to tempt the woman who sews. Cotton will be a favorite sewing material — this year women browsing through piece goods departments will see cottons that look like cottons and cottons that look like silks and linens. Stripes in varying widths combined with solid color cottons will be especially effective for spring and summer ensembles. Other favorites will include printed and plain versions of pima cottons. Sheers will be much in evidence for late spring and summer, and cotton novelties in twills, tweeds, and patterned chambrays are appealing in both color and design.

THE WOMAN who is sewing for her vacation wardrobe will be particularly interested in the wrinkle-resistant tweeds, suitings, and other cottons that are ideal for spring and summer travel.

Pattern styles for spring are many and varied. The National Needlecraft Bureau reports that there will be many slim, sheath-type lines; however the fuller look, as evidenced by the wide skirt, will be especially good for after-dark wear. Characteristic of spring 1955, is the long look. This silhouette is achieved in narrow sheaths with dropped waistlines, in longer jacket suits and overblouses.

The slim silhouettes do not look plastered, especially around the waist and midriff. "Ease" seems to be the by-word for spring fashions. Pleats are prominent in both dresses and suits. They follow the slim silhouette but provide plenty of ease. The ensemble look in dresses and suits is expected to rate high.

Dinner Kicks Off Cancer Fund Drive

Progress in cancer research was reported by Dr. R. Lee Clark, Jr., internationally known surgeon and researcher, at the kickoff luncheon of the 1955 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society, Illinois division, Thursday, March 31, at the Congress hotel.

The speech was given before approximately 350 volunteer campaign leaders and workers from the Chicagoland and downstate areas. The luncheon marked the official opening of this year's fight against cancer with a drive for $1,320,000. Funds will be used to wage the battle through research, education, and service to cancer patients.

Dr. Clark, director and surgeon in chief of the University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, Texas Medical Center, Houston, Texas, described experiments with an ancient Egyptian drug used by dermatologists in treating a skin disease called vitiglio, in which pigment losses sometime occur because of intensive sunlight. The drug is known as flavin compound and has been used experimentally on mice.

Twenty per cent of the mice not given the drug developed skin cancer when exposed to powerful ultra violet rays; while none of those who were given the compound and exposed to the rays developed cancer.

As a result of the studies, a 5 year experiment is now going forward on a herd of 1,000 steers which will be treated with the substance on an 80,000 acre Texas ranch. Approximately 5% of cattle herds in Texas develop cancer of the eye, Clark said, and it is hoped that the drug will be effective.

Expect 30,000 At Baid Knob Service

More than 30,000 are expected to gather on Bald Knob Mountain, the site of the huge 500-foot cross in southern Illinois, in the hours before dawn in anticipation of the eighteenth annual Easter sunrise service.

Nationwide interest in the service has resulted from publicity on a drive for $3,000,000 which will be used to build a huge, 500-foot cross on Bald Knob mountain (recently renamed Mt. Calvary), site of the Easter service. The general federation of women's clubs is supporting the drive through its 15,000 clubs and 5,000,000 members in the United States.

Here Are Only A Few Of Our Interesting Home Buys

$17,000 CAPE COD

ON 2/3 ACRE NEAR SCHOOL

Want a beautiful and really sharp 2 bedroom home as this 1½ bath listing? It has a natural fireplace, separate dining room, full basement, forced air heat, kitchen with breakfast nook, storms and screens and colored plumbing fixtures. The landscaping is excellent and the taxes very low. This one is even better than our description. See for yourself.

$17,400 BRICK CAPE COD

2 BEDROOMS; EXPANDABLE TO 4

This most attractive and larger than average home is a down to earth value. Close to both grade and high schools in a fine neighborhood. It has gas heat and 1½ car garage. Plumbing and heating and full dormer are in for 2 more beautiful bedrooms and 2nd bath. You'll like it and it is easy to buy.

$18,800 BRICK RANCH

JUST OUTSIDE VILLAGE ON AN ACRE

If you want plenty of elbow room, a big garden and fruit trees plus a very good 3 bedroom, brick ranch home, and a safe and healthy place to raise your family, we've got something for you to see, and you'll like it too.

$19,000 BRICK CAPE COD

We offer a genuinely smart buy in this quality built, 3 bedrm. home with full basement, gas heat and 1½ car garage. Best of all, it's only a few years old and in one of our choicest neighborhoods. This is one of the best reasons for you to come out early.

$19,500 RANCH

Here is a very attractive 3 bedroom home conveniently located and with plenty of elbow room for the active family. Your wife will love this fine kitchen and you'll have plenty of room in the full basement for that "do-it-yourself" shop. The transferred owner is anxious to sell.

$20,500 BRICK COLONIAL

If you are seeking a brick 3 bedroom home in a fine family neighborhood that is complete with basement, attached garage, and beautiful landscaping, this one is outstanding. This home with separate dining room is immaculate and is the residence of a transferred Marine Colonel. Better have a look.

$23,500 DUTCH COLONIAL

Here is a 2 bedroom home on ¾ of an acre of mature landscaping, complete and ready to move into. It has a fireplace in the 22 foot living room, a separate dining room, bedrooms, 14x11 and 12x11; screened porch and 2 car attached garage. There is carpeting throughout the house and the entire grounds are steel fenced. Immediate possession with excellent financing available makes this one ideal.

$27,500 COLONIAL

For real value this 4 bedroom 1½ bath home in Scarsdale has no equal. Only 3 years old, it offers a carpeted living room with fireplace, gas heat, attached garage, and an exceptionally fine location with lots of open space around it. $7,500 down will buy it today.

$31,000 COLONIAL

Located in the fine community of Mount Prospect, near both public and parochial schools, this most attractive 3 year old home has so much to offer. There is a 23 ft. living room, a separate dining room and 17x11 family room on the 1st floor. The 4 bedrooms are 19x12, 16x10, 14x10, and 12x9. There are 1½ baths, wall to wall carpeting on the entire 1st floor as well as 2 bedrooms, and attached garage, full basement and gas heat. You could be proud of this gracious home.

$33,500 COLONIAL

A beautiful, 1 year old, 2 story, beige brick and gleaming white clapboard home on 1 of the finest landscaped corners in park-like Stonegate. The foyer leads to a spacious birch, cabinet kitchen with a Disposall. A 15x12 paneled den makes the dining room and 23 foot carpeted living room appear even more spacious and luxurious. With a ceramic powder room, this creates a truly gracious 1st floor. 3 twin size bedrooms, loads of closet space, a ceramic bath and all copper plumbing are only a few of the deluxe features. The full basement with a 2nd fireplace will provide a wonderfull rumpus room. The 2 car attached garage has electric door openers. Gas hot water baseboard heat is another feature. This one will please the most selective buyer. See it for yourself.

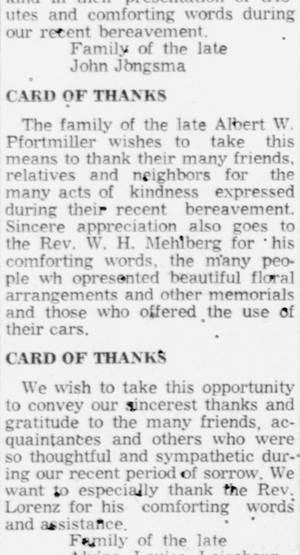
Husbands Note!

Ken-L-King has introduced a precut, ready to assemble dog house made of Masonite Tempered Presdwood, a durable, easy-to-clean hardboard. Features include a swinging door to give the pet ready entrance and exit. The medium size is 22" long, 22" high and 17½" wide.



Charleston skit staged by Loyola University coed club in last week's variety show at the university featured an Arlington Heights resident, Carol Koenig (in racoon coat), 343 S. Bristol Lane.

The coed club skit, which demonstrated the differences between college customs of the mid-20's and today, earned the club a first-place trophy in the fraternity-sorority competition.

At Elmhurst

Carole Timmerman of Mt. Prospect, has been named one of the members of the Elmhurst college chapel choir who will be making the annual spring tour with that group. Although the major function of this choir is to provide music for the chapel services of the Elmhurst college, it takes an extensive tour each spring in addition to giving frequent concert appearances in and around the Chicago area. The nine-day spring tour this year will take the chapel choir to northern Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin where fourteen concert dates have been scheduled in churches and schools.

Carole is majoring in pre-nursing at Elmhurst. She is a second-year student in college. Miss Timmerman lives at 102 N. Maple St. in Mount Prospect.

At DeKalb

Lois Bender of Bloomingdale has been elected president of Alpha Omicron Pi, national social sorority at Northern Illinois state teachers college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Bender.

A junior at Northern, Miss Bender is a graduate of Glenbard township high school in Glen Ellyn.

Consider Round Lake Merger For One City

The Round Lake Civic Betterment league has appointed a 15-man committee to study the advisability or inadvisibility of uniting Round Lake, Round Lake Beach, Round Lake Park, and Indian Hill into a single village.

Should the four communities consolidate, it would make a city of 15,000.

At St. Teresa

Miss Joanne Votava, freshman at the College of Saint Teresa, Winona, Minn., appeared in the musical revue, "It's All Yours," presented at the college March 25-27. The revue consists essentially of songs, dances, production numbers, actors, singers, and comedians, all of which are tied together by dialogue provided by a family of 4—representing all families and the new versus the old—who wander into the theater to see a show.

The father and mother grumble about the lack of graciousness and talent in the theater of today and reminisce about the theater of the past. A muse of the theater resolves their problem by bringing back the charming and nostalgic theater of the past and combining it with the theater of the present.

Miss Joanne Votava is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Votava, 17 S. Hi-Lusi ave., Mt. Prospect, and a graduate of Arlington Hts. high school.

At Lawrence

Two students from Arlington Heights have been named to the high honor roll at Lawrence college for their first semester's work. Joan Bernthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Bernthal, 1610 Brown street, and Joan Timmermann, daughter of the Edward Timmermann's, R.F.D. No. 1, both juniors, maintained a near straight "A" average.

At Indiana

John R. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lee of 608 S. Pine ave., Arlington Heights, has recently returned from a ten day tour with the "Singing Hoosiers" and the "Hoosier Queens" of Indiana university. John, who is the featured soloist with the "Singing Hoosiers," sang a total of 58 solos during the recent tour. The 1,700-mile tour of military bases in the midwest was completed with a total of 19 shows in a period of ten days.

John, who is a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school, is attending Indiana as a sophomore. He is studying for a Bachelor of Science degree. During the past year he acted as president of the Undergraduate's Arts council, has been an active member of the Collegiate Chamber of Commerce and has taken part in many other campus wide communitees and activities.

At Wheaton

Miss Marilyn L. Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brock, of 119 Pershing, Bensenville was awarded semester honors at the honors convocation held in the college chapel at Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., Tuesday, March 29. Marilyn a senior student, was one of 281 students so honored maintaining a 2.2 grade-point average per hour for the first semester of the school year.

At Normal

"Be sure to ask about state awards for prospective teachers," acting president Arthur H. Larsen of Illinois state normal university advised high school seniors recently.

Students ranking academically in the upper third of their graduating classes are eligible for scholarships worth $400 to $500 each over a four-year period. Now under consideration by the legislature is an amendment to the scholarship law which would make students in the upper half of their classes eligible.

Among students now attending Illinois state normal university with the help of state scholarships is Peggy Davenport, 314 S. Beverly Lane, Arlington Heights.

At Valparaiso

Arthur Marvin Clausing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clausing of RR 3, Palatine, has pledged Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity at Valparaiso university. Clausing is a freshman.

At Illinois Tech

Ralph C. Korn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto B. Korn, 3N-575 Oakdale drive, Oakdale Woods, Bensenville, a fourth-year architecture major at the Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, has been chosen to participate in the school's senior counseling program.

As a counselor, Korn will assist new students at Illinois Tech, offering personal advice and aid whenever possible.

At Illinois

In recognition of work in Illini Union student activities, the campus-wide organization at the University of Illinois, award of a silver key has been made to Barbara Arnold, 302 Prospect Manor, Mt. Prospect, for work as high school stunt show chairman. She also received a gold key as a newly elected director of the student group for 1955-56; Paula Miller, 230 S. Walnut st., Arlington Heights was awarded a bronze key for work as Mother's Day chairman.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Herbert G. Wickstrom, son of Mr. Herbert Wickstrom, 540 S. Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights, was recently pledged during informal rushing to Theta Chi, national social fraternity at Illinois Wesleyan university, Bloomington.

Mr. Wickstrom is a freshman at the university.
